REV. D. L. GORDON, COBALT, GOES TO AGINCOURT.

Rev. D. L. Gordon, for the past five years pastor of the Cobalt Presbyterian church, left this week with his family for Agincourt, near Toronto, where he has been called to take charge as pastor of the Agincourt Presbyterian church. As the Cobalt churches are all closed on account of the influenza epidemic, Rev. D. L. Gordon was not able to preach a farewell sermon to his people, but he issued a goodbye, message in the form of a circular letter to his congregation and friends. In this letter he thanks the people of Cobalt for kindness shown him during his pastorate, and expresses his sympathy for those whom the war and the epidemic have bereaved. Over eighty members of the Cobalt Presbyterian church joined the colors, and six of these have given their lives for the great cause, while many others have suffered wounds. "Since they so nobly fought to make the world safe for Democracy," says Mr. Gordon, "we should now fight to make Democracy safe for the world." Rev. Mr. Gordon was widely known and esteemed in the North Land. He visited Timmins on several occasions, and has many friends here who will wish him all success and happiness in his new sphere of labor.

In accordance with the request of Ganner Emmett Smith who wrote home from the front asking for this service, Solemn High Mass was chanted in the Haileybury Cathedral on Saturday morning for the repose of the soul of Lieut. W. A. Montgomery (Monty) who was killed in action in France in the closing hours of the world war.
