Timmins News in Brief

Mrs. W. S. Macpherson and children have gone to Washington, D.C., to spend a few weeks with relatives.

Mr. D. A. Hogarth, principal of the Public School here, visited New Liskeard last week.

Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Fraser, of Cochrane, spent Easter with Mrs. Fraser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Clark. Mr. W. Clark, of Alexo Mine, was also a visitor at his home here during the Easter season.

All will regret that Constable Greer is confined to his home through an attack of rheumatism and grippe, and even the many whom he has "run in" will honestly hope that he is soon "out again" in his usual good health.

Mr. M. Abraham, of Cobalt, is in town this week conducting a sale for the Quality Shoe Store, A. Shaheen, proprietor. Mr. Abraham is well known in the Camp and very highly respected by all for his square dealing and fairness, so that his guarantee of bargains is proof enough for most people that there are genuine snaps at the Sale advertised in another column of this issue.

The first instalment of taxes for the Town of Timmins will be due this year on June 15th. In making taxes payable in two equal instalments, the Council had intended to have the first instalment payable the first of June, but it will not be possible to have the assessment courts, etc., over in time to make that date practical, so the 15th of June has accordingly been set as the date for the first instalment.

Mr. A. Lalonde has taken the position of travelling representative for Patenaude & Berini, manufacturers of the Safety Stove Pipe, and will travel through Canada in the interests of this original and useful patented stove pipe. The business of the firm has grown to such proportions that Messrs Patenaude & Berini have found it necessary to have their factory in Toronto. Mr. Lalonde is well-known and popular in the Camp, having been a resident here for several years. Since 1912 he has been with the J. P. McLaughlin store, and the friends he has made will be sure that with his ability as a salesman and the unusual quality of the goods he has to sell the business of the Safety Stove Pipe is bound to grow to large proportions.

Among the millinery novelties of the season must be mentioned George Dewar's new spring hat, a dainty creation of black felt. It made him look so much like the Greek Patriarch that all the Dominion police scented Bolshevik right away and kept tapping George on the shoulder till his coat was fairly worn away to the muscle. Of course when he would turn his honest face policewards they would see their error, but the hat was an inconvenience in that way. Also, it interfered with his work in any billiard games. So, the hat is put away until war is no more, and the birds are singing blithely and Spring is here in all its gladness and delight. As Widdy would say, "It's a nice day, don't it?"

Mr. R. Brown Scott heard the birds singing in the trees near his home on Thursday morning last, so he is sure that this is Spring that is here now. "But Thursday was March 28th," some one objected, "and in lower Ontario the Spring song birds have been out for some weeks." "Yes," replied Mr. Scott, "but this is the Porcupine." Driver Charlie Barnard of the Fire Dept., however, has proven that Spring is here, better than any other bird, for Monday he was out with the fire team and the "wheels," instead of the "runners." Last year about this time Timmins had its big snow storm, but the Spring this year is earlier than last year, so much earlier, indeed, that it will not do to boast about it.

From landing places and from shelters on the river a number of canoes were "lost" last year, and the owners suspect that the canoes were "found" again, all right, by somebody else. This somebody else is thought to have at least five of the missing canoes. He is a gentleman who claims that he has a right to anything in this country, because he was here first. It is not suggested that the canoes were taken to sell. It is not even believed that the taker is a kleptomaniac, but rather that he is a long-headed fellow. To the question, "What use would six canoes be to the one man?" the answer is that by keeping the canoes at different points on the river and lakes the portaging of canoes could be practically avoided and thus much time and trouble avoided.

Mr. Dunc. Curtis, of Haileybury, was a business visitor to town last week.

On the occasion of the visit of the Grand Master C. H. Mann to the Cochrane Lodge of the I.O.O.F. last week a tablet "Honor Roll" was unveiled. Cochrane Lodge has sent 20 members overseas in the great battle for humanity, and of these four have paid the supreme sacrifice.

Capt. Geo. T. Bailey, formerly of Cochrane, who recently achieved notoriety and a three months' term by repeating the statement that 90 per cent. of the soldiers overseas were drunk on Christmas Day, has been struck from the strength of the Army Medical Corps, which is a polite way of saying that he has been dropped out of the military service.

The fire bell rung Monday night at nine o'clock and caused some scattering among the outside firemen and others. Even a local lodge came near to being overthrown by the rush of some of the members to get outside at the second tap of the bell. When the proper form of alarm did not materialize several suggested "April Fool,"—but it was not exactly that,—simply the change of time in the ringing of the curfew bell. Starting April 1st the curfew rings at 9 p.m., instead of 8 p.m. as through the winter months.

According to the custom of this country traffic on the ice on the river is perfectly safe until a team goes through,—then it is doubtful. If a team is drowned through the ice, then traffic on this roadway is considered actually dangerous. As a consequence the ice on the river this year may be considered doubtful now,—even near to dangerous for teaming. The other day a team and load went through the ice and the horses were rescued with difficulty. The load,—a load of 100 bags of flour,—is at the bottom of the river. The flour belonged to the Grosart camp. The loss of so much flour at this time is a more serious matter than the actual financial loss. Flour is one of the things that the authorities have specially asked to be conserved to relieve the shortage overseas. A hundred bags of flour would keep a hundred families overseas for several weeks, so the river should now be recognized as fully dangerous for teaming,—especially if the load be flour.

In a local jewelry store last week two of the town's respected citizens got into a heated argument. The one said that Sir Robert Borden had de-franchised part of the women of Canada. "I'll bet you fifty-cents he did not," flared up the other man. "I'll take that bet," cried the first speaker. "Here's the money," said the two as they put forward their half dollars. Then the argument resumed, "fierec, fierec, fierec," until it fairly sizzled. "He couldn't take away the franchise from any women when none of them had it before," says the Union Government man. "But he should have given it to all," says Sir Wilfrid's worshipper. "But you can't take away, even from a woman, what she never had," thunders the Union Government man. And so they kept it up until they got so hot they automatically cooled them selves off again. And then they decided that the bet should go to the Red Cross or the D.Y.B. Club; in any event, no matter who was right or wrong. Accordingly they said to the stake-holder, "Just pay the money over to the D.Y.B. or the Red Cross,—from two old fools."

At a dance held on Easter Monday evening at the residence of an Austrian in Moneta, a German was alleged to have made some imprudent and impudent suggestions about the war and its outcome. The remarks reached the ears of the police and Officer Allen, Constable McInnis and some of the Dominion police visited the house and stopped the dance that was in progress long enough to take away the four present who were alien enemies. These men were questioned at the station and while they first denied having even mentioned the war they were later forced to admit one or two questionable remarks. They were, however, regretful of discussing such a question at all, and after fair warning were allowed to go, with the provision that in future they will not abuse the wide liberties given them. Recently there have been reports of improper remarks made by alien enemies, and the authorities are determined to stamp out this evil. The people are in no mood these days for such abuses of the privileges that have been so weakly extended to enemies in this country, and if these alien enemies can not keep at least a civil tongue they will be given opportunity to try Kapuskasing Camp in preference to the Porcupine.
