LARGE PULP AND PAPER MILL FOR KAPUSKASING

Announcement Made that Laying Out of Site Will Commence Soon.

According to despatches from Cochrane, a large pulp mill is to be erected at Kapuskasing, the scene of the soldier colonization scheme of the late O.T.A. Government (O.T.A. standing for Ontario Temperance Act, or Ontario Timber Alienation, and the people of Ontario standing for neither).

The site at Kapuskasing is regarded as ideal for pulp and paper mill, the territory tributary to the Kapuskasing River above that point and south of the Transcontinental Railway being heavily timbered, and a large waterfall being conveniently located with which to generate the required electric power.

The plan took form some two years ago, but various delays occurred, and it was not definitely known until last week that actual work is to commence at an early date on the work of laying out the site. The opinion is expressed locally that had the enterprise got under way some time ago it would have done much to discount the discontent at Kapuskasing. It would have meant a nearby market and much improved prospects in every way for the soldiers' colony. As it is at present, settlers in the district are showing the greatest satisfaction at the decision now announced to proceed at an early date with the erection of a new pulp and paper mill at Kapuskasing.

"THE COURAGE OF MARGE O'DOONE," HERE JULY 30-31

The famous all-Canadian picture, "The Courage of Marge O'Doone," now running in its second special week's engagement at the Regent, Toronto, will be shown for its second booking in Canada at the New Empire Theatre, Timmins. This film is reported to be the finest picture of the present day. It has taken Toronto by storm and is greeted there by the most flattering comments by press and public. The New Empire has the second booking of this picture for Canada, and apart from this honor, there is the unusual merit of the film itself to give it special recommendation to the consideration of the public.

The following item from the last issue of The Halleyburian will be of general interest:—"The marriage of Mr. John William Metcalfe, Jr. to Miss Margaret Delliare, of Timmins, took place on Tuesday, July 6. They left the same evening to spend their honeymoon in southern points. On their return they will reside in Halleybury." The friends of the bride in Timmins will extend sincere good wishes for all happiness and prosperity.

LIQUOR FINES LAST WEEK TOTALLED NEARLY $5,000

Less Than Half of This Amount From Town Cases. Big List of Cases Follows Visit of Specials.

"Entertaining agents unawares" is not in it with "entertaining agents unawares," especially when the "agents" happen to be Ontario Government "special agents" looking to the enforcement of the Ontario Temperance Act. A few weeks ago two men came to town and picked up a lot of friends here,—and "picked up" seems to be a very appropriate word in this connection. One of the men was an elderly man,—too grey and benevolently experienced to be suspected easily of being a "spotter,"—and the other was a bright, clean-cut young fellow,—too young and frank appearing to be generally considered as a possible police agent. The two men seemed to possess a faculty for getting in with the "boys," and they did not fail either to have a way with the ladies. In this dry country they never seemed to be unable to get a drink or a drunk, according to accounts. They had a big time during their stay, but it was hardly a circumstance on the liveliness they could likely have enjoyed if they had stayed on in the Camp after it was learned who they were and what they were after. As a result of their stay, however, there were about 16 police court cases, with 15 convictions, and fines totalling $4700, not to mention the case of a couple of other offenders given jail terms for second offences.

As a result of this "entertaining of agents unawares" there was a general shake-up in the illegal liquor trade in Timmins and Tisdale Township, and Magistrate Atkinson had long and strenuous sessions of police court.

Karl Dasytk was fined $300 and costs on one charge and $400 and costs on another. Nik Krovich was dismissed on one charge, Dasytk taking the blame on his own shoulders. Mrs. M. Dagenais of South End was fined $500 and costs for a B.O.T.A. J. Huddleston, also of South End, was taxed $300 and costs on a similar count. Mrs. A. Beland on a charge of selling was fined $300 and costs, and this was also the penalty imposed on Mrs. Ruby Drew. If being their second offence in each case, Mrs. M. Tremblay and C. Beland were each sentenced to six months in North Bay jail. Other fines were:—L. Menilite, Moneta, $500 and costs; B. Byck, $400; Mrs. B. Byck, $400; John Spence, $800; Mrs. J. Spence, $400; J. Solomon, $300. Menilite in manly fashion took full responsibility for what his wife was accused of doing, and asked that any sentence be imposed on him instead of her. As the occupant of the house the responsibility was placed upon him and the charge withdrawn against his wife. Magistrate Atkinson commented on this exhibition of manliness. "It is rare enough in liquor cases," he said, "for usually I find the men ready even to let their wives go to jail if they can escape and blame it all on the woman." This, and the fact that Menilite was an industrious and quiet fellow with no previous charges against him, and with a family of four or five children, no doubt had influence in making his fines lighter than the regular charges for the day. On the other hand John Spence, on the charge of having liquor for sale did not arouse any particular sympathy in the heart of the Magistrate. At first Spence was to be taxed $1000 and costs, but in view of the fact that about $200 of liquor was being confiscated, the fine was eventually settled at $800 and costs. H. McDonald, charged with having liquor in a public place, pleaded that he was simply taking it from one lawful place to another, but the Magistrate did not accept the explanation, pointing out that the alleged route was rather roundabout and unreasonable. The evidence of Chief Wilson also contradicted the defence on material points, this being the case of the day in which the "special agents" were not concerned, and where blind-pigging was not suggested, but simply a breach of the O.T.A.

At the court at South Porcupine some little excitement was caused by one of the accused women making an attack on the elderly special agent whom she addressed as a "sweet and upright spotter," or words to that effect far otherwise. Before the hysterical lady could be controlled she had knocked off the man's glasses, but did not seriously injure him before she was cooled down again.

The other cases in the court for the week lost much of their public interest and importance by being overshadowed by the liquor charges. A number of plain and fancy drunks drew little interest, but all $10 fines with costs. Mary Klem for allowing a cow to run at large was taxed $1.00 and costs. The case of M. Hurtubise for driving a motor car without a license was adjudged till called on. After the Inspector's visit this week, however, infractions of the Motor Vehicles Act will be severely dealt with. A charge of fraud against F. Gratton was dismissed. J. Mack, charged with keeping a vicious dog, was acquitted, the evidence not being sufficient for a conviction.

The aftermath of the roadside death scene of July 1st ended with one fine of $20 and another of $5 and costs. A company of four men from Iroquois Falls had a free-for-all on the Schumacher Road and one of them (Mike Peroskey) was supposed later to be lying by the roadside dead or dying. Officer Moore picked him up and later picked the others. A Champagne seemed to have been the aggressor in the affair and so was fined $20 and costs with the warning that another affair like this would land him in jail. Peroskey, who had previously been "punished," was let go with a $5 fine and costs.

The Mattagami Pulp & Paper Co. at Smooth Rock Falls are reported as increasing their present capacity from 125 to 250 tons of pulp daily.

HOW IS THIS FOR A NEW AND INSPIRING NAME?

A letter was received at this office this week, the typewritten address being as follows:—

"The Timmins Advance, Advance,
Ontario."

The Advance appreciates the compliment paid to the town by thus calling it after the newspaper.

To the people here there may be the inspiration or the encouragement of possible property in designating the town in this way by the term that suggests progress.

In any event there is the comfort that the letter lost no time on the route. It came direct, without delay. Apparently, even the postal clerks to the south know what town comes nearest to The Advance, not to mention what Advance comes nearest to the town.

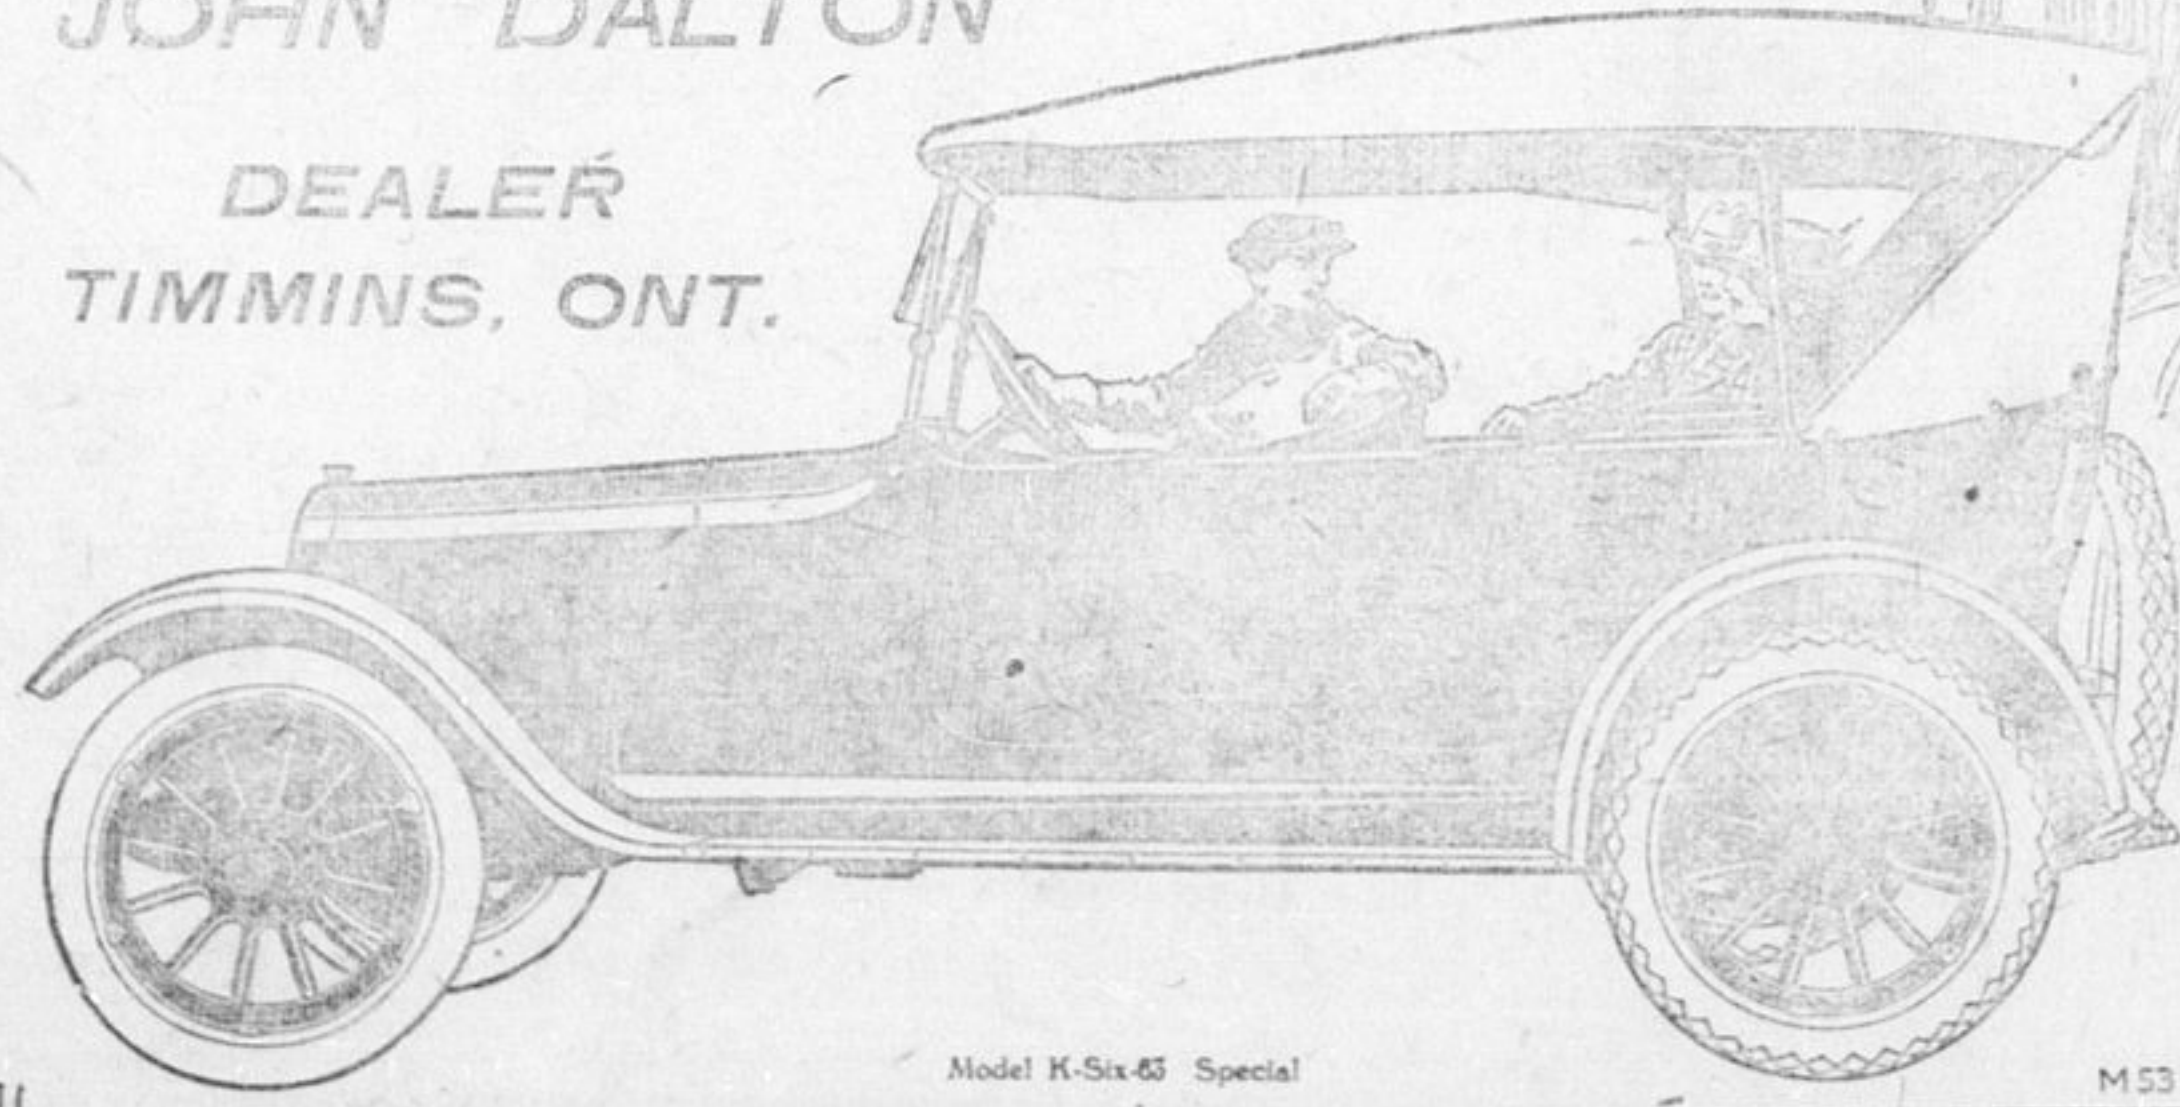

Mr. L. Stadelman, of Cobalt, was a visitor to the Camp last week remaining over the week-end to visit his brother Mr. Ivan Stadelman and other relatives and friends.
