DEATH OF MR. ROSS DIXON AT CONNAUGHT STATION

Personal and Other Items of Interest From Connaught Correspondent.

Connaught, May 19. Special to The Advance.

Depression cast its gloom over the entire community last Friday evening when the news was given out of the death of Mr. Ross Dixon. Although Mr. Dixon had been ill for two weeks his death came as a shock to his family and many friends. Mr. Dixon was in his 38th year. He was born in Bracebridge and made his home there until four years ago when he came to Connaught to accept a position with T. S. Woolings Company. He was a highly respected citizen and much admired for his integrity. Deep sympathy is extended to his wife, who was formerly Miss Edith Robinson, and his family of eight, his mother and two sisters. The funeral service which was held at his home Sunday was in charge of Mr. McConnell of the Union Church and was attended by members of the L.O.L., and numerous friends.
 Mr. McConnell delivered a most impressive sermon, the text taken from 1st. Corinthians, 15th chapter "Safe in the Arms of Jesus." Messrs. Chas. Wiltshire, Fred Burt, F. Kant, Albert Davies, Ross Redman, members of the L.O.L., acted as pall bearers. The body was taken to Bracebridge where interment will take place. Those attending the funeral from out of town were:—Mrs. Dixon, sr., Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. C. Reynolds, Mrs. Edward Ness and Mr. Boyd.
 The floral tributes included:—spray from Mr. and Mrs. Taplin; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Farnier; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Swayne; spray, C.G.I.T. Group; arch wreath, Lodge 2595, L.O.L.; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Little; wreath, family; spray, Dr. and Mrs. Day.

The Fire Rangers arrived this week and have taken up residence in their quarters under the "tower." Mr.
 Harry Clark is deputy chief and his assistants are Mr. Theo Martin and Bob Heintman.

On Friday afternoon about three thirty o'clock fire broke out in the residence of Mr. Thos. Dahill and totally destroyed the building and contents. The family was out at the time of fire and could not account for the blaze.

Dr. Porter, of Timmins, made a professional visit to town last week.

Miss Marion Flannery, of Haily-bury, was the guest of Mr. and Mrs.
 B. J. Connelly last week.

Mrs. Maloney and daughter, of Toronto arrived in town Friday and will remain for the summer months.

Mr. John Callinan and John Jr., were visitors to Night Hawk Peninsular Mine this week and returned to Toronto Friday.

Mr. W. E. Segsworth left this week on a visit to Toronto.

Mr. Traynor, of Toronto was a visitor here this week.

Mr. Percy Hopkins and Mr. Dry-borough, of Coniston, spent several days looking over claims in Night Hawk Lake.

Mrs. Will McCoy and son, Noble, were visitors in town last week.

Rev. Father Lagaveol, of South Porcupine, was a visitor here Sunday.
 Captain A. E. Burriet, who has been a resident of the Night Hawk Peninsular Mine for the past year, left Friday for Pasadena, Calif.; where he will make his home in future.

Mr. Dan O'Connor is on a business trip to Temagami.

Mr. Herbert Briden returned this week from a visit to his home in Haily-bury.

Mrs. Wilson Raynor and Mr. Sheppard, South Porcupine were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Doug. Warren Sunday.

Mr. Jack Easton, Timmins, was a visitor here Saturday.

ABOUT THIRTY CASES FOR THIS WEEK'S POLICE COURT

Last night there was no less than 28 cases on the docket for to-morrow's police court, with a full day to go to add other cases, maybe. The charges include high-grading, drunks, liquor in public place, illegal purchase, keeping for sale, illegal possession of firearms, and gambling.

SUCCESSFUL BAZAAR AT SOUTH END LAST WEEK

Pleasant Event Held by the Women's Auxiliary of St. Paul's Church.

South Porcupine, May 18—The Masonic Hall at South Porcupine was a veritable hive of bees on Tuesday, May 12th, when the Women's Auxiliary held their Bazaar and Sale of Work for which they had been preparing since last February.

On entering the hall, the first thing that struck the eye was a imposing flower and candy stall, most artistically decorated, as indeed all the articles were and under the management of Mrs.
 Britton, assisted by a host of the younger members of the congregation.
 Along the north side of the hall were three booths—the Miscellaneous and White Elephant booth, presided over by Mrs. Fairhurst, assisted by Mrs.
 Watts and Miss Spurr; the Dome booth, was under the capable care of Mrs. Hutchinson and Mrs. Richards; and a General Utility booth, managed by Mrs. Shepherd and Mrs.
 Ferrall. Mrs. Parnell, assisted by the Misses Bigelow, Raymo and Maxwell Smith, superintended the fishing arrangements in St. Paul's Fish Pond, while Mrs. Hodson, under a huge South African sunshade, told the fortunes of young and old for a quarter.
 The south side of the hall was reserved for afternoon teas and later on in the evening a number of ladies too numerous to mention, under the direction of Mrs. Morgan, President of the Auxiliary, served suppers which everybody pronounced excellent. The evening was enlivened by a musical programme, arranged by Mr. H. Martin, organist of St. Paul's. The songs rendered by Mrs. Bowles, Mrs. Russell, and Mr. Dodge were much enjoyed as was the recitation given by Mrs.
 Costain.

At 3 p.m. after a few remarks by Archdeacon Woodall, Mrs. Dowsett in a graceful speech referred to the purpose of the Bazaar, which was to raise funds to assist in building a new church in South Porcupine, worthy of the community and cause for which all churches are built, and declared the Sale open.

At the close of business, it was found that the Sale had realized about $475.00, which was very gratifying to the ladies.

The Archdeacon, who is in charge of St. Paul's wishes to thank all who assisted so readily to make the Sale, the success it was, and he is not unmindful of the many helpers who did real spade-work behind the scenes.

SOCIAL EVENING THIS FRIDAY AT CALEDONIANS

The regular meeting of the Caledonian Society on Friday evening this week, at the Hollinger Recreation Hall, will be a Social Evening. A specially attractive programme is being prepared and a pleasant evening assured. It was intended to have this regular meeting as a Box Social, but this idea was later changed as it was felt that the Society should wind up its regular meetings for the season with the usual Social Evening event.
 Friday evening will likely be the last of the Caledonian meetings until Fall, as it is customary to close down during June, July and August. The regular meetings will re-open with a social evening at the end of September.
 In the meantime the Society may pay a visit to Schumacher for an evening there. Friday evening this week is Social Evening and all Scots and their friends are welcome.
