Your Doctor

You never hear him shouting his own merits—he does not boast of what he does—but notice the diploma which hangs in his office. That diploma cost him years of hard work and he has since put in a good many more years in practice.

When he writes out a prescription for medicine for you or anyone else he puts his knowledge and experience into it.

We feel that it is due him to make the medicine for which he writes a prescription worthy of him and worthy of us.

Every prescription, therefore, filled at our Drug Stores is the very best that that prescription can be.

During the past few months there have been a great many auto tires "lost" in this district. Moroneo, who recently had his collar-bone broken and received other minor injuries by being struck by an automobile on the road from the Hollinger, is making very satisfactory progress to recovery. BOOKLET EXPLAINS MAKING LAUNDRY OR TOILET SOAP

In the old pioneer days the thrifty housewives used to make their own soap as a regular part of their household duties. It used to be quite a laborious undertaking because they first had to make a lye from wood ashes. But nowadays it's different. Hundreds of Canadian housewives are still making their own soap but they are not bothering with wood ashes. They get their lye for a few cents at the grocery store, and the rest is easy.

The manufacturers of Gillett's Flake Lye have prepared a little booklet which gives complete directions for home soap-making, using such things as tallow, bacon-rind, bones, etc., that too often are thrown into the garbage can. They say that the beauty of it is that there is practically no labour about the business, and, if directions are followed, success is as certain as sunrise. This seems like a good way to save money, to say nothing of creating that satisfied feeling which always results from the contemplation of a really good and useful article which you have made yourself. Readers would certainly be well advised to write E. W. Gillett Co., Ltd., Corner Fraser Avenue and Liberty St., Toronto 2, asking for a copy of their Lye Booklet.
