WEDNESDAY, JUNE 4TH, 1924. PARENTS ANXIOUS TO HEAR

Captain Cornthwaite of the Salvation Army this week received a letter from the Territorial Headquarters, Canada East, S.A., enquiring in regard to one George Wakefield. The letter says that his parents are nearly distracted because they have not heard from George Wakefield for so long. The last time he wrote home he gave his address at Timmins P.O., Dome Blk. & White .. 6 but attempts to locate him here have Hollinger ....... 10 failed. #### MR. MATT. ALLEN'S DAIRY CATTLE IN BEST OF HEALTH

Mr. Matt Allen, Dairyman, takes oride in keeping his dairy herd in the sest of health. Recently, he applied to the Government for an inspection, to satisfy himself and the public that the herd were all of the best type and condition. Mr. Allen is one of the very few dairymen in the North to take such a step. He received a clean bill of health for his cows, the following being the official report:-

Timmins, May 26, 1924. This is to certify that I have this day completed the examination and testing of Mr. Matt. Allen's herd of dairy cattle and find them to be free from tuberculosis and all contagious and infectious diseases.
