Reeve Armstrong, of Chamberlain, was recently kicked by a horse and had two ribs broken. Mr. Joel Myers had both his legs broken near Moose Lake last week when his team became frightened and ran away. If this sort of thing keeps up there will be an agitation for the prohibition of horses, that will end by horses being only sold by doctors, drug stores, standard hotels and horse blind pigs.

BEAUTIFUL SUMMER WEATHER THIS WINTER

The Northern News last week says: "Pansies are in bloom again in Cobalt. Mrs. James Borrie told The Northern News yesterday that these handy flowers were blooming in her garden on the Buffalo property in a place from which the snow has melted. There are other signs that the winter is rapidly on the wane. Teamsters are bringing out the wheels again and those members of the craft who are sticking still to the sleighs are finding the going hard in the wake of the pronounced thaw. Town workmen have been engaged in cutting channels to facilitate the passage of the surplus water, fur coats are being put away and lighter outer garments are being substituted and piles of ashes which the friendly blanket of snow hid are beginning to show up again.

It looks like Spring."

SCHEDULE IN NURTH FOR BETTER LIVE STOCK TRAIN

Efforts Being Made by Poultry Association and Board of Trade for Train to Visit Here Also.

There has been a schedule published for the Better Live Stock Train being sent out by the Ontario Government on a tour of the North Land. This train carries samples of throughbred stock, including horses, cattle poultry, etc., as well as grains and other agricultural products. The train will be open for inspection at all places of call. There will be lectures and demonstrations. The demonstrations and lectures will feature horses, dairy cattle, beef cattle, milk and milk products, sheep and wool, swine and bacon, poultry and eggs, seeds and fertilizers.

It will be noted in the schedule given below that Timmins is not included in the places of call. In view of the large number of poultry fanciers here and the growing agricultural settlement in this district, this is a most unfortunate omission. To remedy the oversight, the Porcupine Poultry & Pet Stock Association has written Mr. Wade, the director of the train, to see if a place can not be made on the schedule for a call at Timmins, if even only for a few hours. The Poultry Association has offered to look after the advertising of the event if they receive notice in advance as to when the train will call here. The Timmins Board of Trade also took the question up and is giving active support to the request of the Poultry Association. If it is possible to have the Better Live Stock Train visit Timmins, such a visit will be secured this year. It is possible that a slight change in the schedule may make the visit possible.

The following is the schedule for the Better Live Stock Train as announced from North Bay onwards:

- Haileybury—April 14 9 a.m. to 12 noon.

UNEMPLOYED FLOCKING TO NORTH BAY THESE DAYS

During the past few days it is said that so many men have flocked into North Bay as to make the unemployment situation a serious one. It may be a judgment on North Bay for the suggestion made there by many last year that there was lots of work in Timmins, thus inducing men to flock to this town. The trick may have relieved North Bay but it loaded Timmins with a large number of men out of work and in most cases out of money. If North Bay is overloaded now with unemployed it will, perhaps, be able to realize just how Timmins felt some months ago when North Bay people and people in other towns, south and east, were so ready to advise the unemployed to flock to Timmins.

At the present time Timmins has its own share of unemployed, so can sympathize in a way with North Bay's position. There are more men than jobs here now, and it would be foolish indeed for any further men to come in here at present. Those who have no money are liable to be sent back to the Bay as vagrants, and those with a few dollars will simply spend that money waiting for a job.

The reported rush into North Bay is said to be due to a rumour that 2000 men were needed in Rouyn for railway construction and other work. This rumour was premature, to say the least. The contract for the railway extension will not be let until April 6th, and it will be a few days after that before any material force of men will be required. In any case there are enough men now in the North Land to look after all work that will open here this summer. Men from outside points should not rush in to North Bay or any other point, without first finding out what the chances are of securing work. The Ontario Labour Bureau at any point can give information along this line.

SCHROEDER PUPILS TO GIVE CONCERT ON SUNDAY

Another Schroeder Concert is to be held on Sunday evening in the Goldfields Theatre, the proceeds to go for charitable and educational work. The Schroeder concerts are always a delight to music-lovers, and the event on Sunday evening, after the church services, is expected to be even better than the former event. The program for the evening will be furnished by the Schroeder Orchestra, the Schroeder pupils and by Mr. Schroeder and his staff. Instrumental and Local music of the best type may be expected and the event will be another treat for music-lovers.

FUNERAL OF THE LATE MR. T. FOX LAST WEEK IN COBALT

After referring to the sad accident which was followed by the death of Mr. T. Fox last week, The Northern News, of Cobalt, last week says:—

"Mr. Fox leaves a widow and six young children, two sons and four daughters. The oldest is 11 years of age and the youngest is a baby. At the time of the accident Mrs. Fox and her family, who have been residing on the Buffalo property here, were in Bruce Mines where Mrs. Fox had been called by news of the serious illness of her mother. She and the children left at once for Timmins, passing through Cobalt last week-end.

"The funeral was arranged for this afternoon and interment was to be made in Silverland Cemetery. Rev. L. F. Pinnington, rector St. James' Anglican Church, officiated at the services. The remains were brought down from Timmins on the evening train yesterday, after a service had been held there. Mrs. Progsley, a sister of the deceased gentleman, resides in Timmins. An inquest was to be held in Porcupine.

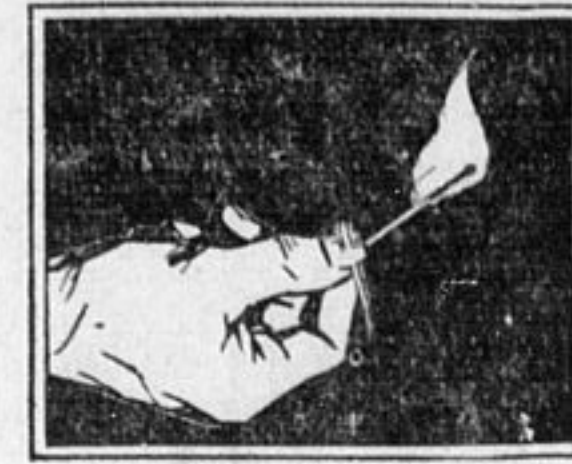

"The late Mr. Fox, who was a native of Herefordshire, England, had lived in the Cobalt camp since its earlier days. He was in the west for a number of years, later returning to Cobalt, where he remained until last year, when he went to Porcupine. He was employed at the O'Brien and Mining Corporation here. The family formerly lived in Angentite, but were burned out in the fire of October, 1922, afterwards taking up house in the Buffalo property. Some years ago Mr. Fox was rather seriously injured when he was thrown from a rig in the Mileage 104 section."
