A report from Cochrane states that gypsum beds have been staked for approximately 35 miles along the sides of the Missinabi River.

Mrs. W. F. Fancy has returned to her home in Cobalt after spending several weeks the guest of friends in Timmins.

Mrs. Cooper, of Delhi, returned on Wednesday to her home in the South after a visit to her nephew Mr. Geo. Lake.

Mr. Robt. Cornthwaite, of the Bank of Montreal staff, left on Monday morning for Toronto, where he will be married to a young lady of that city. Mr. and Mrs. Cornthwaite will return to Timmins this week and will receive the sincerest good wishes of all.

Miss Dorothy Wallace left yesterday for Toronto after a visit to relatives and friends here. A very pleasant farewell party was given at the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Dye on Tuesday evening in honour of Miss Wallace.

Many old friends here were pleased last week-end to see Mr. Carl Mueller, formerly of the Hollinger staff, and an old-timer here, but now resident at Balston Spa, New York. Accompanied by his brother, Mr. H. Mueller, he motored up to North Bay, coming on to Timmins by T. & N. O. for a brief trip.

Mr. R. Smith, who won much deserved popularity here as a baritone singer of marked ability, and who left here some months ago for Toronto, returned to Timmins on Friday last and expects to remain here. Mrs. Smith, who is under medical treatment in the city, will remain in Toronto for a few weeks. All will wish her a speedy and complete return to health.

The following item is from the current issue of the Parry Sound North Star, "Miss Maudie Boyd, of Timmins, Misses Marie Norton, Florence and Kathleen Lynett, Messrs. P. S. Taylor, H. J. Batkin, and W. L. Alexander of Toronto, "Duke" McCurry of Pittsburgh, Pa., and A. E. Riddell of Montreal are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Riddell, at their Island, Five Mile Bay."

Mr. Hudson, Inspector, of the Department of Mines, Ottawa, whose office sees that explosives are properly housed and guarded, was a visitor to town this week. Inspector Hudson was specially interested in the articles in The Advance recently warning boys against playing with detonators. He considered the warning particularly true and the danger to boys as a serious one in cases where they find explosives of this sort. Mr. Hudson was also interested in the stick of forcite recently found baked in a loaf of bread. He inspected the unusual loaf at the police station.

Mrs. Courtemanche left this week for a visit to Toronto and Detroit.
