Over a year ago the family moved to Timmins, living here with Mr. and Mrs. N. Blahy. In addition to the bereaved widow, four sons and two daughters survive. One of the daughters is Mrs. N. Blahy, the other being Miss Mary Krupka, at home. To the near relatives and friends the sympathy of all will be extended. The funeral took place on Monday to the R.C. church and cemetery. SAYS SHE IS WIDOW OF MAN HANGED IN MONTREAL

Mrs. Joseph Serafino, Arrested Here This Week, Claims to be Legal Wife of Member of Bandit Gang.

Mrs. Joseph Serafino, who has been living at the far end of Moneta, was taken in charge by town police this week. The immediate charge that will be placed against her is that of illegal purchase of liquor, but the arrest followed complaints about the house in general. Mrs. Serafino claims that she is the widow of the Montreal bandit hanged in that city last month. Her expression is that he got what he had been looking for, as he was following the wrong path. She says she had not lived with him for about three years past but that she was the legal wife of Serafino at the time he paid the penalty for his misdeeds. The woman has been in Timmins for about a couple of years with an interval of residence elsewhere. Last year the police interrogated her as to her methods of life, and following their interest the woman moved away. Recently, she returned to town taking up residence in the Moneta section, where once again the police were moved to making enquiries and investigations.

JUDGE THINKS WRITING MAY RIGHT SPEEDING

A reader of The Advance submits the following from a Spokane newspaper as an interesting illustration of how speeding and similar offences may be righted by writing, or words to that effect. The item clipped from the Spokane newspaper is as follows:

Three young men, convicted of speeding, were sentenced to copy the state traffic code in longhand by Justice Mann, who believes that any speeder who copies that 15,000-word law in longhand to escape jail will never speed again.

"I am going to impose an unusual sentence if you boys wish to escape jail," said Justice Mann, in passing sentence. "Report next Wednesday if you have it copied, or at least show me how much progress you have made."

To copy 15,000 words is equivalent to copying 15 columns of an ordinary newspaper. The boys will copy the law relative to licensing, the law relating to lights, what to do in case of accidents and how to observe all traffic laws.

Deputy Prosecutor Edward Connelly agreed that the sentence would have a good effect on boys and might prove effective with older persons.

When a man whines that he is being held down, the truth is, as a general rule—that the boss can't hold him up.

Historic Site at Friendly Cove, B.C.

The historic past of the Nootka section of the West Coast was recalled recently when Lieutenant-Governor Walter C. Nichol, of British Columbia, unveiled and dedicated a monument commemorating the explorations of those great English navigators, Captain Cook and Captain Vancouver.

The monument was built under the auspices of the Historic Sites and Monuments Board of Canada which is placing similar memorials across the Dominion on sites hallowed by interesting chapters of Canadian history.

A large party travelled on the Canadian Pacific S.S. Princess Maquinna for the ceremony and left the steamer at the cannery wharf, boarding launches for the short run to Friendly Cove. The party included Lieutenant-Governor Nichol, H. J. S. Muskeft, his secretary, Judge Howay and Mr. Forsyth, Dr. C. S. Newcombe, the well-known historical authority who wrote the "Circumnavigation of Vancouver Island," Prof. W. N. Sage of the University of British Columbia, Mrs. R. B. McMicking, representing the Queen Charlotte agency and a pioneer of 1859, Dr. David Donald, Mrs. Cave-Browne-Cave, and Professor Macmillan Brown, chancellor of the University of New Zealand. Dr. Macmillan Brown is one of the leading ethnologists of the Pacific, and has been spending the summer on the coast investigating the Indians and their customs.

The new monument is seven feet broad by eleven feet high, with a standard size bronze tablet bearing the following inscription:

"Nootka Sound, discovered by Capt. Cook, in March, 1778. In June, 1789, Spain took possession and established and maintained a settlement until 1795. The capture of British vessels in 1789 almost led to war, which was avoided by the Nootka Convention, 1790. Vancouver and Quadra met here in August, 1792, to determine the land to be restored under the convention."

A feature of the entertainment provided those who took part in the unveiling ceremony was the Indian dancing, arranged by aborigines from Clayoquot Sound, the Wicaniish of the early navigators' journals.

Tentative plans are afoot for an elaborate pageant to be held at Friendly Cove, Nootka Island, in four years time to celebrate the 150th anniversary of events commemorated by the unveiling of the cairn.
