CONSIDERS CHANGE OF DAY OF PUBLICATION A GOOD ONE
 The St. Mary's Journal-Argus last week says:—
 "The Porcupine Advance has made a wise move in changing the date of the publication of their excellent weekly paper from Wednesday to Thursday. The change is made in deference to the wishes of many merchants and others who believe Thursday a better day to issue their announcements to the public. The change of publication day is also hoped to be of advantage from the standpoint of better news service to readers generally. The Journal-Argus made this change some five years ago, when the two town papers were amalgamated and it has met the highest expectations of publishers, readers and advertisers."

ADVERTISING TEMISKAMING AT TORONTO EXHIBITION

T. & N. O. Railway Has Remarkable Map to Show Country and Industries

Many from this district attending the Canadian National Exhibition at Toronto this year have made comment on the very effective exhibit by the T. & N. O. Railway Commission. The general opinion of this exhibit is that it was cleverly designed and very carefully carried out, and that it would do much useful service in attracting attention to the North Land and in making known the progress of this country so far and its wonderful possibilities for the future. The last issue of The New Liskeard Speaker has a very interesting article on this exhibit, under the heading, "Advertising Temiskaming at Industrial Exhibition." The New Liskeard Speaker says:—

"From information gathered from Mr. E. M. Goodman, who, with Mr. Palmer, was in charge, we judge that the Temiskaming and Northern Ontario Railway Commission had the best exhibit of Temiskaming from an artistic and educative view-point, yet shown anywhere. This exhibit consisted of a map 30 feet in length and 12 feet in width the scale being 3/4 of an inch to the mile. The map was built on a base-work of wood, with plaster of Paris over it and was an exact reproduction of the territory the map covered—absolutely correct according to the latest reports on the district from pictures and surveys. The map was so constructed that it showed every lake, river and stream, and water was seen running along these rivers and streams, and filled the lakes.

"Commencing at North Bay the map showed the T. & N. O. Ry., from The Bay to Island Falls, and also all the branch lines. Also was shown a train operating over these lines, and as the train arrived, each station was lighted.

"This map was made of sponges, coloured and so arranged that the country could be seen as it would had one been looking down from an airplane. The observer had a view of towns, villages, mines, paper mills, etc., while one could see how rivers were connected with each other, and where they branch off. The map was not flat, but in bas-relief, and was topographically correct, showing all the elevations of the land.

"In the building in which the exhibit was placed was erected a platform 9 feet high. Then the map was placed down about a foot below the floor of the building and to view the map one had to look down, and was thus enabled to see the whole district as above described.

"From the time the fair opened until its close this exhibit was on view. The thousands of people who saw it were delighted with it.

"During the time of the fair three men were employed broadcasting information about the district, morning, afternoon and evening. No doubt people will be attracted to Temiskaming through this new and unique system of advertising the Northland. "Many of the teachers who were visiting Temiskaming at different times were particularly pleased with the map, and there were many requests that it be placed in some public place in Toronto, where it might be seen at any time."

"A POLICEMAN'S LOT IS NOT A VERY HAPPY ONE."

At Sudbury court recently a witness in one of the cases being tried persisted in referring to the police officers as "cops." For this the witness was reproved by Crown Attorney McKesock. "Don't call them that," said the Crown Attorney, "it isn't nice." The Sudbury Star referred to the incident, and in commenting on the reference to "cops," Deputy Chief Salley said:—"Talk about 'cops' now if only that Crown Attorney could hear some of the names they call the police up in this country!"

First Silver Wedding Here That of Mr. and Mrs. McHugh

Event Took Place in August, 1920, Five Years Ago. Copy of The Advance of August 11th, 1920, Chronicles the Event. Mr. and Mrs. McHugh Observed the Ivory Wedding Anniversary This Year.

Last week in writing about the Silver Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. A. Roberts, The Advance referred to the happy event as the first Silver anniversary to be observed in this town. It has been pointed out to The Advance that this was an error, and the point has been proven by the production of a copy of The Advance of date, August 11th, 1920. The Advance of 1925 has been corrected by The Advance of 1920. In the issue of the Advance of August 11th, 1920, there was the following:—

"Last week Mr. and Mrs. Wm. McHugh observed their Silver Wedding Anniversary. They were married a quarter of a century ago (Aug. 2nd, 1895, to be exact) at Glasgow, Scotland, in St. Peter's Parish church, by Rev. Malcolm MacLennan. Mr. McHugh has been a highly esteemed and respected resident of the Porcupine since the early days of the Camp, and all here wish him and his good wife many more anniversaries of the happy day."

Mr. McHugh was one of the pioneer residents of the Porcupine Camp. In the early days of Timmins he was on the staff of the J. R. Gordon Store. He has been with the Hollinger Stores, Limited, since the taking over of the J. R. Gordon Grocery. Mrs. McHugh joined her husband here in May, 1920, and in August, 1920, they celebrated the Silver Anniversary of their wedding. This year they observed their Ivory Wedding Anniversary, thirty years of wedded life.

In making the correction in regard to the first Silver Wedding here, it is interesting to note that not only are both couples Scottish, but Mr. and Mrs. McHugh, and Mr. and Mrs. A. Roberts were also both married in Glasgow, Scotland.

The plays for Saturday matinee and night will be announced later. Miss Marks is carrying with her
