Mr. Geo. Brewster, of Cuba, came to Timmins last week to visit his friend, Mr. P. Dougall. Mr. Brewster was a visitor here a couple of years ago, and on the present visit was greatly impressed with the remarkable growth of the town in the meantime. The number of fine brick buildings and the other evidences of substantial development of Timmins were particularly noted by Mr. Brewster. Mr. Brewster left this week to return to Cuba.

There will be sincere sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. N. Ansara in the death on Thursday last of their little girl, aged about 18 months. Death was due to pneumonia. The funeral took place on Saturday to the R. C. church and cemetery, and was largely attended.

A young lady entered a local store and asked for a couple of the most popular dance records. Jack is reported to have answered quite seriously as he turned to the record rack, "Well, Miss, I know I have Lovely Eyes, but I don't think I have Hot Lips this morning."

Mr. Jack Legary, expert barber, of Lanark, is in the Camp the guest of Mr. J. T. Easton. Mr. Legary was in the Porcupine in 1909 and so finds much to interest and impress him in the establishment and unusual growth and development of the town of Timmins.

The new Goldale Cafe in the new Bardesson block opened on Saturday last, with a four-piece orchestra furnishing music. Each evening music is being furnished at this cafe by the orchestra. The new Goldale Cafe is an up-to-date and attractive place. Mr. W. Ling, formerly of the Queen's Hotel is the proprietor.

Mr. Roy Upton, of the staff of the Northern Ontario Light & Power Co. here, and for several years a popular member of the Timmins Volunteer Firemen, returned last week from a visit to the south, accompanied by his bride, a young lady from Monteith. Mr. and Mrs. Upton have taken up residence in Timmins and will receive the best of good wishes from hosts of friends here.

WHAT BUSINESS COLLEGE TRAINING HAS DONE FOR YOUR YOUNG MEN AND WOMEN

On Aug. 22nd, 1922, a College was opened in Timmins known as the Timmins Business College, under the supervision of E. M. Terry, Prin. The following are some of the Timmins Business College Graduates, where and how employed:—
