If a motor hearse is necessary in Haileybury, why not use the air ship route to get the dead ones out of the way in Liskeard?

FIELDING FAMILY BLESSED RECENTLY WITH TRIPLETS

This North Land never lags behind in anything for long. As time goes on, the advantages of the south are added to the natural resources of this great country. What is there in any city or old rural settlement, for instance, that can not be found in the Porcupine, from Fords to Wireless? Recently, Fielding, on this branch of the T. & N. O., contributed one more example of the resourcefulness of this North Land. Some weeks ago there were born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Emond, at Fielding, triplets,—three bright, healthy little daughters.

MR. A. T. POMMIER SELLING OUT JEWELRY BUSINESS

Mr. A. T. Pommier, who for nearly three years past, has conducted a jewelry store in Timmins in the Empire Theatre block, is selling out his stock and will move shortly to the south to take up residence. The store fixtures have been sold to another jeweler who will continue the business at the present stand after Mr. Pommier leaves. The Pommier stock is being sold by auction, the auctioneer being Mr. R. J. Rodger, jewelers auctioneer, of Toronto. All the large stock of watches, diamonds, rings, silverware, cut glass, etc., etc., is to be sold without reserve. Sales are being held at 2.30 and 8 p.m. each day and large crowds are being attracted to each sale.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Carr and family left this week for the south with the intention of taking up residence at Barrie, Ont. Mr. C. Carr, who was postmaster at South Porcupine for several years, is one of the popular old-timers of the Camp, and the very best wishes of hosts of friends will follow him and his family to their new home.
