Timmins News in Brief

Mrs. F. M. Burke returned on Sunday's National from the South, accompanied by her little daughter.

Mr. Robt. Sims received the sad news last week that his brother had died in New York. A wife and two children survive.

All are pleased to see Mr. F. M. Burke recovered again from his recent illness and back again at his accustomed place.

Mr. H. B. Colborne, formerly Canadian Express Agent here, is now in charge of the Company's office at Waterloo, Ont.

Hockey match Monday night between the Town and Hollinger teams. Both teams have been strengthened and improved and this will be a battle royal that no lovers of fast hockey can afford to miss.

According to word reaching here this week Pte. Alex. Borland, son of Fire Chief and Mrs. Borland, reached Halifax on Monday from overseas, and is expected home this week or next.

Remember the Firemen's Dance in the Masonic Hall to-morrow (Thursday) evening. The best of music and a good time guaranteed for all. Dancing at 10 o'clock sharp.

Mr. Bert Kelcher, who has been in the meat department of J. R. Gordon's for some time past, left on Sunday for the south. During his stay in town he made many friends who will regret his departure.

Word reached here this week of the birth at Winnipeg a few days ago of a fine big eight-pound baby boy to Mr. and Mrs. Geo. A. D. Murray, formerly of South Porcupine.

For the accommodation of ratepayers who on account of their hours of work are unable to look after business between nine and five-thirty p.m., the Tax Collector will be at his office until 6 p.m. hereafter. This will be a great convenience to many.

Mr. D. Warren, manager of the Timmins store of the Northern Canada Supply Co., left on Sunday for Hamilton to attend the annual convention of the Ontario Hardwaremen's Association. He will be away a week or ten days.

Mr. T. W. Foster, of Toronto, Northern Ontario representative of the New York Life Insurance Co., was a visitor to the Camp last week and was warmly greeted by his old friends here. Mr. Foster was one of the pioneers of the Porcupine and is well-known in the North Land.

After a very bitter battle between the members of the Cobalt Town Council, Mr. Adam Davis was appointed assessor for Cobalt at a salary of $400 per year. Mr. Adam Davis is famous throughout the North Land as the Cobalt man who can beat Fire Chief Borland playing crib.

Lovers of snow-shoe exercise are urged to add utility to their pleasure by turning their steps to the course for the Dog Team Race. A few snow shoe parties over that course would be very helpful and assist in the sure success of the Big Dog Team Race. A hint to snow-shoe parties is sufficient!

Mr. P. H. Stock, who recently returned from overseas service, is up from Toronto for a couple of weeks in connection with the Timmins jewelry business of W. N. & P.H. Stock. The firm is putting on a special sale, with many items of particular interest to the public, as may be noted by the posters issued and the advertisement elsewhere in this issue.

Mr. Vincent Woodbury left on Sunday's National for the South to visit his parents at Oaklands, California. "My father and mother are observing their Golden Wedding Anniversary," said Mr. Woodbury last week, "they have been 50 years without a word of disagreement." That is a record worth celebrating and worth going from the North Land to California to attend.

THE FIREMEN'S LAST DANCE OF THE SEASON.

In response to many and repeated requests, the Timmins Fire Brigade are putting on another Dance in the Masonic Hall to-morrow night. Dancing will begin at 10 o'clock sharp, with Appel's orchestra, three pieces to furnish the music. The success of the Firemen's Dances in the past is guarantee enough that this week's event will be a pleasant success, and that all present will spend a very happy evening.

Born--In Cobalt, on Thursday, Feb. 13th, 1919, to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Kemsley--a daughter.

Mr. Dayton Ostrosser is on a business trip to Toronto, Hamilton and other points south.

All are pleased to see Mr. McCracken able to be out again after his recent illness.

Mr. A. E. Gentil, formerly of the T. & N.O. staff here, is renewing acquaintances in town.

Mr. H. J. Marshall is in Hamilton this week attending the annual convention of the Ontario Hardwaremen's Association.

Mr. Jack White, of the Imperial Bank Staff, Kirkland Lake, renewed acquaintances in Timmins over the week-end.

Mr. Sutcliffe, of the firm of Sutcliffe and Neelands, was in town this week on business connected with the proposed extensions of waterworks, sewerage, etc.

There will be a special meeting of Golden Nugget Rebekah Lodge to-morrow (Thursday) evening at 8 o'clock sharp; business, installation of officers.

On account of so many events being on this week it was decided not to have another hockey match until next week. The return match between the Town and the Hollinger teams will be held next week likely.

Lieut. Grekla, for a year or two past with the United States Air Service, but previously on the Staff of the Hollinger-Mine, returned to Camp this week, having received his honorable discharge from service.

According to reports received here last week the Canadian Railway Construction Corps that left the North Land as the 228th Battalion is now on the way home to Canada, and the boys are expected here in less than a couple of weeks.

That the Government intends to proceed at once with the erection of the bridge over the Mattagami is suggested further by the advertisement elsewhere in this issue calling for tenders for the construction of the bridge.

The second Mocassin Dance in the Timmins Rink on Thursday evening last was another big success. There was another big crowd, almost equal in numbers to the many at the first Mocassin Dance here. All present enjoyed the event, the music was good, and from all viewpoints the event may be classed as a complete success.

District Deputy Grand Master D. Johns paid an official visit last Wednesday to Golden Beaver Lodge, A. F. & A.M. After the session of the Lodge there was a very enjoyable banquet tendered in honor of the D.D.G.M., whose address on the occasion was one of the features of the evening. On Thursday evening the D.D.G.M. visited Porcupine Lodge at So. Porcupine.

The second "Amateur Night" at the New Empire on Wednesday evening last proved a big success and the variation to the programme was much enjoyed by the audience. Misses Stevens and Olive Staal sang the specialty number, "Oui, Oui, Marie," and by the applause of the audience were granted first prize. Little Miss Holton, aged about nine years, won second prize, and little Miss Brazeau, aged about nine, delighted the audience with a vocal selection. Mr. Larouche gave a skillful exhibition of expert step-dancing. This week (to-night) some surprises are expected, one of the specials being an original act by two well-known young men of the town.

The Craving

Written and produced by Francis Ford

Containing the most remarkable photographic illusions ever cast on the screen. Here is the sort of a fight that you have never seen before. It is a fight of will against will—two minds struggling with one another for conquest—some amazing feats.

NEW EMPIRE THEATRE

Friday, 21 Saturday, 22

Word received in the Camp last week gave the pleasing news that there was decided improvement in the condition of ex-Mayor W. H. Wilson, and that he was making very pleasing progress to recovery of his old-time health and strength, following a recent operation in one of the Toronto hospitals.

Four children of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Legault were burned to death last week in a fire at their home in Sudbury. The inquest showed that the parents, the firemen and all others concerned made all possible effort to save the lives of the children, but the fire had so great a grip of the house that rescue was impossible.

Chief Chas. McInnis, of Tisdale, and Officers Allen, Rayeroff and D. McInnis made one of the old-time round-ups and clean-ups on Sunday evening, starting at South End and coming through to Moneta. Some gambling games were raided, and as a result there will be both gambling charges and liquor charges to be answered on Thursday of this week.

PTE. DESORMEAUX GIVEN WELCOME BACK TO CAMP.

Friday evening last there was a large and enthusiastic crowd at the station to welcome home Pte. Desormeaux, back from the front after several years' service overseas. Mayor McInnis for the Town, and President Geo. Smith of the G.W.V.A., formally welcomed the returned soldier home again, while three hearty cheers and a "tiger" were given by the crowd.

The picture, "For Husbands Only," at the New Empire Theatre on Friday and Saturday last proved to be a very pleasing and original type of picture. The play throughout was full of interest, the subject of the triangle—two men and a woman—was dealt with in a very novel way and the ending was a clever and unexpected one. The Theatre offered a prize for the person who would suggest the climax of the play after two parts had been shown. Not one in the big audience came anywhere near the idea of the original ending of this unique problem play.
