THE HISTORY OF THE STAMPEDE IN TABLOID FORM.

Many years ago when amusements were fewer than they are to-day, and the Community spirit at its highest, the event of the year was the Big Annual Picnic, held in a central place and patronized by everyone—Cowboys and Cowgirls—for miles around. Such was the spirit of those Covered Wagon Days that one and all backed up the Representative Riders from the various Ranches with their whole years' wages. Those were the days when everything was found for the ranch hands and pay day was once a year.

Customs have changed with the passing of the years. Now it is like other professional contests with the usual backers for the popular hero in his or her line, and enormous salaries are pulled down by the experts in this calling as witness the Tom Mix's—Hoot Gibson's, etc.

On July 1st, 2nd and 3rd, the greatest opportunity most of us may ever have to see a caste in action with the amusing and exciting side lines which never appear in Wild and Woolly West Pictures, will be enjoyed immensely by all—old and young, and there will be no dummies to fall off the horses or understudies to do the difficult turns that will be performed by hard riders direct from the Ranges, who if out starred like many a Screen hero knows his "lines" with the best of them, and can produce a "Kick" that will long be remembered.

Come to the Parade and see the Cowboys rope His Worship the Mayor, and see him crown the Queen of the Contest. Parade each morning.

This show is not put on by a private enterprise, but under the auspices of the Kiwanis Club of Timmins
