

Another Hard-Fought Game In N.O.H.A. Senior Series

Iroquois Falls Team Wins From Porcupine Seniors, with Score of 11 to 7. The Game Was a Lot Better Than the Score. Porcupine Boys Worked Hard and Did Well. Good Crowd Out for the Match.

In a game in which the Porcupine team put up one of the season's hardest battles, on Friday evening the locals were defeated by Iroquois Falls on Timmins ice to the tune of 11-7. It is safe to say that the score is not a criterion of the evening's play, the Timmins forwards showing a superiority in all three periods over their Falls opponents in back checking, and it was only the good work of Powers in the nets that saved a defeat to the Falls. McIntyre in the Timmins nets did some good work, though it was evidently his "off night," a number of the goals scored by the Papermakers being fairly easy ones. Roach and McGillis in the defence put up a good game throughout. Roach showed up better than he did when playing against the Falls in the previous match. Duval and Kelly were the pick of the forward line. Both are hard workers, and combine well together. Desormeaux made his first appearance on the Timmins ice in a match, and put up a fair game. Portelance and Davidson the two subs played very well, Portelance in particular showing up well against his husky opponents.

Powers in the Falls nets played a dandy game even though during the last period the locals seemed to be able to score at will. Leclair and Boucher on the defence were as usual a good combination. Fahey as usual played his usual dangerous game. Cybulski and Chirooski, the two other forwards, combined well together and with Fahey. King and McConomy, the two subs, were used often and played good hockey while on the ice. F. Magurn of Iroquois Falls and D. Briden of Schumacher handled the game and they had their work cut out.

The teams were:—
Falls
 Powers goal
 Leclair r. defence
 Boucher l. defence
 Cybulski centre
 Fahey r. forward
 Chirooski forward
 King sub.
 McConomy sub.
 Referees—F. Magurn, Iroquois Falls, Judge of Play—D. Briden, Schumacher.

Timekeepers—J. Patterson, Iroquois Falls; W. H. Wilson, Timmins. Penalties—A. Kerr, Iroquois Falls; J. N. Levine, Timmins.
 The first period opened with both teams checking close, but soon developing into end-to-end rushes, the goal tenders of both teams being called on to make some clever saves. Roach came down with Desormeaux, lost his balance in trying to take the pass. Boucher getting the puck and going down to be beat by McIntyre. Timmins took the offensive, and Powers was called on to do some clever work in guarding his citadel. The period was five minutes old when Cybulski drove the first one in for the Falls on a pass from Fahey. One minute and a half later Boucher made it two on a lone effort. At this time Boucher was playing a good game, and was probably the most dangerous man on the Falls line-up. Portelance and Duval went down, but Powers was able to clear nicely. Ten minutes had gone by when Fahey made it three for the Falls when he scored on a lone effort. Fahey was playing a good game, though he was doing some off-side loafing. In a face-off at the Timmins net McIntyre made a lucky save. Two Falls men going to the cooler for a rest Timmins made desperate efforts to score, Desormeaux missing an open net. With fifty five seconds to go McConomy scored on Leclair's pass. Falls 4 Timmins 0.

Taking the offensive in the opening minutes of the second period Timmins kept peppering the Falls net, but couldn't get one past Powers. Fahey went to the box, Kelly drawing the first Timmins penalty right after. Desormeaux drew the referee's ire when he was warned about loafing off-side. Eight minutes had gone when McConomy scored on the rebound from King's shot. Roach was sent to the box. Fahey joining in for attempting to board Davidson. The period was eleven minutes old when Duval scored on Kelly's pass. The Falls came back in a three man combination but McIntyre made a nice save. The Falls forced the play, both teams checking closer. Cybulski made it six for the Falls when he scored on Chirooski's rebound. Kelly went to the box for tripping King. The gong rang with the Miners on a desperate offensive Falls 6, Timmins 1.

The third period opened with the Miners on the offensive but were unable to bulge the twine behind Powers. The period was three minutes old when Fahey got the opening counter for the Falls putting the Eskimos six goals up on the Miners. Two minutes later Chirooski made it eight for the Falls on Fahey's pass. The Miners came back on a desperate offensive, and Kelly who had played the game of his life all evening drove in the second Timmins goal. Two minutes later Portelance made it three when he scored on Kelly's pass. Sixty seconds hadn't ticked off the time watch when the little fellow sent Porcupine's fourth goal in past Powers. The Falls came back with a strong offensive and forty seconds later Boucher sent in the ninth Eskimo goal. Kelly made it five for the locals on a lone effort. Fahey and Desormeaux mixed it and both were retired to the dressing rooms. Chirooski placed the tenth Papermaker goal behind McIntyre, Kelly taking the puck at the face-off, losing to Cybulski, who lost to Roach. Roach and Kelly came down in some nice combination and on Kelly's pass sent in the sixth Porcupine counter. One minute later Roach scored again on a lone effort. With the period nearly over McConomy drove the final goal into the Timmins net on a lone effort making the score. Falls 11—Timmins, 7.

SCHUMACHER THE SCENE OF PRETTY WEDDING ON MONDAY

Schumacher, Jan. 20th—Beautifully decorated throughout with palms, evergreens and a profusion of spring flowers, the spacious home of Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Ennis, of Schumacher, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when Merle Elizabeth, daughter of Mrs. Elizabeth Todhunter, of Cincinnati, Ohio, became the bride of Mr. Martin L. Urquhart, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Urquhart, of Martintown, Glengarry, Ont. The Rev. J. D. Parks, of Timmins, Ont., was the officiating clergyman.

The winsome bride was indeed a picture of girlish loveliness as she entered the room on the arm of her brother, Mr. Roger Todhunter, who gave her away, and to the strains of the Lohengrin wedding march, played by Mr. R. R. Johnston, L.R.A.M., took her place under a floral arch. The bride's gown was of soft white satin crepe with front panel of silk thread lace, and looped train. Her veil of embroidered net was arranged in bandeau style, with a coronet of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of Ophelia roses, freesia and asparagus fern.

She was attended by her sister, Mrs. R. J. Ennis, who was a lovely Matron of Honour in a beautiful Lauvin gown of sand shade silk faille, with deep banding of Bulgarian embroidery on the skirt, and hem edged with fur. She carried a bouquet of Premier roses and fern.

Mr. Ralph Parker, of Berkeley, California, was the groom's best man. The ushers were Mr. K. Gray and Mr. B. Budgeon.

During the signing of the register, Mrs. Harry Darling's glorious voice was heard to perfection in the singing of "Oh, Promise Me," (De Koven). Mr. R. R. Johnston played the accompaniment, with violin obligato by Mr. G. Makin.

Immediately after the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Urquhart received the warm felicitations of their wedding guests who numbered about one hundred.

The many handsome and useful gifts, among them several generous cheques, presented to the happy young couple, were silent tokens of the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Urquhart are held by their many friends here and elsewhere.

For the wedding luncheon, the table was covered with a beautiful lace cloth, with the wedding cake in the centre, and decorations of spring flowers and fern. Mrs. H. Skavlem and Mrs. H. Darling poured tea and coffee, assisted by the Misses Dolly Joyner and Leona White. Afterwards dancing and cards were indulged in by everybody. Mr. R. R. Johnston and Mr. G. Makin provided excellent music for the occasion.

After a honeymoon spent in Toronto, Montreal and at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Urquhart will reside in Schumacher, Ont., where they will be "At Home" after Feb. 15th to their many friends who all join in wishing them every happiness and prosperity.

Englehart's Board of Trade and the U.F.O. of the district are co-operating to secure the establishment of a creamery at Englehart.

LISKEARD COMMENT ON RECENT N.O.H.A. GAME THERE

Hockey fans will read with interest the following comment in the last issue of The New Liskeard Speaker in reference to the recent game between the Liskeard and Porcupine teams in the N.O.H.A.:

"It would take a big stretch of imagination to say that the game on Tuesday evening here between the Timmins and New Liskeard Seniors was a good exhibition of hockey. As a matter of fact, the Timmins team, as at present constituted, is no match for either Iroquois Falls or New Liskeard. But, even at that, they may 'spill the beans' before the league schedule is over. The score of this contest was 10 to 5 in favour of the home team, and just how so many got past the Liskeard goalie is some mystery. McCann was right on the job when there were any real hard ones to be handled, but a couple of sloppy ones found their way past him. At the other end, McIntyre, a pioneer of the Cobalt Mines League, made some good saves, notwithstanding the ten counted against him. His defence did not protect him anything like the Liskeard man was covered, nor had the visiting forwards the ability to carry the puck as did the local boys.

"Altogether, the game was an interesting one, and reveals the fact that, barring accidents, the Falls have the team to beat for the Senior group.

"For seven minutes the locals were without the services of the stalwart defence man, Smith, who was serving a ten minute penalty for forcibly representing the attack of a Timmins man on Thompson. The other fellow got three minutes. Even at that the locals kept control of the game.

"Notwithstanding this episode, the play for the most part was entirely friendly and citizens compliment the Timmins boys on their game efforts to win.

"The locals put up their usual good game, with Smith turning in his best effort of the year. For the visitors, Kelly has the call, and with a better team would be a handy man to have around."

(From The Broke Hustler.)
 The people who did not care to brave the cold weather to visit Tom Heard's square of frigid Saturday night to encourage our Young Home-falls along, don't know what they missed. Whilst there was a pretty good crowd, it might have been bigger. The boys played a great game, and deserved their victory. The game was fairly fast throughout, although the Young Miners appeared short on condition in the last frame, tiring much faster than the Eskimos, who by the way were attired in their new uniforms.

Fred Mills played well in goal, although he had trouble with a couple of rolling pucks which much to his disgust landed in the twine. Keith Little, whilst being slow to break worked hard all night, and what is more to the point he covered up in front of goal and in addition drove a couple of nice heaves Downeywards. Zeeland was not so good, although he had a couple of nice rushes up the ice. On the attack McIntyre and Duffy were the stars, their combination work leading to two or three of the Eskimos' tallies. Benny Moreau at centre worked hard and was principally effective for his backchecking. Trotter made a good substitute but Mitchell was not used much.

Downey in the visitors' net played a nice game having no chance with the shots which beat him. Whistle, an ex Sudbury Cub Wolf was the star of the defence, and along with Proulx made a stone wall which kept the red, white and black shooting from outside. On the forward line the miners were not so good, having little combination, whilst their shooting was at times terrible, and they had quite an inclination to loft the puck.

Referee—Percy Fahey, Iroquois Falls.

SEVERAL SERIOUS CASES TO COME BEFORE COURT.

Following the arrest of some young women on the charge of vagrancy, the town and Provincial police have been carrying on an investigation that has resulted in further arrests and that may lead to still others.

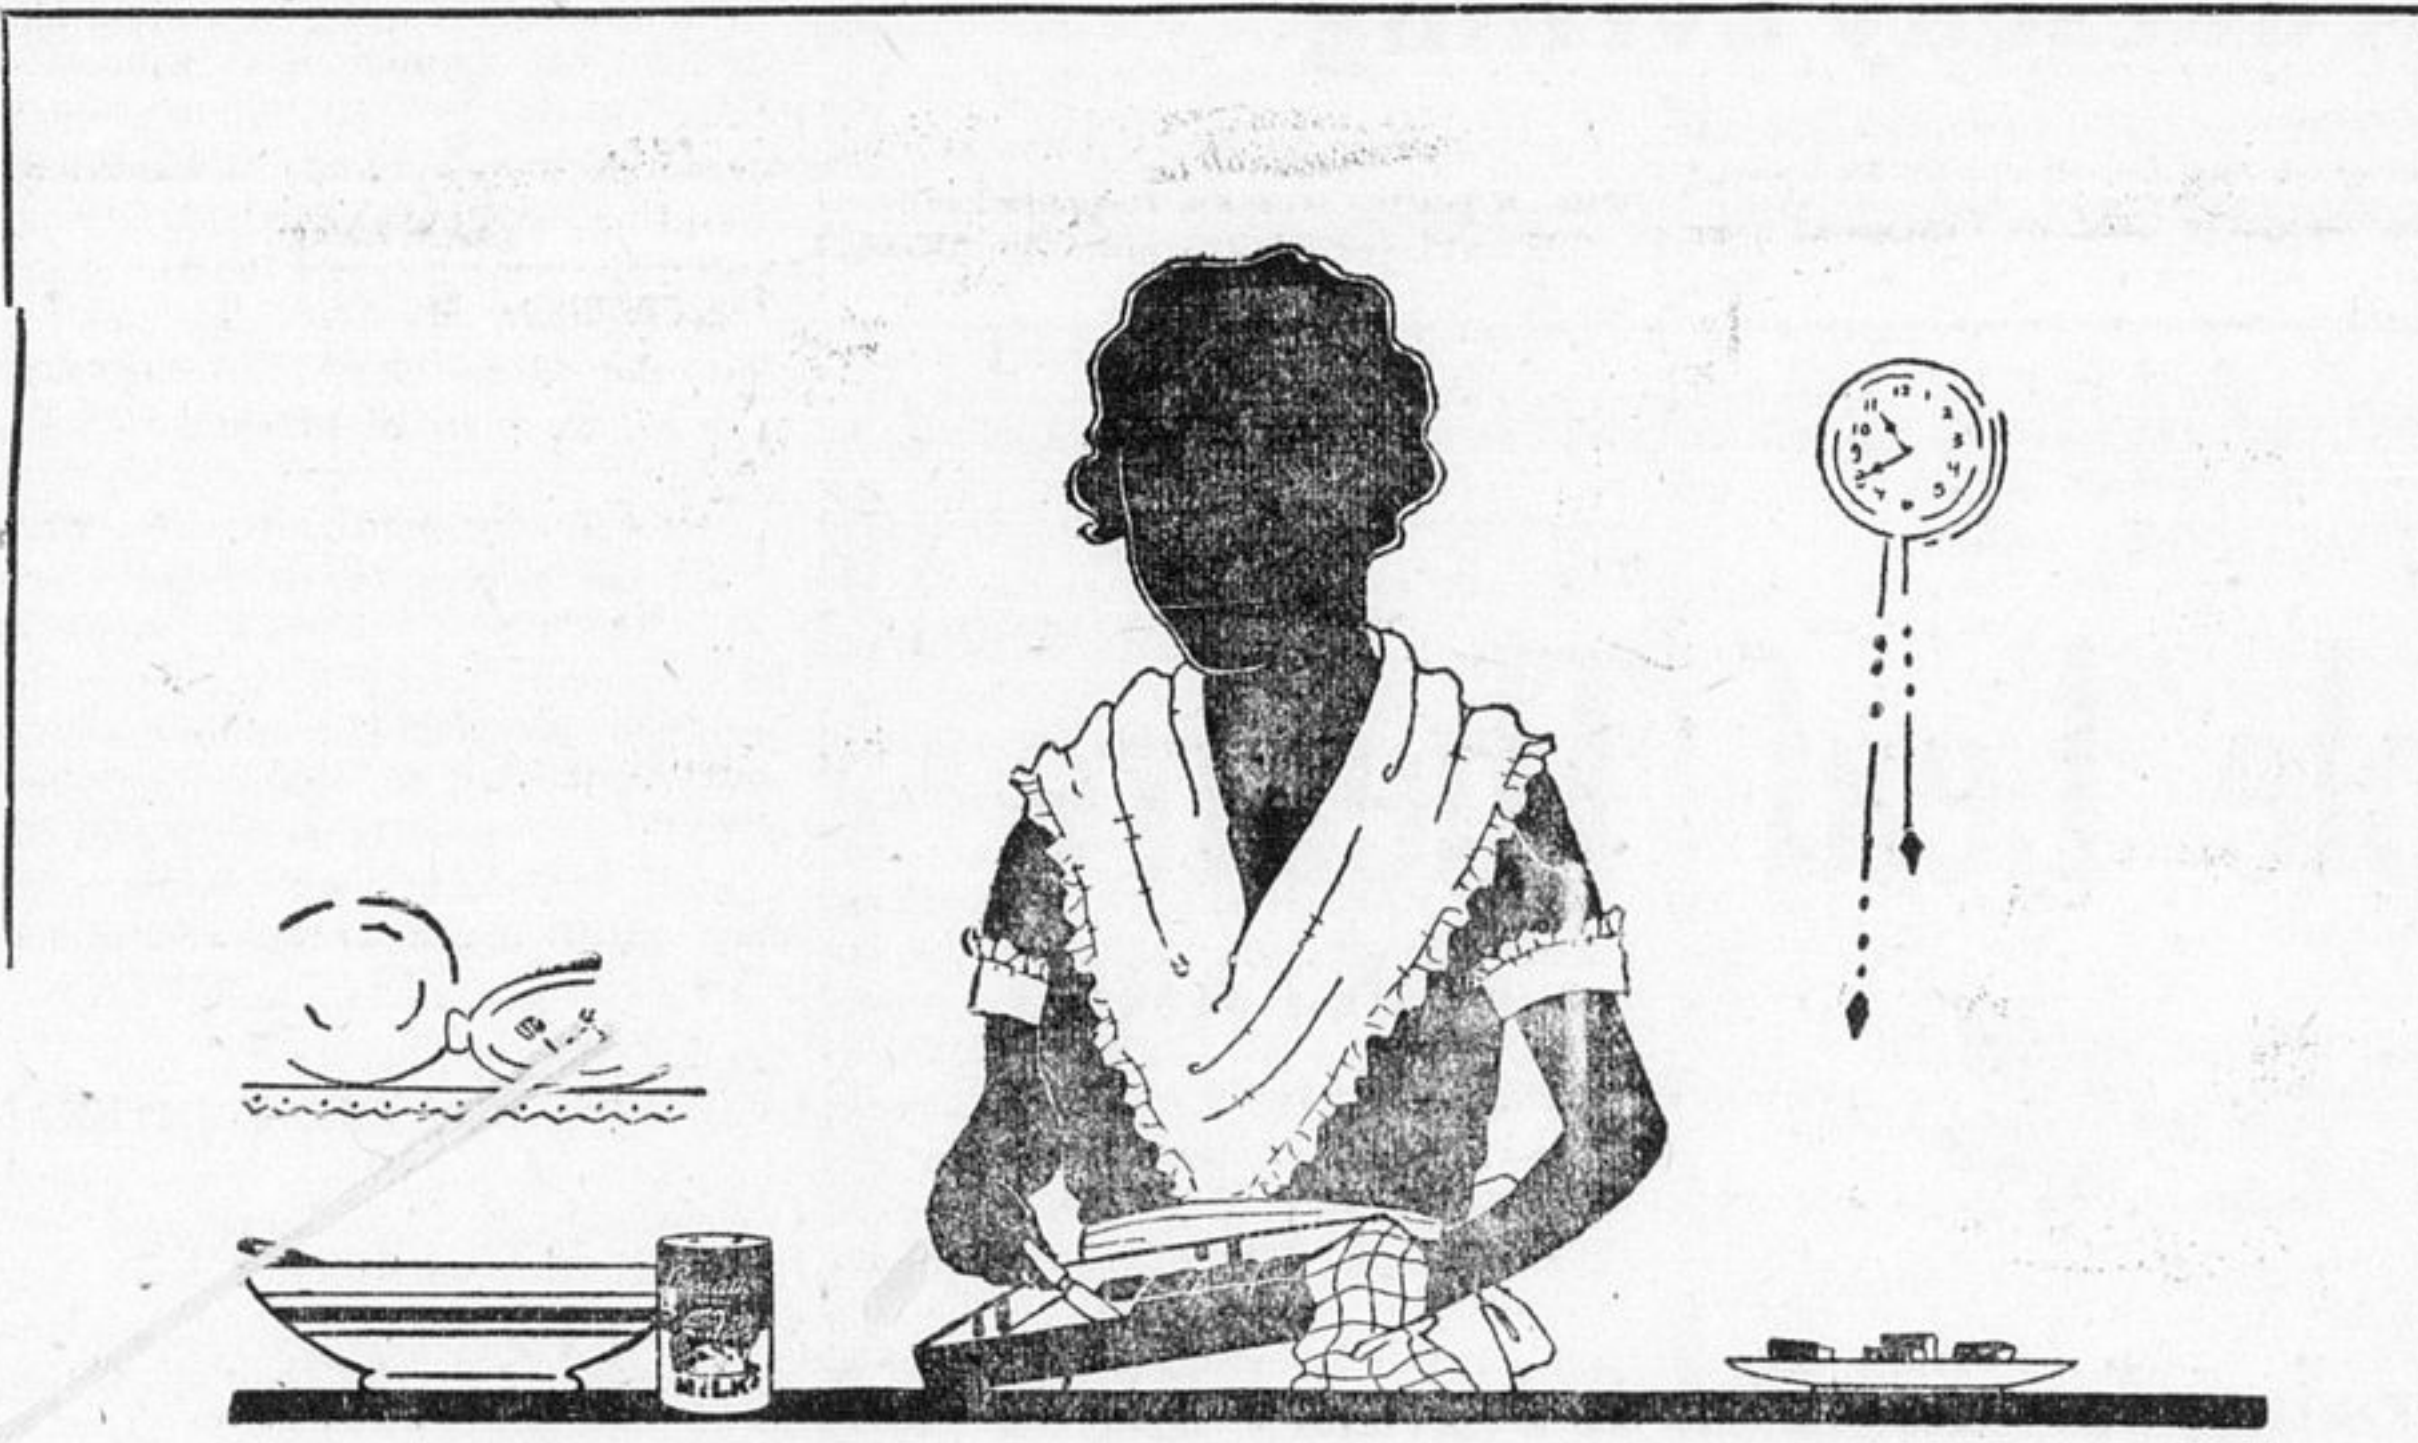

The charges resulting may include very serious ones against some of the men concerned. One taxi driver will face the accusation of allowing his car to be used for immoral purposes. It is not likely that the cases will be ready for the charges to be dealt with this week, so remands may be made in some or all of the cases concerned. In the meantime the Hotel de Greer is overcrowded, having both male and female guests to more than capacity.

The cases for this week's docket show that the police have been very busy during the past week and that Magistrate Atkinson will be correspondingly busy. There are several charges of vagrancy, a couple of assault charges, three drunk charges, a charge of disorderly conduct, a Breach of the traffic by-law, and some gambling cases, to be heard. The gambling charges grow out of a raid by the town police on the premises of a Chinaman on Spruce Street. Gaming was found in progress and no less than 31 Chinamen were escorted to the police station as a result. Out of the 31, charges have been laid against six, who seemed to be the ones actually in the game when the police got in.

Fudge

On this page will be found an advt. for Carnation Milk, containing a Recipe for "Fudge." The plate was slightly damaged in making a correction and may not show the receipt clearly. So that readers may have this receipt correctly, it is given herewith:—

2 squares chocolate, 2 tablespoons butter, 3 cups sugar, ½ cup water, ½ cup Carnation Milk. Melt butter and chocolate, in saucepan, add sugar, Carnation Milk and water. Cook until mixture forms soft ball in cold water. Cook without stirring; beat until creamy. Mold on buttered plate or waxed paper.

Carnation Improves Home-Made Candy

Creamy full-bodied fudge, crispy nut-crackle, smooth, velvet-like chocolate creams all follow the use of Carnation Milk in candy recipes. Carnation adds a smooth richness to your candy, for Carnation Milk is just pure, fresh milk, evaporated to double richness, kept safe by sterilization. Economical—it keeps indefinitely in the can, and for several days when opened. Order from your grocer several tall (16 oz.) cans or a case of 48 cans.

FUDGE
 2 squares chocolate, 2 tablespoons butter, 3 cups sugar, ½ cup water, ½ cup Carnation Milk. Melt butter and chocolate, in saucepan, add sugar, Carnation Milk and water. Cook until mixture forms soft ball in cold water. Cook without stirring; beat until creamy. Mold on buttered plate or waxed paper.

CARNATION CARAMELS
 1 cup brown sugar, 1 cup white sugar, ½ cup corn syrup, ¼ cup Carnation Milk. Mix well and boil, stirring often, until the mixture makes a firm, though not brittle, ball when dropped in cold water. Pour into a pan which has been rinsed with cold water and allow to cool without stirring or disturbing. When nearly cold mark into squares and cut when cold. If liked, nut meats or coconut may be laid in the pan before pouring in the candy. If chocolate flavor is liked, add one square of melted chocolate before the candy has finished cooking.
