After efforts extending over a period of 13 years, the town of New Liskeard has finally succeeded in reaching a settlement with the Dominion Government over damages to property along the lake front by the conservation dam at the foot of the lake and the building of the dam on the Quinze. The town has received a cheque for $10,233.52 and will get title to the land affected, subject to the usual reservations by the Crown.

In the Mining Country where the Stamp Mills Roar

THE Imperial Bank of Canada "prospected" Northern Ontario before the day of the roaring stamp mill. Cobalt branch was opened in 1905, and ten branches, situated at important centres, now serve the territory from North Bay to Hearst.

These branches have grown up with Northern Ontario, and the efficiency of the service, and the understanding which the managers and officials have of this territory, is built upon long experience.
