THE HUNS NOW PLEAD FOR PEACE.

Twice within the past week the Huns have besought the kindly aid of President Wilson in an effort to secure peace, or even a brief time of relief from the punishment now being inflicted upon them by the Allied Armies of civilization.

The chief point to be remembered now is that the Huns are criminals, not honorable foes.

Spanish Influenza, commonly known as the "flu," has been spreading so quickly across this continent that some idea of its prevention, diagnosis, and treatment might not be out of place here.

The symptoms are general malaise, headache, pain in the back, temperature, and commonly a sluggish bowel condition.

SAFETY FIRST.

Reports received yesterday tell of German torpedo boats leaving Zebruge for Germany during a stormy night.

world at an early date. Hold fast! the British way. "Unconditional surrender" and "the military occupation of Germany by the Allies,"—these are the only honorable terms now for civilization.

SPANISH INFLUENZA IN THE NORTH LAND.

The big cities down south have suffered severely from the Spanish Influenza epidemic, hundreds dying from the pneumonia and heart trouble following this form of the gripe.

ANOTHER BOLSHIEVIKI GIVEN HEAVY SENTENCE.

There are still a few aliens in Timmins who continue to give support to the evil Bolsheviki doctrines that have brought such ruin on Russia, and this support is given despite the fact that simply to belong to any of the Russian Revolutionary Societies or to even have any of their literature in one's possession is a crime under the law now and may bring severe penalties.
