OBSTRUCTING POLICE COSTS JOHN OVER $100.

At the police court on Thursday, Magistrate Atkinson fined John Graboski $100 and costs,—the maximum penalty under the Ontario Temperance Act,—for obstructing the police in a search of the house of Graboski for liquor. Solicitor O'Sullivan was inclined to raise technical objections to the charge being laid under the Ontario Temperance Act, but he lost some of his enthusiasm along this line when Chief Wilson offered to withdraw the charge and lay another charge under the criminal code sections against interference with police officers. Still more enthusiasm was taken away when Magistrate Atkinson recommended the internment of accused. "We are not going to permit alien enemies to stay at large and cause trouble and defy the law," the Magistrate said. "I think the best thing for the police to do now is to pick up this fellow and have him sent to the internment camp." Officer Burke, in his evidence in the case, told of being suspicious of the Graboski place in the matter of liquor.

On the night in question he visited the place and as two men left the house he slipped in. When he was talking to Graboski preparatory to making a search of the place which on account of previous convictions was a "public place" under the Ontario Temperance Act, he noticed Mrs. Graboski grab something that he thought was a bottle. The Officer attempted to follow the woman, but Graboski interfered, and Officer Burke then placed John under arrest. Solicitor O'Sullivan said that his information was that Mrs. Graboski ran because she was partly undressed and was consequently alarmed when she saw a strange man in the house. The Magistrate was not impressed with this theory, in view of the fact that the woman ran outside the house, and Officer Burke swore positively that she was not partly undressed. No defence was put in under oath, and the Magistrate imposed the limit allowed by the section of the O.T.A. under which the charge was laid.

An Austrian for allowing his cows to run at large was fined $5 and costs.

Constable McInnis had an Italian bring the court on two charges, one of carrying firearms in his possession and the other of not being lawfully employed. The first charge was not pressed and on the charge of idleness the accused pleaded that he was unable to work on account of his health. He had a certificate to this effect from a local doctor, but as the same doctor had given another certificate to the effect that the man was well enough to work, there was some confusion, and the case was remanded to explain the two certificates. As the man was suffering from venereal disease, the Magistrate was inclined to send him down as a menace to the community, and with this end in view he was turned over to the local medical health officer for examination and isolation, if necessary.

Officer Burke took Gib, McInnis in charge on Wednesday night and on a charge of being drunk in a public place he was fined $10 and costs, $17.50 in all.

It will be remembered that last year the Mattagami Pulp and Lumber Co. brought in to Timmins a number of families from Quebec Province to work in the bush here. This year the same procedure was followed to overcome the labor shortage. Last week practically a trainload of workers and their wives and families were landed here and proceeded at once to the camps to be prepared for them in the bush where the Mattagami Pulp & Lumber Co. are at work.

According to The Haileyburian, Northern Ontario and New Brunswick potatoes have proved to be the best for seed and will be extensively used next year. Harwich and Blenheim growers, in Kent County, have decided to import large quantities of seed from New Ontario, one grower alone taking a carload. In this connection it may not be amiss to refer to the fact that potatoes grown this year in Timmins have been worthy of special notice for their size and quality. "The finest potatoes I have ever tasted in the North Land," said Fire Chief Borland the other day, "were grown right in Timmins. They were large, had that fine 'mealy' flavor, and generally were jake."

Why Canada must borrow money to carry on

Because Canada has put her hand to the plow and will not turn back:—

—our country is in the war on the side of liberty and justice and will stay in it till complete victory is won and the unspeakable Hun is smashed and beaten to the ground;

—a nation at war must make tremendous expenditures in cash to keep up her armies and supply them with munitions, food and clothing;

—Canada must finance many millions of dollars of export trade in food, munitions and supplies which Britain and our allies must have on credit;

—for these purposes Canada must borrow hundreds of millions of dollars—

And, this money must be borrowed from the people of Canada:—

Therefore, Canada will presently come to her people for a new Victory Loan to carry on.

+ + +

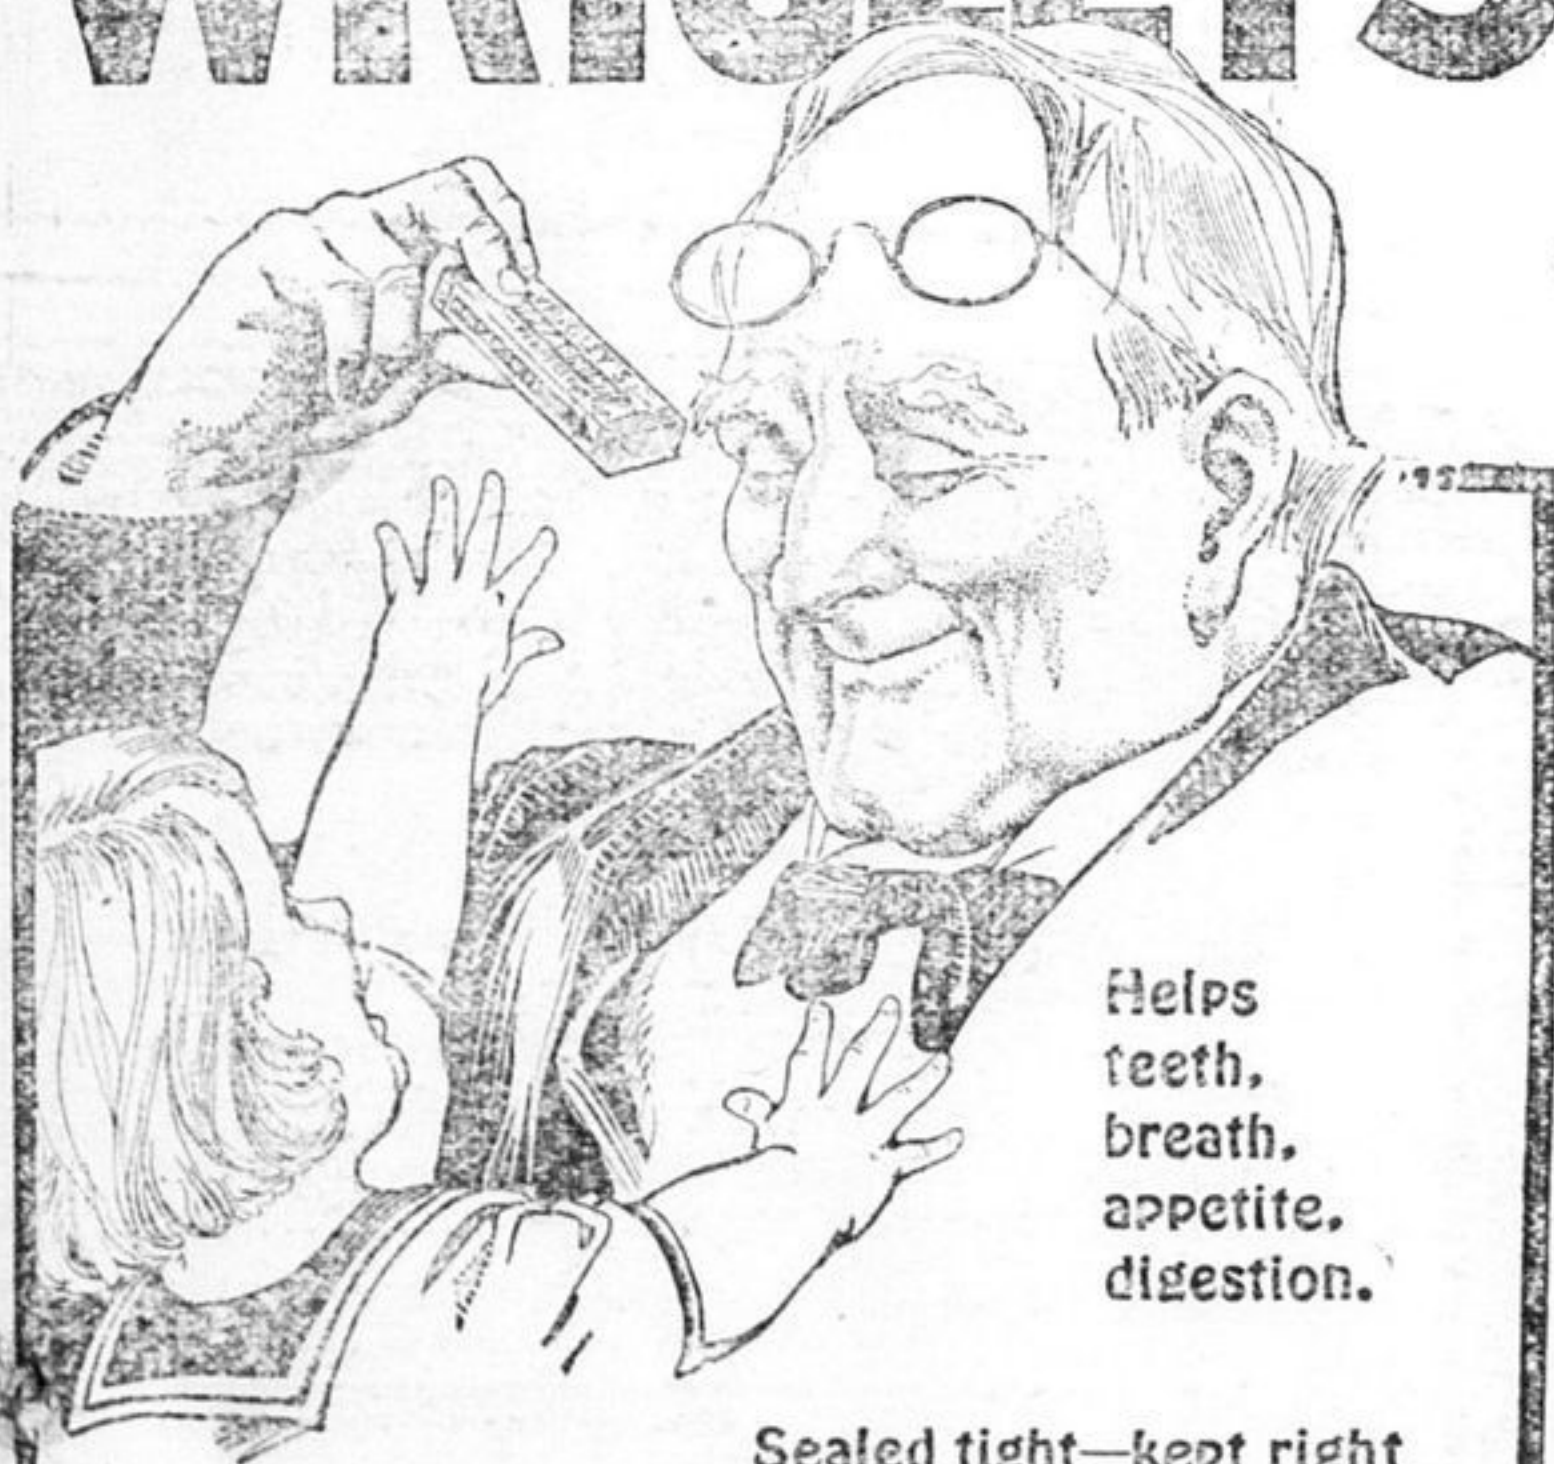

Canadians will loan the money by again buying Victory Bonds.

The national safety, the national honor and the national well-being require that each and every Canadian shall do his duty by lending to the nation every cent he can spare for this purpose.

Be ready when the call comes to see your country through in its great war work

Issued by Canada's Victory Loan Committee in co-operation with the Minister of Finance of the Dominion of Canada
