SEEKING HELP OF THE SPIRITS IN MINING.

SOLD 650 POUNDS BUTTER AT 56 CENTS PER POUND.

If any refutation were necessary for the queer idea suggested by one non-advertising merchant that the people of this Camp will not buy good things unless they are exorbitantly priced, then that idea was completely upset by the success of H. Ledue's bargain sale of butter, eggs, meat, etc., on Friday and Saturday of last week.

The Halleyburian last week said:—"Forty dollars a ton was the price asked for hay on Saturday last. Keep off the grass!" Now, Mr. Halleyburian, the answer is not "Keep off the grass!" The answer should be to tell somebody to "go to grass."

It is through struggle, through brave meeting and overcoming obstacles, that we find ourselves and develop our strength."

THE CORDIALITY

Warmth and Earnestness expressed by the people at the opening of Timmins' New Jewelry Store and The Success of Our Bean-Guessing Competitions have encouraged us greatly. The service which we offer will not be limited to just the goods we have on hand, but will include the best efforts of our wholesale department in Toronto, where every possible demand the customer can make can be met without extra charge of middleman's profit.

Already we have taken orders for such a trivial article as a manicure piece to complete a set, to as large an order as a complete dinner set of Limoge china. We quote these two orders to prove that no order is too small and none too large to exhaust the capacity of this store.

New goods being unwrapped every day. Come in and see this sparkling newness. No attention will be paid until you get what you desire. Just come in and look.
