SPECIAL GIFT WITH EVERY
- SUIT OF CLOTHES SOLD

Mr. C. W. Pennie, Tailor, Schumacher is conducting a special sale at the present time and meeting with much success in this. A special attraction at the sale is the offer of a special gift of a pair of trousers with every suit ordered, this special offer holding good from May 11th to May 20th.

THIRTEEN PINES FROM LACK OF CHAUFFEUR'S LICENSES

There were thirteen fines of $10.00 and costs each at police court last week in connection with truck drivers who had been operating without the necessary licenses. In each case both the unlicensed driver and the owner of the truck each had to pay a fine. The firms and drivers alike were also warned to see that the licenses were secured before there was any further driving of the trucks. In most cases, however, the drivers secured licenses between the time they received the summonses and the time the court sat. In some cases the firms concerned had taken for granted that the drivers had secured the necessary licenses as in past years, but in this case it cost money to take this for granted.

Magistrate Atkinson said, "$10.00 and costs" to a couple of ordinary drunks. To D. Dominico, for illegally having liquor in a public place it was, "$200.00 and costs." Dominico had a barrel of wine in a place used for roomers or boarders. W. Chenier, on the charge of illegal purchase of liquor, was assessed $50.00 and costs.

There were a number of cases arising out of the visit here of one of the License Dept., inspectors who has been checking up on the drug stores. Four drug stores were found "shy" and against each of the four charges of illegally keeping for sale was preferred in this connection. Two of the stores are also charged with selling, as a result of the check-up. Another is charged with selling or disposing of alcohol without keeping the necessary records. The four concerned are the Timmins Drug Co., the Ryan-Murray Co., E. R. Riggs and the New Ontario Drug Co., Moneta. Mr. W. A. Gordon, of Haileybury was here in connection with the cases. Only one case was completely heard, and judgment on that reserved. The other cases will be proceeded with on Thursday of this week.

A further remand of a week was given in the case of Pete Stepaniuk, charged with the murder of Mrs. Seniuk. The remand was required in order to secure a witness now at Island Falls, north of Cochrane. Mr. A. C. Brown, counsel for Stepaniuk, put up a good battle against a further remand, on the plea that his client had already been under arrest for several weeks without the trial proceeding. Crown Attorney Greer, of Cochrane was present on the case for the Crown, and explained the necessity for the witness referred to. Until too late to secure him for last week, it was thought this witness was still in Timmins.

When a man poses as a confirmed bachelor, you may be fairly sure that some girl has confirmed him.
