Timmins News in Brief

Born—At South-Porcupine, on Wednesday, Dec. 17th to Mr. and Mrs. Chas. McInnis,—a son.

Mr. J. Wray, of the H. B. Wills staff, left last week to spend Christmas in Montreal.

Mr. C. G. Williams returned last week from his business trip to Globe, Arizona, and other points south.

Have you recorded your guess on the clock in Stock's Jewelry window? It will be given free to the one guessing nearest to the time it stops.

Practically all the members of the Timmins Public School staff left last week to spend the holiday season at their homes. Miss Ingles went to her home in Englehart; Miss Thompson to Owen Sound; Miss Taylor, Ottawa; Miss Corman, Cobalt; and Miss Wright and Miss Gowan to their homes in the south.

The prophecy of the end of the world last Wednesday did not find much sympathetic consideration here. One or two credulous people thought it might be true, until Wednesday night passed, and even then one man suggested that it might come yet, the T. & N. O. being notoriously late these days and so everything being delayed in reaching here. "Can that," says Dick, "up here we are already at the end of the world anyway."

Mr. Jack Cade left the Camp on Saturday morning to return again to England where he is now engaged in the management of a growing glass industry concern built up in the Old Land since the war to handle trade that formerly was allowed to fall into German hands. Mr. Cade was a member of the Hollinger staff before the war and enlisting here in 1917 in the Royal Air Force served in England and France. When the war ended he remained in England, his homeland, and went into business there, his engineering skill and executive ability being justly valued. On his brief visit here last week he was unable to see half the hosts of friends here who remember him as one of the old-timers of the Camp. Mr. E. P. Ladbroke, also formerly of the Hollinger Engineering staff, is also now connected with the glass industry business with which Mr. Cade is associated in England.

Mr. E. H. Rutherford is spending the Christmas vacation at his home in Toronto.

Mr. H. W. Hooker left last week to spend the holidays at his home near Galt and at other points south.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Taillon are spending the Christmas holidays in Toronto and points east.

Nominations for Tisdale Township this year are scheduled for 1 p. m. at the Council Chambers, South Porcupine, on Monday, December 29th to select candidates for Reeve and Councillors of the Township for 1920. Among the names mentioned for the Reeveship, in addition to the present Reeve, Mr. C. B. Morgan, is that of Mr. J. E. Cook, Solicitor, of South Porcupine, who took a prominent and helpful part in the municipal affairs of the Township in the early and struggling days of the district.

Attempts were made last week to burglarize Halperin's jewelry store and the Northern Canada Supply Co. warehouse. The marks of a chisel were noticeable on the door of the jewelry store where an attempt had been made to force the door. In this case, however, the burglars had not been successful, probably being frightened away by some passerby. Entrance was gained at the Northern Canada warehouse and a quantity of goods taken.

During the past week Mr. E. H. Bridger has been kept busy in his temporary quarters in the Goldfields Annex. After the recent fire on Third Avenue he was able to salvage a quantity of goods especially timely at this season of the year, and these with new goods received, make a good display. Most of the goods on sale are undamaged, but all the stocks, as will be noticed by the announcement elsewhere in this issue, must be disposed of, as Mr. Bridger is going out of business here after Christmas. All the stocks accordingly are being sold at noteworthy reductions from regular prices, with special reductions on goods in any way injured by the fire. Practically nothing really hurt by the fire or water has been put on sale, while articles slightly soiled are offered at compensating reductions. To clear out everything the whole stock is being sold at bargain prices.

Dr. McInnis. How long will it run. The clock in Stock's window was started on Dec. 15th by the May

The children of the Timmins Public School had a happy celebration Christmas on Friday of a week previous to the closing of the school for the Christmas holidays. Each room in the school had its own special observance of the occasion, suited to the tastes and ages of the pupils. Each room there was a pleasant concert programme, with an attractive array of Christmas gifts for the children, candies being an important item of course, in the list.
