RE-ORGANIZATION SHOULD PROVIDE FOR SETTLERS

Would do Much to Strengthen Confidence in Mattagami Company.

In an editorial article on the Mattagami Pulp & Paper Co. and the settlers, The North Bay Nugget last week says:—

"As a result of the representations made before the Cabinet of the Ontario Government by the representatives of the Northern Ontario Associated Boards of Trade on their recent visit to Toronto, it is said that assurance has been given that before any transfer of timber limits by the Mattagami Pulp and Paper Company is allowed, the Government will step in and demand that the Company's debts to settlers of the North be first paid. So long as the Company is officially in the hands of the Receiver the Government can do nothing to aid the settlers and it is stated that the only chance of the Government interfering in the event of a sale would be at such time as the purchaser of the Mattagami Company applies to the Government for a transfer of the limits owned by the defunct company. It would be perfectly proper and politic for the Government to insist that whatever amount is due the settlers for pulpwood delivered to the company prior to 1920 and in 1921 must then be paid.

"In a statement which The Nugget published recently from Mr. G. T. Clarkson, official receiver for the company, the amount due settlers who delivered wood in 1920-21 is $23,562.69 and the sum which it is expected to realize out of the sale of the company's assets is in the neighbourhood of $7,000,000. In comparison to the amount of money involved in the sale the indebtedness to the settlers is so small that there should be no difficulty in having the purchasers recognize the situation from the settlers' point of view and of meeting the comparatively small demand. While not an important sum when regarded through the glasses of high finance

WEDDING AT ST. ANTHONY'S ON MONDAY OF LAST WEEK

An event of interest to a large number of friends took place in St. Anthony's Church, Timmins, on Monday morning, July 27th, when Mr. Ignatius McGrath took for his bride Miss Gertrude O'Sullivan, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. James O'Sullivan, of Sheenboro. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Fr. Morencier. The bride wore a beautiful dress of French blue brocaded Canton crepe, with mink fur, and hat to match, and carried a bouquet of roses and maidenhair fern. The bride was given away by Mr. Jas. Gaven, and the witnesses to the ceremony were Mrs. J. Ryan, friend of the bride, and Mr. Matt. McGrath, brother of the groom. After the ceremony the wedding party motored to the home of Mr. Gaven, where a number of friends were present for dinner. Mr. and Mrs. Ignatius McGrath will reside at 58 Broadway. The many friends of the young couple extend sincerest good wishes for all happiness in their new life.

The $425 involved in each case represents the difference between success and failure for many of the 66 settlers to whom it is due.

"It would be a wise and diplomatic move on the part of purchasers of the Mattagami Pulp and Paper Company, whoever they may be, to make provision for the $23,000 odd that is still owing the settlers. There is a strong suspicion among the settlers now that they were the victims of a carefully planned manoeuvre and such voluntary action as suggested would do much to strengthen public confidence in the financial interests who are controlling the destinies of the North in many directions."

Mrs. John Connolly, of North Bay, died last week after several months' illness. She had taken an active and helpful part in religious and charitable work and was very highly esteemed in North Bay where she had lived for thirty-six years. Mr. Bertrand Connolly, of Connaught, is one of the surviving sons.

TOTAL TAX RATES HERE FOR PAST FOURTEEN YEARS

Last week The Advance published a table showing the assessment and tax rate figures of Timmins for the past fourteen years. The table did not have a special column showing the total rate, and some found difficulty in arriving quickly at the correct rate for any year. The fact is, of course, that there are really two rates—one for the Separate School supporters and one for Public School supporters. In only five years—1912, 1913, 1916, 1918 and 1922—were the Public and Separate School supporters paying the same rate. The total rates paid by Public and Separate School supporters respectively since 1912 are as follows:—

Year	Public	Separate
1912	25	25
1913	25	25
1914	27	33
1915	29	34
1916	32	32
1917	45	42
1918	36	36
1919	36	47
1920	44	45
1921	45	47
1922	38	38
1923	46	48½
1924	53.6	54.6
1925	67.6	61.6

It will be noted that the first two years were the lowest in tax rate. At that time the town had not begun to pay for improvements. Indeed, the first four or five years were easy ones on this account. 1925 is the highest in taxation, but there is reason to feel that it is the peak and that with economy and carefulness the rate will not show any further increase but have a tendency to go down. In the meantime, however, it is well to remember that public works have to be paid for, and the whole matter resolves itself into this—that either Timmins has pretty high rates of taxation, or else it goes without improvements and advantages.

The next regular meeting of the Town Council will be held on Monday, Aug. 10th.

TIMMINS ENTERTAINS ABITIBI GOLF CLUB

Iroquois Falls Visitors Play Inter-Club Matches Here.

Over the week-end a number of very enjoyable inter-club matches were held at the Timmins Golf Course, when the Abitibi Golf Club were entertained by the local golfers. Fourteen members of the Abitibi Club came over from Iroquois Falls, and played the Timmins course. Four-ball foursomes were played, the visiting golfers turning in a very creditable performance, considering it was the first time they had played on the local links, and the improvements made this year making the Timmins course a rather tricky one. The warm weather over the week-end made it nice for golfing, a slight breeze giving relief from the otherwise sultry heat. After the matches were played an enjoyable luncheon was served in the Grill room of the Empire Hotel, the Iroquois Falls visitors being the guests of the Timmins members.

FIELD DAY AT SCHUMACHER TO-DAY (WEDNESDAY) AUG. 5

Under the auspices of the McIntyre Athletic Club a big Field Day is being held to-day (Wednesday) at Schumacher. Sports, athletics, races, novelties, etc., including Softball, Baseball and Football matches. Porcupine Goldfields Band in attendance all day. In the evening there will be a Dance in the McIntyre Hall.

The Palmer United Attractions left here last week for North Bay Old Home Week, after ten days and ten nights in town. Their shows were clean and well-conducted, but it must be admitted that they took a lot of money out of town. However, that is what they are here for, and there is no one to blame but the people who spent the money.

Alice Discovers New Wonderland at Wembley

"The animals went into the Ark in case it should rain." "Long John Silver was also there."

"I know what we'll do," said Alice, "let's go to Wembley." "What do you want to go to Wembley for?" asked the Walrus, who was always asking foolish questions anyway.

"I want to see the sailing ships and sealing-wax and cabbages and kings," replied Alice.

"Ha, ha," laughed the Walrus, "you won't see any sealing-wax there, it's all at Madame Tussauds and I have my doubts about the cabbages, too."

"Well, I shall see lots of sailing ships and kings," said Alice starting to cry, for she was very fond of cabbages, "and, anyway, if you go to the Exhibition alone you won't be able to get in to Treasure Island as they don't admit adults unless they are escorted by children."

"Oh, all right," said the Walrus, who, being 182 years old, no longer regarded himself as a child and had secretly wanted to go to Treasure Island all the time.

So away they went.

When they arrived at Treasure Island they found a real train—not a very big one, it is true, but nevertheless, the real train in the world—puffing like a grampus, at a little station labelled Banff, as if anxious to get on its way around Wonderland.

"Look," said Alice, "there's Peter Pan."

"That ain't Peter Pan," said the Walrus, whose education had been sadly neglected, "that's a Canadian Pacific engine."

"I don't care," answered Alice, starting to cry again, for, like all modern children, she hated to be contradicted by her elders, "it's called Peter Pan because it goes everywhere and never gets old or tiresome." This sly reference to his age effectively subdued the Walrus, who now relapsed into silence, and didn't say another word until they were seated in the little train and slowly pulling out of Banff.

It would take too long to describe all the things they saw or all the wonderful people they met, but they had such an interesting time that Alice soon forgot all about her cabbages and sealing-wax.

There was Long John Silver, with his one eye and wooden leg and piratical disposition; and there were Mother Goose, Sir Francis Drake, Robinson Crusoe and Man Friday, Humpty Dumpty, Little Bo Peep, Jack and Gill and all the other fairyland people Alice had read about but never met before. And they saw the animals going into the Ark which Noah had provided for them in case a rainy day should come along and wash off all their paint.

Of course, they saw lots of other things, too—the Rocky Mountains, for instance, and the Golden Hind.

"While we're about it," said Alice, when they had seen all there was to see at Treasure Island, "we might as well go in and see the 'Canadian Pacific Pavilion. Everybody goes there, you know." So in they went, and saw all the good things to eat and wear and work with that they have in Canada. They were shown around the building by a big man in blue who had "C.P.R." on his epaulettes, and explained to them that the initials meant Canadian Pacific Railway, and that they had put up this building and made Treasure Island in order to let the boys and girls in England know what a fine country Canada is. But it presently began to get dark and Alice had to take the Walrus home and give him a bath before he went to bed.

"Well, that's that," remarked the Walrus, when they got outside.

"Of course, it is," replied Alice, "what else would it be?" "I mean it's all over now," grumbled the Walrus who had been annoyed because Alice had refused to allow him to go into the Ark with the other animals, "and you didn't see any sealing-wax or cabbages, and not many kings either."

"That's quite true," replied Alice patiently, "but I've found out a lot about Canada and I've had a jolly good time, so you may grouse as much as you like—I'm quite satisfied."

And so they went home, and the funny part of it is, Alice did not wake up—for she had not been dreaming at all.
