The Admiral's Broom—and—Up From
Somerset H. Ruthven McDonald 216053

"The Admiral's Broom" is a ballad, vigorous and tuneful, having all the swing of a rollicking song of the sea and possessing breadth of bigness as well as strength of workmanship. This rousing baritone song as rendered by Ruthven McDonald is remarkable for clearness of enunciation, and the listener will have no difficulty in following every word.

"Up From Somerset." The old song has all the qualities of the good old ones, the expressions used all possess the power of conjuring up pictures in the mind of the listener, which is one of the highest qualities of art. Mr. McDonald's voice is not only ample in volume but he can phrase with delicacy and the tones of his upper register are remarkable for their richness.
