A SOLDIER'S NIGHTCAP
NOT MADE BY THE D.Y.B.

A certain popular soldier home to the Porcupine on leave went down to Montreal one time not so long ago to see about his final discharge. He entered Montreal with pleasant visions of joy, and hurried into the first hotel bar that showed itself.

"Give me a nice, good, large whiskey, please, and quickly," he said dryly, but with a smile for the wine clerk.

The bartender smiled in sympathy. Then a look of pathos touched the face of the man behind the bar. "Awfully sorry, sir," he said, "but I can't serve you. We are not allowed to serve a man in uniform."

The soldier looked at his uniform with a frown. Then his face cleared. "That's right, old chap," he answered, "stick to the law, obey order! That's right! But watch me beat the game!"

"Hope you do, sir," says the bartender, but without much hope in his voice.

The soldier secured a room in the hotel and went up there at once. Then he ordered a bottle sent to his room. Up came the bottle promptly, and the soldier reached for the joyous fluid.

"Awfully sorry, sir," says the bell boy, "but we can't serve a man in uniform. It's against the law, you know." And he took the bottle away.

Once more the soldier looked in anger upon his honored uniform. Then in a minute or two he rung the bell again. "Bring up a bottle of John Dewar's Special," he ordered. Up came the bottle again in a jiffy. "Can't serve a soldier in uniform," the boy began. Then, "Oh, I beg your pardon, sir, it's all right,"—and the bottle was handed over. The soldier was in his pyjamas!

Where there's a will, there's a way to get a drink.

"IMMIGRATION" AGAIN
AT "OPEN DISCUSSION CLUB"

On Thursday last at the Timmins Open Discussion Club which is to meet in the basement of the Presbyterian church every Thursday evening for the discussion of modern problems affecting humanity, the subject for consideration was "Immigration." The crowd did not gather promptly at eight o'clock, the appointed hour of meeting, so the Chairman of the Program Committee went away without turning the lights on. The speaker for the evening arriving a few minutes after eight decided the meeting was called off, so went away and enjoyed another Discussion Club, —the Timmins Town Council. About quarter after eight, however, a number of members of the Timmins Open Discussion Club met and turned on the lights in the church basement. Then they turned on the light on the question of "Immigration," and had a generally interesting and profitable time, deciding when the hour for closing came to continue the discussion on Thursday evening of this week.

67 PER CENT. OF ONTARIO'S
GOLD FROM HOLLINGER.

Elsewhere in this issue it is noted that the Hollinger Gold Mines at Timmins produced last year 40 per cent. of the total gold production of Canada. The figures given in the report just issued by the Ontario Bureau of Mines show that the Hollinger in 1918 produced 67 per cent. of all the gold produced in Ontario. The gold production for the province for 1918 totalled 411,897 ounces worth $8,592,543. Of this, the Hollinger produced 276,945 ounces valued at $5,706,214; the McIntyre, 75,556 ounces, $1,561,735; the Lake Shore, 20,031 ounces, $415,230; the Tough Oakes, 6,620 ounces, $136,828; the Porcupine Crown, 5,979 ounces, $123,563; the Dome Lake, 4,894 ounces, $100,799; the Schumacher, 4,463 ounces, $92,200; Porcupine V.N.T., 3,997 ounces, $82,203; the Dome Mines, 3,948 ounces, $81,618; the Teek-Hughes, 3,869 ounces $79,949; the Croesus, 3,124 ounces $64,555. Among the new producers running over $10,000 in production were the Davidson and the Patricia.

An interesting fact that may be gleaned from the figures given in the report is that out of the eight and a half million dollars of gold produced, less than a million dollars worth comes from outside the Porcupine.

GOVERNMENT MAY OPEN
EMPLOYMENT OFFICE HERE

Plans are under way at present to have the Ontario Government open one of its official employment offices at Timmins. The Government has recently established employment offices at various leading centres. Cobalt is the only place so far in this far North to be chosen as the centre for one of these offices, and it is pointed out that the Porcupine has an even greater need and usefulness for one of these offices than the Cobalt district. A great number of men are coming in daily to this Camp and the new arrivals include many returned soldiers. The mines and the lumber camps require many men here, but it is necessary that the right types of workers be secured for the work concerned, as well as that employment be secured for all coming in here. It is understood that the Government has considered the situation and that an official employment office will be established at Timmins for this district. This office will likely be placed in charge of a returned soldier competent to handle the work with efficiency and satisfaction generally.

The Admiral's Broom—and—Up From Somerset
H. Ruthven McDonald 216053

"The Admiral's Broom" is a ballad, vigorous and tuneful, having all the swing of a rollicking song of the sea and possessing breadth of bigness as well as strength of workmanship. This rousing baritone song as rendered by Ruthven McDonald is remarkable for clearness of enunciation, and the listener will have no difficulty in following every word.
"Up From Somerset." The old song has all the qualities of the good old ones, the expressions used all possess the power of conjuring up pictures in the mind of the listener, which is one of the highest qualities of art. Mr. McDonald's voice is not only ample in volume but he can phrase with delicacy and the tones of his upper register are remarkable for their richness.
