Irishmen in Town Organize Irish Society in Timmins

Well-Attended Meeting Elects Officers and Society is Away to a Good Start. Premises to be Secured for Club Rooms. Meeting Nights to be Arranged Soon.

On the evening of August 30th, when that day comes I will ask you to lay my photo on its wall, and its members bury me." After Mr. Fay's address, it was decided to establish a society to be known as The Irish Society of Timmins. The election of officers was then proceeded with, resulting as follows: President—Mr. Patrick Fay. Vice-President—Mr. Anthony Mullarky. Secretary—Mr. Malachi Nohilly. Treasurer—Mr. Patrick Scott. Committee—A. Mullarky, Mr. Welsh, Mr. Shanton, Mr. Bennett and Mr. P. Kennedy. The officers and committee are now looking for a suitable hall, and also considering the matter of regular meeting nights and other details. A very hearty vote of thanks was passed to the President, Mr. Fay, for his address and for his interest in starting the Society. During the evening the gathering was delighted with well-rendered and much appreciated songs by Mr. Wm. Powell, Mr. James Lynch and Mr. Malachi Nohilly.

than two years. The indeterminate sentence was given because the women were found to be drug addicts and it was desired to give them opportunity to get away from the habit. The charge against M. Delacasse of living in part on the proceeds of prostitution, was withdrawn, the story of the women freeing him from this charge and there being no evidence to connect him otherwise with them in this way. All attending the exhibition of feats of strength and skill by Marijan Matijevic, the athlete from Croatia, at the Ukrainian Hall, Timmins, last Saturday, are ready to agree that he has warrant all right to claim the title of the world's strongest man. He bent iron bars, lifted weights, held weights close to half a ton by his teeth and performed other prodigies of strength. Those present were all very well pleased with the exhibition given by this athlete, wrestler and strong man, who has medals and diplomas from many countries and who has achieved considerable international fame.

IF THE COW DIED, IT CAUSED THE BULL TO BE SHOT A LOT

One of the amused attendants at one of the cases at police court last week suggested that while the case seemed to be about a cow that died, the bull that resulted seemed to be very lively. The case was that in which I. Tkatch charged James Shubb with obtaining money under false pretences or by fraud or something not proper. Mr. Tkatch gave his story on the witness stand in fullest detail. Indeed, when he started to explain, the difficulty was to stop him. He said that he had placed implicit confidence and faith in Mr. Shubb. Mr. Shubb, he said, had bought him a cow worth $240.00 for only $140.00. He paid Mr. Shubb, he said, in cash, and then paid the freight on the cow to Montreal, this also to Mr. Shubb, and all without seeing the cow or getting a receipt or anything. "I thought I could trust Mr. Shubb," said Mr. Tkatch. Mr. Tkatch further explained that he had waited in Montreal for the cow to arrive but all in vain. He got no cow, nor his money back, nor anything. He thought Mr. Shubb was not living up to the faith and trust that had been reposed in him. As Mr. Shubb denied the impeachment, and as Mr. Tkatch had no corroboration for his unusual story, the Magistrate was constrained to dismiss the case. The hearing of the case aroused a lot of amusement in the court, the answers of Mr. Tkatch in many cases creating much laughter.

Another case that roused more than usual interest was that of an elderly man who had been arrested at Brighton and brought back to Timmins on a charge of not paying a board bill at a local hotel. The man, who was around seventy years of age, was so overcome with emotion in the court that he was really unable to defend himself against the charge. He felt his position very keenly. Mr. A. C. Brown, who was in court in connection with some other cases, generously volunteered to conduct the defence. "I have no money to pay you," the old gentleman stammered out. "I'll defend you anyway," was the lawyer's response, Mr. Brown adding that he liked every man to get a fair chance. Then the case assumed a bright outlook for the old gentleman. It was soon shown that he bore a good reputation in the town he lived in down south and that he did not plan to evade payment of his board bill. He had himself been disappointed in not receiving money due him for wages, and he had explained that as soon as he got the money he will pay the local hotel bill. Then it developed that he had already been sued for the board bill in the Division Court. This threw the case altogether out of the police court. In discharging the old gentleman the Magistrate ordered the plaintiff in the case to pay the costs and also to pay the expenses of the old gentleman in returning to his home in the South. There were four common drunks at $10.00 and costs each. An assault charge adjourned from last week was remanded to this week. Dora Pionosi, who was charged with defamatory libel, by Dina Radi, was remanded for a week. A couple of cases under the Master and Servant Act were disposed of by the amounts found owing ordered paid. The Finlander from Connaught charged with being found in a disorderly house was fined $20.00 and costs. He was the man found in the Moneta shack with the two women giving the names of Mrs. Visco and Mrs. Ellis. On vagrancy charges these two women were sentenced to not less than three months nor more

WARN THE BOYS NOT TO PLAY WITH DETONATORS

Serious Danger in Cases Where Lads Pick Up Explosive Caps.

Parents, teachers and others should warn boys against picking up detonator caps and playing with them. Just at present, on account of so much construction work being in progress, these dangerous things may become available to thoughtless lads. They should be sternly warned against picking up the detonators and playing with them. This summer there have been a number of serious accidents through these dangerous explosives. Accidents have occurred to men accustomed to handle them. Several boys in the Cobalt district have paid a sad price for playing with the explosive caps. In past years here there have been a number of serious accidents in this district, and still greater number of narrow escapes. These detonators are very dangerous indeed. Their dangerous character can be exaggerated. Accordingly, before the danger is emphasized by terrible tragedy, all lads should be taught to leave them strictly alone.

On Saturday of this week, Sept. 5th, there will be a Dance and Social Evening held in the Hollinger Recreation Hall, under the auspices of the Cornish and Lancashire Football Clubs. A good time is certain for all attending the event.
