RADIO FROM DES MOINES NOT CLEARLY HEARD HERE

Practically all the radio fans in town were watching last Wednesday evening to listen-in on the radio concert broadcasted from Station W. H. O., Des Moines, Iowa. There was general disappointment, however, as few were able to hear the station here with any distinctness. It is understood, however, that one or two were successful in hearing some numbers, and thus were able to take opportunity to wire the Station and stand a chance of receiving some of the souvenirs given out to listeners-in. By the co-operation of a number of manufacturers Station W.H.O. had $50,000 worth of souvenirs to distribute to those promptly notifying the Station as to listening-in on the special programme for the night. There were thirty-five special artists giving the programme and the event was a noteworthy one in radio circles.

TWO HIGH-GRADE CASES REMANDED TO THIS WEEK

At last Thursday's police court the charges against M. Holcovitch and M. Zalerie of having gold ore illegally were remanded for a week. Remand was also made in the case against Holcovitch of illegally having firearms while being an alien. These cases followed a visit made to premises near Alexo, Special Officer R. Allen and Provincial Officers visiting the place and seizing a quantity of gold ore as well as paraphernalia believed to be for the treatment of gold ore.

There were only three drunks at last week's court. Ten dollars and costs in each case was the answer. J. Ranger, for illegally having liquor, was fined $500.00 and costs, and not raising the necessary, went down for three months.

J. Vissenaunt was charged with obtaining credit by fraud. He was assessed $50.00 and costs for this offence. Not paying up, he also went down to North Bay for two months. This case should be a warning to any others who may think they can "beat a board bill."

W. P. Boris, on a charge of high-grading, was fined $200.00 and costs. He did not pay up and left last week to start the term of three months given as an alternative to the paying of the fine.

The charges against J. Rubinovick of obtaining money by fraud was adjourned for a week. The charges against Rubinovick arise from claims that he canvassed lumber camps and other places some time ago taking orders for clothing and accepting money on same, but that the clothes have not been delivered as agreed. His answer to the charges is that the firm that he represented fell down apparently in its delivery work.

The charge of theft against Mr. G. Miller, of Toronto, was dismissed. An item in The Advance last week might suggest that Mr. Miller was brought back in custody. This was not the case, Mr. Miller returning here of his own accord to face the charge against him, and reaching here previous to the return of the officer sent from here. The charge against Mr. Miller was preferred by Mr. J. A. Theriault with whom he had been associated in a clothing sale some months ago. The specific charge was in regard to the sale of a hat, price $3.00, for which it was claimed the money had not been turned over to Mr. Theriault. Mr. Miller secured the key of the store from one of Mr. Theriault's employees and had packed and removed his trunks overnight and Mr. Theriault did not know he had left town until the morning. Mr. Miller explained this by saying that he had done this to avoid trouble as he and Mr. Theriault were unable to agree as to terms and conditions in the sale and Mr. Miller wished to get away without further difficulties. A warrant was issued in the matter some time ago, but Mr. Miller was given his freedom by the authorities at Toronto. He left later on a business trip to the West, returning some days ago to learn that the charge still was pending. He came up here at once. After hearing the evidence in the case Magistrate Atkinson dismissed the case.

At first, about thirty people will be employed at the height of the season. The Northern Canning Company is the name of the firm. The company this year will make a specialty of canning peas, having put in 200 acres of their own. Later, blueberries and other lines will be canned, according to The Northern News.

INSPIRING ADDRESS BY MEMBER FOR WEST ALGOMA

Mr. T. E. Simpson, M.P., Explains King Government Record and Points the Remedy.

The large dining room of the Hotel Iroquois, Iroquois Falls, was crowded to overflowing on Wednesday evening last for the meeting held after the Executive Session of the District Liberal-Conservative Association. Mr. Jas. D. Kingston, President of the District Association, occupied the chair in capable way, and the speaker of the evening was Mr. T. E. Simpson, M.P., for West Algoma, who delivered an inspiring and eloquent address on the pressing problems of the day. Mr. Simpson, who is a very pleasing and effective speaker, held the very closest attention of his audience throughout. He showed how the present Dominion Government had failed, and he pointed the remedy—the election of a Government pledged to economy, protection of Canadian industries, and fair and sane legislation,—a Government that would also live up to its pledges. This Riding could do its share by electing a supporter of the policies of the Rt. Hon. Arthur Meighen.

When the present Government was electioneering they had fairly howled about the high cost of living and the alleged extravagance of the Meighen Government, especially in regard to what they termed a tendency to "Government by Commissions." Yet, Mr. Simpson showed that the cost of living had advanced in Canada since the present Government has held office, the figures for the country at large in 1922 and for January, 1925, being quoted to prove the point. Regarding the alleged extravagance for Commissions to investigate or deal with various problems, Mr. Simpson pointed out that in ten years of office the previous Government had only spent $700,000.00 on Commissions, while in three years the King Government had expended $585,000.00, or three times the proportion.

The poor business tactics, on worse, behind the Peterson deal and the W. T. R. Preston report, were referred to and dealt with in effective way.

Mr. Simpson showed clearly the injury done to the country by tinkering with the tariff. This was responsible for much of the unemployment. He instanced the case of a plate glass factory in Hamilton. Over a million dollars had been spent to establish this industry. The industry had to be closed down because the present Government's interference with the tariff had thrown the plant into unfair competition with United States plants. Two tanneries, one in Nova Scotia and the other in Ontario, had similarly been closed down through the unwise policy of monkeying with the protective tariff. This unwise policy meant the throwing of thousands of men out of employment. It meant a general injury to business. In the cases cited it meant also a further serious injury to the country. The capital employed had been largely English capital, and the instability and unfairness evident in the present Government's tariff tinkering seriously handicapped all efforts to induce English capital to invest in Canadian industries.

Mr. Simpson said he had expected an election early this year, but the present Government had evidently seen the handwriting on the wall, and so were staving off the elections to hold back defeat as long as possible.

Mr. Simpson's stirring address was warmly applauded and found very general favour.

ENVOY BLANEY WELCOMED AGAIN TO TIMMINS S.A.

During the week-end Envoy Blaney, of North Bay, paid another visit to the Timmins Salvation Army, this being the third visit of this officer. Envoy Blaney has many friends in the town and was given a hearty welcome and all the services were very largely attended. On Saturday evening he delivered his very interesting lecture, "Six Months in a Caravan, or On Wheels with the Salvation Army." There was a large attendance and the address of Envoy Blaney proved specially interesting and inspiring. He had innumerable amusing and helpful incidents to relate, and his lecture was listened to throughout with the closest attention. He is a talented speaker of wide experience. On Sunday the services were marked by specially good attendances. Envoy Blaney also spoke at the Sunday School, the Sunday School for the occasion exceeding all previous records for attendance.

The Better Live Stock Train will be at Matheson on Friday from 2 to 5 p.m.; at Monteith and Porquis Junction on Saturday, and at Cochrane on Monday, on the tour through the North Land.
