LOOK FOR MORE TROUBLES

By Robert R. Updegraff.
Ever stop to be thankful for the troubles of your job?
When you get the right slant on troubles, you discover that they are rather useful, after all. They pay about half your salary!
—It's this way: whether you are the buyer or the errand boy or the manager; whether you sell or ship or keep books, someone could be found to handle your job for about half you get, if it were not for the troubles—the things that go wrong, the people who treat you contemptibly, the difficulties that have to be met and overcome.

It takes, intelligence, patience, tact and courage to meet the troubles of any job. That is why you hold your present job. And it may be the reason you don't hold a bigger one!
Who knows, perhaps if you went looking for more troubles and, instead of trying to duck them, developed the habit of meeting them half way and licking them, you might very soon find yourself getting twice as large a salary as you do now! For it's a fact you know, that there are plenty of bigger jobs waiting for folks who aren't afraid of the troubles connected with them.

Man must work—that is inevitable. He may work grudgingly. Or he may work willingly. He may work as a man. Or he may work as a slave. He cannot always choose his work.

LADIES' MEDAL HANDICAP GOLF MATCH LAST FRIDAY

In the Ladies' Medal Handicap golf match last Friday, Sept. 4th, Mrs. Miller won the first flight and Miss Richardson the second.
$4.00 was realized for the fund.
There will be a match on Friday of this week, Sept. 8th.

Among the specially noteworthy visitors with the Ontario Teachers here last week was Mrs. Jamieson, of Dundas, whose clever writings under the pen name of Nina Moore Jamieson are a popular feature of The Toronto Mail & Empire. The writings of Nina Moore Jamieson, have a literary polish, a charming homely philosophy and an attractive outlook on life and affairs that give them a special appeal to the thoughtful reader. Mrs. Jamieson was much interested in the North Land and if her capable pen is used henceforth, even occasionally, in making the North better known and appreciated, this alone will make the whole tour more than worth while.

EXIT ROMEO

We were seated in a hammock
On a balmy night in June,
When the world was hushed in slumber
'Neath the magic of the moon
I had asked one little question
And my heart was filled with hope,
But the answer never reached me
For her brother cut the rope!

THE SALVATION ARMY

This organization recently celebrated their fortieth anniversary in Canada. It is a far cry, from the two individuals who first opened the work in London, Ont., to the thousands who to-day are in its ranks, but the organization has been built up by the individual, small beginnings in many cases, yet surely moving to greater things.

In our own town just over a year ago the Army came and opened a corps. This little band of soldiers after fighting against odds have now the opportunity of holding their meetings in their own new hall on 4th. avenue, dedicated to the glory of God and the extension of His work in Timmins. Opportunity means responsibility in this case as in others and the local corps is responsible for the financing of the new building which costs nearly $5000.00.

Of this amount $519.00 in all has been raised to date for which we heartily thank all who have contributed in any degree towards that sum, but there are many friends in the town who are interested in the local work and to these we will be making our appeal for the building fund, starting a house to house canvass on Thursday, 7 inst.

We thank you in anticipation of your generous help in this matter and assure you of our readiness to serve you and yours in sickness or sorrow. Count us your friends "for His sake."

SENSITIVE SOUL

Every seat in the trolley was occupied when a group of women got in. Going through the car to collect the fares, the conductor noticed a man asleep. Seizing him by the shoulder, he proceeded to shake him back into a state of consciousness.
"Wake up!" shouted the conductor.
"I wasn't asleep," said the passenger.
"Not asleep!" snapped the conductor. "Then what did you have your eyes closed for?"
"It was because of the crowded condition of the car," explained the passenger, "I just hate to see women standing."
