

SUDBURY LADIES TRIM IROQUOIS FALLS TEAM

(From Broke Hustler)

The ladies from President Brodie's home town having been invited to the Northern paper town to a Valentine Party proceeded to show the local lady puck chasers that they knew how our National winter pastime should be played, when they ran out winners of a good game to the tune of 4-1.

The fans who dared to stay off the Weekly Prayer Meeting to take in the offerings at Tom Hurd's Ice Palace certainly got value for their money. The green and white clad ladies from the place where Coach Boucher used to park his carcass are very strong skaters although not quite so fast on their feet as the Lady Eskimos. In addition the visitors have had the advantage of playing many games together, whilst this encounter was the homesters first game this season.

In the first chukker the play was fairly even with very few shots on goal, both defences keeping the puck away from the goal in good style. In the second the green and white led by Kitty Young proceeded to drive them at Helen McIntyre, the diminutive Falls custodian, without waiting to ask her name, address, telephone number or favorite vegetable. They succeeded in tallying twice in this period both being registered by Kitty Young; the first was a peculiar goal coming back from the boards and dropping over the goal line. The second was the result of a nice shot from the boards, when the little curly headed net minder was un-sighted. At that she saved some nice shots in this stanza.

Towards the end of the period the tricolor took a hand in the proceedings and Helena Duffy managed to bulge the twine behind Mrs. Thompson's fair daughter, after "Peggy" Little had shot from the right wing, Helena taking the rebound which "Thomp" didn't see until it passed her the second time on its way back from the back of the net. Just about this time, the red, black and white, led by Margaret Little and Helena Duffy were keeping the green and white net minder busier than a fish market on a Saturday morning, but the second "Coffee and Coney Island Red Hot" interval arrived without any further scoring, the green and white leading by 2-1.

At the outset of the last period, the local ladies tried desperately to tie up the score but Miss Thompson pulled off a very good impression of "Burglar Proof Vault" and hung out the "Try and Get In" sign with good effect. Before the final gong rang out the Sudburians had tallied two more through Kitty Young and Irma Fitzgerald, making the final count 4-1.

The local girls put up a good game against an experienced team who have played many times together and deserve every credit for their exhibition. There was only one penalty handed out by the Knight of the whistle and that was in the first period when Ruth Bruton threw her stick to save a goal and when the smoke cleared away the girl from the place where the Government has erected one of his Majesty's rest houses, was reposing peacefully in the hoosegow beside Warden Thistlewaite.

Good But Need Practice

In the home net, Helen McIntyre made some nice stops but was obviously very nervous. Mrs. Morns was the Stan Brown of the local defence, whilst Ruth Bruton showed her old-time form, but looked to be out of practice. Mabel Bruton subbed on defence but was not used much. Margaret Little, "Peggy" to her intimates, was the star of the red, black and white aggregation and was in the thick of it all night, her passing, shooting and back-checking being great. In fact some of the Seniors might have gotten a few good pointers from watching the girl in the black hat. Helena Duffy whilst working hard seems to have lost some of her last year's pep not being so prominent as she used to be. Maisie Spence is coming along and next year should be a power to be reckoned with on the wing. She certainly kept after her "check" in good shape all night, with the result that Miss Fitzgerald, usually one of the stars of the Sudbury team was not much in the picture. Irene Judd was used only once.

Kitty Young the Star

In the visitors citadel Miss Thompson did what she had to do with skill and is a goaltender of experience. The Taylor-Porter combination on defence was good, the former who is a particular friend of an old friend of ours, Rene Fournier by name, showed flashes of speed at times, which had Tom Hurd looking for the water hose in case he had to reflood. The star of the outfit was however Kitty Young, who undoubtedly lived up to advance reports. She was on the ice all night, dropping back on defence when she needed a rest and Joe Ironstone's gang sure have a good pivot in Kitty. Irma Fitzgerald came next and the husky right winger is good—she had many duels with Maisie Spence with honors about even. Miss Leclair on the other side of the rink seemed to have no consideration for her carcass at all heaving it around at all and sundry sometimes with telling effect. The spares were not used much. Another two or three games and it will put ladies' hockey on the map in this town.

Referee—Rene Fournier, Iroquois Falls.

Joe Simone (approaching a stranger): "Are you a doctor?"
Stranger: "No, but I know where you can get some."

Mrs. Newlywed: "I want a shirt for my husband."

Clerk: "Is he a big man?"
"No, he's just a bookkeeper now, but he's going to be."
