officers, viz:—Director, W. Lowry; Secretary-treasurer, Jas. Hogg; Executive committee, Messrs Geo. Starling, H. Mason and A. Kehoe, and Mrs. W. Raynor, Misses Isabel Arthur and Rosemary Devine. It is their intention to have a number of plays in their repertoire so that as the occasion arises they will be in a position to present them. The first of the series will probably be given in aid of the Anglican Church.

The Bridge, Euchre and Dance given under the auspices of Kitchener Rebekah Lodge on Wednesday last was very largely attended. There were thirteen tables of Bridge and about thirty-five of Euchre played. The winners in the Euchre were:—Gentlemen's first, Mr. Jack McCafferty; second, Mr. H. Miller; consolation, Claude Dillon; Ladies, first, Mrs. Train; second, Mrs. Raeicot. In Bridge the prize-winners were:—Ladies, first, Mrs. H. Greveoc; second, Mrs. Lambert; Gents, first, Dr. McDonald; second, Mr. Lyle. Dr. McLaren won the prize in the bean guessing contest. The prizes were all donated by the following:—Sky Bros., Deacon's Hardware, Pilsworth Estate, Todd's Drug Stores, McKinley Drug Store, W. D. Pearce, Mr. Bucovetsky and Mr. Wm. Skinner. A splendid lunch was served by the Rebekahs, after which dancing was enjoyed for which Colombo's Orchestra supplied their usual excellent music. The financial results were very satisfactory, there having been over seven hundred tickets sold. The Kitchener Rebekah Lodge wishes to thank the public who made this euchre and dance the real success it was.

The Home and School Association held its regular meeting on Wednesday, October 21st. The winners of the prizes in writing from Miss Michaelson's class were: First, Wanda Bespalco; second, Doris Kobsey; third, Glenna Strain. Recitations were given by Bernice MacDonald and Cecil Owens and little-six-year-old Madeline DeRosa delighted those present with two sweetly given violin solos. The flags for best attendance of parents at this meeting went to Miss H. Michaelson's class and Miss Belanger's these two rooms having tied for the honour.

Mrs. Raeicot, of Toronto is on a visit to her son, Mr. L. Raeicot.

The Harvest Home Services were well attended at the United Church on Sunday last. The Church had been beautifully decorated for the occasion by the ladies of the Guild with fruits, grain, pumpkins, ferns and many beautiful house-plants. The music at both services was exceptionally fine. In the evening the edifice was filled to capacity. In spite of the providing of extra benches, etc., it was necessary to bring in chairs and fill the aisles in order to seat the large number attending. It looks as though it will soon be necessary to enlarge the United Church building here. The speaker at both services was Rev. F. Bain. He was assisted by Mr. Childs, Supt. of the Sunday School. At the morning service, Mr. Geils of Timmins, rendered a very fine solo. Mrs. W. G. Bowles took the solo part in the splendid anthem "Jesus, the very thought of Thee" in the evening service. Mrs. F. Reynolds' solo, was also a great addition to the music. Mrs. N. H. Russell sang at each service, making a splendid impression with her rendering of sacred music.

The Turkey Dinner and Concert on Tuesday was a very satisfactory affair. Around four hundred were served with the most delectable of viands. The Concert afterwards was one of the finest ever heard in South Porcupine. Much praise is due to Mrs. H. R. Russell who arranged this programme. The Timmins Male Quartette, consisting of Messrs Geils, Cowan, Heffernan and Dodge, cannot be praised too highly. Each member's voice was so excellent and the blending so perfect that the large audience enjoyed a musical treat seldom heard in a place of this size. Solos by each of the members of the Quartette were also given with splendid effect and Messrs Heffernan and Geils gave a much appreciated duet. Mrs. W. G. Bowles, as usual delighted her audiences with her singing and Miss B. M. C. Shaw is a Reader with fine ability to entertain and amuse such an audience as was gathered there. Miss E. Wilson gave a high-class instrumental selection, while the violin playing of Rev. F. Bain delighted everybody, especially those who are the best judges of what is really fine in music. The United Church Orchestra rendered several fine selections and possibly one of the most attractive numbers of a very fine programme was the graceful Scottish dancing of little Misses Margaret Geils and Maisie Roberts.

The political meeting in the interests of Mr. C. V. Gallagher held in the Majestic Theatre on Monday night was largely attended. The chairman for the evening was Mr. W. G. Bowles, who in his introductory remarks traced the growth of our town from the early days when it was a few shacks settled on the muskeg here to the present prosperous busy little burg. During the last few years especially, the improvement in living conditions has been marked and these bettered conditions are irrevocably associated with the name of C. V. Gallagher, Reeve of Tisdale for the past six years, and the Liberal Candidate for the Federal House. As Mr. Gallagher came on the platform he was given a very hearty ovation. In his own genial, fair-minded way he discussed the questions of the day. He denied the rumour that he claimed had been made in regard to his withdrawing when another candidate entered the field, stating that he had qualified on the 9th instead of the 15th, to quiet any such rumours. However, such a denial was almost superfluous in his own home town, as all who have known him and seen his achievements in the past realize that he never 'quits' in a matter that he has made up his mind is for the public good, but stays with any project till it sees a successful completion in spite of all discouragements along the way. In speaking of the tariff he said that the wishes, and what might really be to the benefit of one province, could not be considered altogether, where phases of it would be detrimental to another, but what was needed was a Dominion-wide interest in all, aiming at a nice medium in tariff rates, that would not exploit one part of the country at the expense of the pockets of a sister province. In speaking of unemployment, he spoke of the tendency in the present day of many to spend money in luxuries whether necessities were purchased or not and quoted figures to uphold this statement, which we all know is much more characteristic of the present day than formerly. It seems to be a sort of reaction after the stringencies of war time. This naturally leads to straitened circumstances when any form of misfortune appears and helps to add to our list of poor at the present day. As to Labour, Mr. Gallagher thought that his attitude to the labouring man in this municipality should be a sufficient symbol of his interest in that party. We all know that it would be hard to find any other municipality where better wages, better hours or better working conditions have existed for the same kind of work than there has been here during the past few years. After Mr. Gallagher left to speak at another meeting, Mr. Gerrard, of Montreal, addressed the meeting in French then in English. He condemned some of those who were trying to drag into this election the racial cry at a time when all Canada should be joining hands in a united effort for their country's good. He appealed to the English common sense to look at the tariff in a fair-minded way and not be too prone to views that savoured of pessimism. The next speaker was Mr. Dean Kester, prominent lawyer of Timmins, who in an address of outstanding brilliancy and clearness discussed the situation as it is in Canada to day. He thanked the present government for their redistribution which gave to North Temiskaming a member of their own. He explained the Quota law of the United States, shutting out other immigration except that from Canada, thus making Canada the one main avenue of entry to the United States apart from all the other countries of the world, hence making figures that might seem to the uninitiated to mean depopulation but in cases these figures represent tourist traffic also. Mr. Kester has a very fine speaking voice, every syllable of his address being heard distinctly throughout the hall, and his presentation of facts showed a careful study of the situation and a clear-sightedness in making his deductions that was very convincing to his audience. Mr. Donald Ross, the next speaker was very earnest in his address. He related personal anecdotes in the life of our present Premier to show that he had always been a leader, even in college days. In speaking of the financial outlook he said that it takes years to get a financial scheme for a country into proper working order. He congratulated us as Canadians on the decrease that had been made on our National Debt in the last few years and also on the increased value of our dollar in the United States. Mrs. Stephens, of Toronto, spoke on behalf of the Liberal Women's Association of Ontario, and said that to women whose ambitions are always centred in their children Liberalism was attractive. She stated that our present Canadian Government was the only Government in the British Empire that has lasted three sessions since the war closed.

The claims owned by Dr. Cameron-Smith and his partner in Carmen Township have been examined by Gen. Eaton and Major Alberti of New York and the results were very satisfactory. The preliminary moves have been made in regard to taking these claims over but we can publish nothing definite until a later date.

It seems as though a Hospital for South Porcupine is now an established fact. The Presbyterian Women's Hospital Association have definitely promised one here but it remains for a suitable location to be found. This will most likely be somewhere on Connaught Hill.

Mrs. Starling hereby wishes to thank Kitchener Rebekah Lodge and all other friends who have been so kind and helpful in the present illness of her daughter, Ivy. The last reports from the Mayo Institute, where Miss Ivy is receiving treatment are very encouraging, the last two operations, having been quite successful in their results.

Mrs. E. Britton was the hostess of a Reception Tea last Wednesday afternoon. The tables were prettily decorated with roses. Mrs. N. H. Russell, poured tea and coffee while Mrs. W. G. Bowles cut the ices and Mrs. Leggett assisted in taking care of the guests. About thirty were present to enjoy the hospitality of the pleasant young hostess, who, during her short sojourn here, has made many friends.

Unveiling The "Altar of Peace" at Vancouver

The President Harding International Good-Will Memorial located in Stanley Park, Vancouver and erected by Kiwanis International through the voluntary subscriptions of its 95,000 members in the United States and Canada, was unveiled by John H. Moss, president of Kiwanis International on September 16th in the presence of a large gathering of both United States and Canadian government officials and members of Kiwanis.

The memorial was designed by Charles Marega, a well known Italian sculptor of Vancouver. When the scheme was first decided upon, it was the intention of the American Kiwanis Clubs to raise the funds on their side of the border and to present the memorial to Canada. Canadian Kiwanis, however, insisted upon contributing towards the fund and the memorial was thus erected by the joint efforts of the United States and Canadian clubs.

At the unveiling ceremony, the Dominion Government was represented by Hon. Dr. J. H. King and Dr. G. T. Harding, brother of the late president. United States Kiwanis was represented by International President John H. Moss, and International Past Presidents Victor S. Johnson and Edmund F. Arras. The Canadian Pacific Railway was represented by Frank W. Peters, General Superintendent at Vancouver. Several of the United States delegates stayed over at Banff and Lake Louise and other points in the Canadian Pacific Rockies before proceeding to Vancouver. The memorial itself is throughout a made-in-Canada product, being designed by Canadians and made of Canadian materials and by Canadian labor.

The site of the memorial is the spot where the late President Harding made his last public speech, when just before he died in 1923 he visited Canada. Warren G. Harding, late president of the U. S. A. was a chartered member of the Kiwanis Club at Marion, Ohio, his home town.

An extract from the speech made by the Chief Executive of the United States on that occasion, written in bronze for the memorial, and the possible text of many a murmured prayer of hope of the cosmopolitan tourist who reads it as he passes through the park, is as follows:

"What an object lesson of peace is shown today by our two countries to all the world. No grim-faced fortifications mark our frontiers, no huge battleships patrol our dividing waters, no stealthy spies lurk our tranquil border hamlets. Only a scrap of paper, recording hardly more than a simple understanding safeguards lives and properties on the Great Lakes, and only humble mileposts mark the inviolable boundary-line for thousands of miles through farm and forest.

"Our protection is in our fraternity, our armor is our faith, and the tie that binds, more firmly each year, is ever-increasing acquaintance and comradeship through interchange of citizens; and the compact is not perishable parchment, but of fair and honorable dealing, which, God grant, shall continue for all time."

The memorial, which is known as "The Altar of Peace," has been referred to as the only material symbol of fortification, outside of mileposts, to outline the invisible demarcation of the thousands of miles of border line separating the two countries from the Atlantic to the Pacific.
