BOTH TRUTH AND POETRY IN THIS LITTLE EFFUSION

The practical genius of The Herald, of The Pas, Manitoba in a recent issue perpetrated the following, with the usual apologies to the late Henry Wadsworth Longfellow:-

"Tell me not in mournful numbers advertising is a dream, for the business man who slumbers has no chance to skim the cream. Life is real! Life is earnest! Competition's something fierce! If for dividends thou yearnest, learn to parry, thrust and pierce. In the business field of battle, mollycoddles have no place; be not like dumb driven cattle, be a live one in the race. Lives of great men all remind us we must bring the bacon home and, departing, leave behind us footprints on another's dome. Let us then be up and doing, otherwise w may be done; still achieving, still pursuing-advertise and get the 'mun.'

An easy way to find out whether a man is on his way "up" or "out" is to ask him what sort of a man his boss is.
