Napoleon Manseau, whose home is on the Quebec side of Lake Temiskaming, has been missing for several days and it is feared that he has gone through the ice and been drowned. He was engaged in cutting wood near the Keeley Mine in South Lorrain, and started for home on December 14th, going across the ice. Since then no trace has been found of him.

One of the bets made at Friday night's game may be considered as a real sporting venture. When the score stood 3 to 1, one loyal young sport bet a Falls man 2 to 1 on Timmins. To make such a bet at the end of the second period is certainly taking a chance. The third period, however, turned the chance from recklessness to just plain courage.

Mr. and Mrs. Colin Ferguson have moved from Kirkland Lake and have taken up residence in Timmins where Mr. Ferguson will make his headquarters. They have taken up residence in the house recently occupied by Mr. Fred. Kenning. Mr. B. Newton, of Kitseoty, Alberta, who was among the early residents of the Porcupine, spent Christmas with his brothers and other relations here. Mr. Newton still retains his interest in Timmins and district, and is delighted at the great progress and development of Timmins and the Porcupine.

Mr. C. P. Grill, who conducted the jewelry store taken over some months ago by Mr. J. E. Garrett, sent Christmas greetings to his friends in Timmins. Mr. Grill is at present in St. John, New Brunswick.
