Timmins and District Notes

Mr. A. McCord returned Saturday evening from a few months spent in the West.)

Dr. J. A. McInnis, Mayor of Timmins, and Mrs. McInnis, are visiting in Toronto this week.)

Only three more weeks until Christmas. Think of it—And shop early.

Born—in Toronto, on Wednesday, Nov. 20th, 1924, to Mr. and Mrs. Frank M. Burke, of Timmins,—a son.)

The Salvation Army Christmas Tree and Distribution of Prizes will be held this year on December 23rd (Tuesday) at 7.30 p.m. in the S.A. Hall.

The special at the New Empire Theatre for Friday and Saturday next week, Dec. 12 and 13, will be "Why Men Leave Home. Also, the novelty, "Plastigrams."

A particularly desirable farm is being offered for sale by auction this afternoon on the land north of the Skating Rink. The farm is the property of Mr. T. O'Meara, on this side of the river and connected with town by a good motor road.

Many of the Scottish and English people coming to this Camp in the past few months are returning overseas these days, employment not being plentiful here at this time. Many going back to the Old Land are planning to return to the North Land when conditions generally are more propitious.

According to reports from Sturgeon Falls that town is going to prove unhealthy for the brand of folks known as "spotters." Last week two men, who were suspected of being in the "spotter" class were followed by a crowd and informed that they had better leave the town. They left.

Previous to leaving this week for Toronto where she will be married the latter part of this month, Miss Grace Macdonald this week was presented with a beautiful china chocolate serving set of very attractive design, the presentation being made by a number of her girl friends at the home of Miss Loretta Boivin. The best of good wishes were extended to the bride-to-be, and a very pleasant social evening was happily passed at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. M. Boivin.)

Division Court was held here yesterday (Tuesday) with the usual number of cases.

Miss Grace Macdonald left this (Wednesday) morning for Toronto to visit relatives and friends in the city.

Sunday, Dec. 14th, will be the Young People's Annual Event at the Salvation Army here. The services will be conducted by Candidate and Mrs. Frank Eastman.

A Prize Christmas Tree Dance, with a number of novelties, is announced for King's Hall, on Thursday, Dec. 11th. Prizes for everybody. Goldfields Orchestra.

Among the gifted vocalists who have kindly agreed to give selections at the concert in St. Anthony's R. C. church parish hall on Monday evening next, Dec. 8th, are Mr. Jas. Geils, baritone, and Mr. P. J. Moleski, tenor.

Mr. W. F. Richardson visited Toronto last week to consult a specialist there, returning home again on Sunday evening. He will be confined to his bed for some time, but all his innumerable friends will sincerely wish him early and complete recovery of his old-time health and strength.)

Some radio fans thought they received music very clearly Sunday evening from overseas stations, but in this they were mistaken. Although the time was supposed to be reserved for tests from overseas stations, the music referred to came from Hollywood and Texas, two new stations operating Sunday evening.)

The Quebec Dog Derby will be run on Feb. 19th to 22nd this coming year. The conditions will be the same as last race which was won by Earl Brydges of the Pas, Manitoba. It is likely that Brydges will compete again in the coming Quebec Derby and he may also try his luck again in the Porcupine Dog Race at Timmins, as he did last season.

Much attention was caused last week by the method of advertising used by the Scotch Woolen Co. to supplement their newspaper advt. A decorated automobile was run around town with a piper in costume inside playing on the pipes, the music attracting general attention. The big business last week by the Scotch Woolen Co., proved the old adage that Advertising Pays.

While you may not notice any ill effects from errors of vision which would be extremely serious and actually unbearable for people already in poor health, it is nevertheless true that these defects are causing the eyes to use up and waste a tremendous amount of nervous energy.

Have your Eyes examined by a competent authority. If they are defective, the proper lenses correctly mounted will bring you corrected vision.
