SMALL LOANS TO HELP WORKERS IN EUROPE

One Million Dollars Will Be Spent to Help Mechanics From Canadian Relief Fund.

After announcement had been made in The Advance of the Committee organized here to assist in this district in the campaign from April 19th to April 22nd for funds for the Canadian Jewish War Relief, many wished particulars of for just what purposes the money would be expended and some of the plans of the Fund. In former issues it was pointed out that conditions are very serious indeed in wide stretches of country in Europe and the sufferings of the people are almost beyond description. The Canadian Jewish War Relief has been relieving immediate cases of poverty and want, and wishes to continue and extend this good work. In addition there are several definite plans under way for more permanent assistance. The rehabilitation of Poland's middle class of mechanics, artisans and small tradesmen, ruined by the war by expending $1,000,000 through small loans, is the plan of Dr. Boris D. Bogen, Director-General of Jewish Relief work in Poland. "Perfect administration ready to carry this work on," Dr. Bogen has cabled to the Canadian Jewish War Relief Committee headquarters. "This is wonderful opportunity for constructive service.

Heading a unit of 25 skilled relief workers, which recently arrived in Poland, Dr. Bogen, with headquarters in Warsaw, through his unit has his relief organizations covering practically every part of stricken Poland, he reports, while couriers are covering the country, delivering remittances from Canadians to their destitute relatives in Poland. In line with Dr. Bogen's reconstruction policy, an appropriation of $250,000.00 for use as small loans to aid in the March expenditures of $710,000.00 for Poland, by the Joint Distribution Committee, relief disbursing organization of the Canadian Jewish War Relief and its allied bodies.

WANTS IMPROVED POST OFFICE SERVICE HERE

Mr. Paddy Rowe Suggests That Council or Others Take up the Question.

The following letter speaks for itself:—

Timmins, April 6th 1920.
To the Editor of The Advance:—
Dear Sir:—I think something ought to be done as regards having better accommodation at the post office here. It is time we had a proper post office with adequate accommodation and open at hours that would suit the people's interests most. We should have a post office with a vestibule open at all hours to enable people with boxes to be able to get at them at any time. The holders of boxes are surely entitled to some advantage more than they get now for the price they pay for the boxes. The post office is closed up on every possible pretext. On Good Friday and Easter Monday the office was open only from 9.30 to 10.30 a. m., when most of the men are working or sleeping. If the office was open on holidays from 6 to 8 in the evening it would suit the majority of the workmen. We have put up with this inconvenience long enough. It is up to the Council to see this thing altered. I should like to see some more able and prominent citizen take this matter up through the medium of The Advance. Yours truly,
PADDY ROWE.

UNEXPECTED DEATH OF MRS. E. G. HAND, COBALT

There will be sincere sympathy extended by all who know him to Mr. E. G. Hand, of the Northern Miner Co Cobalt, in the sudden death last week of his wife. The late Mrs. Hand passed away suddenly at her former home in Fenelon Falls where she had gone on a visit after undergoing medical treatment in Toronto. Mrs. Hand had been suffering with nervous troubles for some months, but it was believed that a complete cure had been effected, and she was expected back to Cobalt in a few days. Instead of this, however, Mr. Hand on Friday evening received the news of his wife's sudden death, which came as a decided shock to him and to their friends in the North Land. Mr. Hand left at once for Fenelon Falls. Mr. and Mrs. Hand had been married less than fifteen months.

WHY ONE LADY VOTED FOR ANGUS McDONALD.

A story is being told in town regarding the overwhelming reply of one lady who was solicited to vote for a candidate other than the one of her own choice. A lady canvasser working in the interests of Major Pullen was endeavouring to convince the lady voter referred to that there was only one candidate to vote for, and that was Major Pullen.

"You know Major Pullen is a man of the finest character, honest, straight forward and respected by all who know him," said the lady canvasser.

"Oh, yes," replied the lady voter, "he certainly is a good man, indeed."

"And he has lived and worked and struggled in this North Country and he knows the land and the people."

"Oh, yes, I think he is a fine type of good citizen all right."

"And he fought overseas to protect our interests and our lives and to save this country from the barbarians."

"Oh, yes, I think he is a splendid man, without doubt."

"Then, I suppose you will vote for him to-day," concluded the lady canvasser.

"Oh, no!" replied the lady voter, "I am going to vote for Mr. Angus McDonald."

"But why, if you think Major Pullen such an excellent man, are you going to vote for Mr. McDonald?" the lady canvasser asked.

"Because Mr. McDonald is a carpenter," was the reply.

"A carpenter!" exclaimed the lady canvasser "But what on earth has the fact that he is a carpenter got to do with it?"

"Well, you see," said the lady voter, "our Lord was a carpenter, and if a carpenter was good enough for the Saviour of the world, then I think that surely a carpenter is good enough for the Member for this riding."

If this line of reasoning struck the majority of the voters in this riding, then the big vote obtained by Mr. Angus McDonald would suggest that this is a very religious, or at least, a very biblical constituency.

A very pleasant Social and At Home was given by the local lodge of the Rebekahs in their lodge rooms in the basement of St. Matthew's church on Thursday evening last. There was a large attendance and all had a very enjoyable evening.
