SMALL FIRE LAST NIGHT AT 18 HOLLINGER LANE

Last night about nine o'clock the Timmins Fire Brigade had a run to 18 Hollinger Lane, the residence of Mr. C. Bartell. Some one passing noticed fire in the house, the occupants being out at the time. A telephone call was sent to the hall and the usual speedy response made. In the meantime those discovering the blaze forced the door and started the good work of extinguishing the fire, this good work being completed by the brigade on their arrival. The damage done was small, probably $50.00, the end of the building being scorched and a hole burned in the floor.)

KAPUSKASING WINS FROM TIMMINS (MINES) TEAM

Kapuskasing has a happy hockey team and this team came down here last week to try conclusions with Timmins. And they beat Timmins, though not the Timmins Senior Hockey team. On Saturday the game was played, Kapuskasing vs. Timmins, but it was the Timmins Town Team of the Mines League. It was lots of good sport—that game. Timmins team, runners up in the Mine League, thought they would have a walk-away from Kapuskasing, but a cog slipped in the machinery. For the first two periods the Timmins team were holding off, confident that they could win just when they wished. Then when they did dig in to get the winning goal, they found they had waited too long. Kapuskasing was right there. Kapuskasing won the event 6 to 5 and returned home very proud and happy over their victory. Before returning home they tried to stage a game with Iroquois Falls. "We can beat the Falls team as easy as we beat Timmins," was their argument, but apparently the Falls did not care about anything like that. Anyway the game was not arranged. There was some good hockey at the match here Saturday and the crowd thoroughly enjoyed this last game of the season. Geo. Lake refereed the match. The Kapuskasing lads had a good time here as well as winning a victory from a good local team—the Town team in the Mines League.

The building on Pine street, owned by Mr. W. Ellies and adjoining his store, and formerly occupied by A. Shaheen and more recently by Allworth's Electrical Shop, has been purchased by the Bank of Commerce and will be fitted up for permanent bank quarters for the local branch of that bank.)

en in female impersonation, Mr. Cowan made the list of hits complete in the comic singing.

The programme had a good representation of quartettes effectively given. In addition to the mixed quartette already referred to there was a male quartette, "The Catastrophe," a harmonious and pleasing number given by Messrs. McCulloch, Heffernan, Skelly and Geils. The quartette, "Call John," by Mrs. Cretney, Mrs. Dalzell, Mr. McCulloch and Mr. Geils, was a catchy number, very effectively given by well-blended voices. "Jamie Shaw," a quartette by Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Shippam, Mr. McCulloch and Mr. Geils was another number that showed the effect of good voices harmoniously blended. "Jamie Shaw" was very cleverly given in oratoric style.

The trio by Messrs. H. McCulloch, J. Callum and J. Geils, "A Little Farm Well Tilled," was a pleasing selection well given.

Special mention should be made of the instrumental selections by the Caledonian Orchestra, including Messrs. Wolno, Johnston, W. H. Browne and C. E. MacDonald. The selections by the Orchestra were spirited and melodious and were much appreciated.

Another instrumental feature was the cornet duet, "A Perfect Day," by Messrs. O. Brown and L. Maltais. This number was very effectively rendered and won no uncertain encore.

The special soloists of the evening, Mrs. G. S. Drew and Mr. J. T. Heffernan, made a special hit with the audience. Mrs. Drew's first number showed her fine well-trained soprano voice to advantage, and in the lighter selection given in response to a very insistent recall Mrs. Drew proved equally effective in winning the appreciation of the audience. Mr. Heffernan's tenor solo, "Ah, So Pure," was one of the special delights of the evening to the music lovers present. Mr. Heffernan has a fine tenor voice, trained and melodious, and he was enthusiastically received.

The accompanists for the evening, to whom considerable of the success of the event is owing, were Mr. W. H. Wilson, Mr. Johnston of the Theatre Orchestra, and Mrs. Chittenden.

The Musical Committee in charge of the event were Messrs. J. K. Moore and J. Cowan and Mrs. H. McCulloch. To these and to the Conductor, Mr. Geils, to all the members of the Choir and all connected with the programme very hearty congratulations are being extended on the success and pleasure of the event.

After the concert, the members of the Choir were the guests of the Society at a luncheon at the Goldale. The Choir will also be the guests of the Society at the next regular meeting of the Society, on April 13th.

A young Jew became engaged to a girl who had a reputation as a coquette. One of his friends said to him, "Are you actually going to marry Sara Rosenstein?" "Sure, for why not?" "Why she's been engaged to every fellow in Hoboken." "Vell," said Jackie, "Hoboken ain't such a big place."

WHY ENTER BUSINESS COLLEGE AT EASTER TERM?

Let us give you a few reasons why we advise your enrolling in the Business College now.

First:—We have been at Business College work for years and know the business thoroughly; we know from the accomplishments of others just what you can accomplish.

Second:—We guarantee positions to our Students upon graduation and we are getting more calls for Bookkeepers and Stenographers than we can supply. When we have positions awaiting you, it is only natural that we should want you to train and prepare for them.

Third:—(A real big reason). During the past ten days we supplied the following offices with employees:—Consolidated Gold Mines, Office; Simms, Hooker & Drew, Insurance Agents; Canadian Gold Mines Office and The Arthur E. Moysey, Broker & Stock Office. Now, up to the establishment of this College, bookkeepers, stenographers and all Office help were brought to Timmins from other Towns and Cities, but at the present time you will notice that vacancies on Office staffs are being filled by young men and women of your own Town.

Fourth:—If you must earn your own living and at the same time be well educated, is there any other Institution can do more for you than a good Business College? Ask our Graduates, they will tell you.

Fifth:—As to the cost of Courses, did you ever stop to think, that a few months' work after graduation repays you for all expenses in connection with your course and you then have a business training which renders you independent for life.

We need give you no further reasons. Parents, we hope we have put clearly before you, what can be done for your sons and daughters with a few months' training in the Timmins Business College, our graduates of the present day prove everything. It is not necessary to await the Summer Term to enroll, if you can afford it, enroll now. We have no summer vacations. Students enrolling the first day of our Spring Term, April 4th can be prepared for the fall positions. Call and see the Supervising Principal E. M.
