Timmins News in Brief

Mr. Len Smith left last week for a visit at his home in Haileybury.

Born—At Haileybury Hospital on January 3rd, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. V. Emery,—a daughter.

His many friends will be pleased to learn that Mr. J. T. Easton is making satisfactory progress to recovery from his recent illness.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Taillon returned last week after a few weeks' holiday spent in Ottawa, Toronto and other points east and south.

Golden Beaver Lodge, No. 528, A. F. & A. M., are giving an At Home for Masons only and their ladies, in the Masonic Hall, Timmins, on Friday evening, Jan. 30th. Cards, dancing, refreshments. The event commences at 9 o'clock.

The Town Council for 1920 will hold its first regular meeting on Monday evening next Jan. 26th. The Town Council has been holding its regular meetings on the second and fourth Mondays of each month, and the new Council is following this rule.

Mr. G. Spence, of the Bank of Commerce staff, Timmins, left Thursday morning last for Montreal where he has been promoted to a good position on the bank staff. Mr. Spence was popular here in many circles, especially in clean manly sport such as baseball, hockey, tennis, golf, etc., and he will be much missed in town. His numerous friends here, however, will wish him the best of good luck and advancement wherever he may be.

The Haileyburian last week had the following reference to the young man killed in an accident at the McIntyre Mine last week:—"John Dolan, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. Dolan, Third Street, Haileybury, lost his life at the McIntyre Mine, Porcupine, on Monday. The accident was caused by a fall of rock. Deceased, who was only 17 years of age, had been employed at the McIntyre since last October. Previous to going there he lived with his parents here and was employed at Searl's Livery. The remains were brought to Haileybury yesterday (Wednesday) and the funeral takes place this morning (Jan. 15th) at nine o'clock. Much sympathy is expressed for the sorrowing parents.

Mr. J. Cloutier, of Timmins, was a Haileybury visitor last week.

Mr. Arthur Stevens has been elected by acclamation as President of the Cochrane Board of Trade.

Mr. E. Lightbody has returned from Edmonton, accompanied by his bride. Mr. and Mrs. Lightbody will take up residence at the Dome.

The Pas Herald has the following item in its last issue referring to former old-timers of the Porcupine:—"H. M. Paull and Pete Davidson are in Winnipeg. Mr. Paull will meet his sister en route from England.

Sunday, Jan. 25th is set apart by the Presbyterian church as a special "Home Missions" day in all the churches throughout Canada. The subject at the Timmins Presbyterian church will be "Home Missions and music at the services including a violin duet.

Anglican Social Club held their weekly meeting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Jemmett on Monday evening, Jan. 24th. There will be special singing. About twenty young people were present and enjoyed a social evening and a pleasant dance. Mr. Harry Wrinn was appointed Treasurer to succeed Mr. R. Benallick.

There was a large turnout at the New Empire Theatre on Wednesday evening last to hear the Hawaiian Quartette. These native musicians from the southern islands have been widely praised by the press of the cities visited on this tour. Here they gave instrumental and vocal selections, and all who are charmed by Hawaiian music were pleased with all the selections given. The quartette included three men and one woman, all garbed in native costume, and playing and singing Hawaiian music.

Harry Heppelstone, the returned soldier reported last week as mysteriously disappeared, turned up again at Cobalt during the week-end and expressed surprise at the fuss made over his supposed disappearance. He said he had simply been away on business and that he had been doing no "disappearance" act at all and that the newspaper and street talk to the contrary was all nonsense.

Some incorrect reports have appeared in regard to the case of Wallingford vs. the Pierce Jacobs Lumber Co. The case came before Judge Hartman at Haileybury last Wednesday, and the facts may be stated briefly as follows:—Mr. F. M. Wallingford charged the Pierce-Jacobs Co. with trespass, the charge arising from the cutting of some timber on Mr. Wallingford's property some time ago. Judgment was given in favor of Mr. Wallingford.
