ADDRESS OF PRESIDENT OF N.O.H.A. AT ANNUAL MEET

Advocates Trophy for Championship Of Ontario. Reviews Work Of N. O. H. A. During The Year.

There is so much of general interest in the address of President Angus D. Campbell of the N.O.H.A. at the annual meeting in Cobalt on Saturday last that it is given below, practically in full:—

"This the second annual meeting of the N.O.H.A., marks the close of the first year of our hockey and the beginning of even better things in Northern Ontario hockey.

That your association has had a successful year is witnessed by the secretary's report of the details of the season's games and by the sound state of our finances.

Organized in November 1919, the N.O.H.A. immediately formed an advantageous affiliation with the O.H.A., the largest and best governed hockey body in the world, and within four months from the time of our organization meeting the N.O.H.A. senior champion team, Sudbury had defeated the Intermediate and Senior champions of the O.H.A. on the home ice of the latter team and was the holder of the Allan Cup, emblematic of the amateur hockey championship of Canada. Though unsuccessful by the narrowest of margins in their defence of the Cup the "Wolves of the North" made a place in hockey history for Sudbury and for the N.O.H.A. All of the clubs in the Association, I am sure, are proud of the record established by these champions, and the "Cub Wolves," the champion junior Sudbury team, who made a very good showing in Toronto against T.C.C., the exceptionally strong Canadian junior champions.

To the Sudbury club and the individual players I tender my heartiest congratulations. The pleasure of tendering these congratulations is, for me, very much greater since the "Wolves" are a home brew team, born and bred in the North and an object lesson to ambitious hockey towns.

The presence of some 30 delegates here to-day from points so widely apart as the Soo and Timmins, a distance of 500 miles, is further evidence of the importance of your Association. I assure you all that your presence and hearty co-operation will result in further strengthening the N. O.H.A. and will certainly be a source of encouragement and support to the officers whom you will elect to-day.

Your continued interest justifies the belief that the N.O.H.A. has provided well-governed hockey, and has contributed much to the athletic enjoyment and satisfaction of Northern hockey players and spectators. You will agree with me that our Association's group championships aroused great local interest, that the group-play-offs heightened this interest and for the first time in Northern hockey decided the North Land hockey championship. That the play-off in Toronto proved of interest is a matter of hockey history.

In addition to arousing the interest of spectators in hockey matches there can be no doubt that more northern players participated in hockey last winter than ever before. The N.O.H.A. has much to thank the Ontario Hockey Association for. Our constitution, regulations, etc., are modelled on theirs, and the assistance received from them has been invaluable to your Association. Our affiliation with the O.H.A. gave our champions last winter a direct route to the highest hockey honors and is a connection which should be highly prized by the N.O.H.A. The financial terms of this affiliation are now so arranged as to place us on an equal basis with the O.H.A. The securing of some trophy emblematic of the championship of Ontario, for which the champion teams of the two Associations could compete, is, to my mind, practically all that remains to make arrangements ideal at least, until such time as we have in Northern Ontario a hockey arena large enough to accommodate the crowds for home and home games.

The O.H.A. last year paid the compliment to your Association of naming your President on their executive. This enabled you to have direct representation in the Councils of the O.H.A. (at their expense).

To the press, both of old Ontario and of the N.O.H.A. territory, we are also indebted. Without the papers and the good work of their reporters and editors we certainly could not have achieved our present standing.

The Association is also indebted to the Ontario branch of the Amateur Athletic Union of Canada for assistance. The amateur cards of this Union, which the N.O.H.A. requires from its senior players, and the membership in the N.O.H.A. of our various hockey clubs are passports good in any part of the hockey and athletic world and will, I believe, be most jealously guarded by their possessors.

The resignation of Mr. J. R. Dier of New Liskeard, Vice-President of the N.O.H.A. is a loss to the Association, for, as a future President, he would have done credit to it. The good wishes of the Association will I know, follow him to his new home in Charlottetown, P.E.I.

The association has co-operated this summer with the Nickel Belt and the Temiskaming Baseball Leagues and the insistence of both these leagues on amateur standing and amateur ideals has been of great assistance to our Association. The champions of both these leagues were able to arrange exhibition games with Toronto senior teams under Ontario Amateur Baseball Association permits.

The several amendments to the constitution and regulations to be presented this afternoon I leave for your approval. The formation of an Intermediate series is a problem that should be carefully considered I trust that any contentious matters that may arise will be dealt with in a spirit of fairness and consideration for the good of the N.O.H.A. as a whole.

In your secretary-treasurer, Mr. Charlton, I can assure you that you have had a most excellent officer, and to him and to the members of the outgoing executive I wish to express my heartiest thanks for their co-operation and for constant attention to their important duties, and for their assistance in guiding the destinies of your Association during the past year in a manner that I hope will meet with your approval."

BORN—In Timmins on Monday, Oct. 25th, 1920, to Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Schroeder, a son.

Mr. J. L. Englehart, Chairman of the T. & N. O., has made another donation to the town of Petrolia, the latest gift being a nurse's home, the cost being about $65,000, it is reported. Mr. Englehart is also providing for an additional wing to the hospital at a cost of $15,000. Mr. Englehart's original gift was his beautiful residence and grounds at Petrolia to be used as a hospital and to bear the name of "Charlotte Eleanor Englehart Hospital," in memory of his wife.
