Anglican Church at South Porcupine to Open Nov. 29

Oddfellows' Annual at Home. Opening Services Anglican Church. Presentation to Mr. and Mrs. W. G. A. Woods.

South Porcupine, November 25th. Special to The Advance.
 Mrs. M. Wilson is in Toronto visiting at her former home.
 The Annual At Home of the Oddfellows was well attended and everybody had a happy time. Euchre and Bridge were played upstairs while in the hall downstairs those who preferred to follow the terpsichorean art enjoyed themselves to their heart's content. Colombo's orchestra supplied their usual fine music. Mrs. Max Smith won the ladies' prize in bridge, a set of bridge cards in a handsome leather case; Mr. A. Taylor won the men's prize at bridge and Mr. A. E. Taylor the consolation. In euchre the ladies first was won by Mrs. Mitchell, while Mr. Max Rosenbaum won the gen's first, and Mr. Jekylls the consolation. The refreshments were of the best and the Oddfellows very assiduously looked after their guests, seeing that none were overlooked.
 The Five Hundred Club has been re-organized in town. On Thursday last they journeyed out to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Parnell, where a very pleasant evening was spent. Mr. Parnell won the gen's first prize for the evening while the honors for the ladies was carried off by Mrs. J. MacDonald, of Porcupine. Mrs. W. Raynor and Mr. Hannaley were each consoled with other prizes. The "eats" were dainty and abundant and after their trip out from here and their strenuous playing we hear that the members from South Porcupine did ample justice to them. There are about twenty members in this club and they have one social evening per week. The host and hostess for this week are Mr. and Mrs. H. Miller.
 Mr. Elwyn Jamieson late of Owen Sound, has opened a barbering establishment in the Strain Block. Mr. Jamieson purchased the equipment of the Belgian barber, who formerly had a stand in the Rich Block. He is also purchasing an up-to-date marcelling outfit and expects before long to give the town the service of a first-class beauty parlour. Mrs. Jamieson and three children are still in Owen Sound but expect to arrive here for Christmas.
 Chief McInnis and Provincial Officer Craik were in Cochrane Tuesday in their official capacity.
 Mrs. Robt. Bennett visited her husband in the Haileybury Hospital this week. Mr. Bennett is now making good progress towards recovery.
 The Opening Services of the Anglican Church will be held on Sunday, Nov. 29th. There will be three services during the day conducted by Archdeacon Woodall and Bishop Anderson, the morning service taking place at 11 a.m., a children's service and christening in the afternoon at two-thirty, and an evening service at 7.30 p.m. On Monday evening, Nov. 30th, the Women's Auxiliary are having a dinner and concert in the Masonic Hall, the dinner being served from six to eight, after which a fine programme has been prepared for presentation.
 Mrs. Wallace and Mrs. Wilson Lang of Timmins were guests at the home of Mrs. E. J. Rapsey this week. Mrs. Lang and Mrs. Rapsey were girlhood friends in Eastern Ontario but one became a Westerner and now after fourteen years they meet again in this Northland, where it seems as though the old adage was broken and that no longer "West is West and East is East and never the twain shall meet," but more often "Though West be West and East be East this Northland of our doth draw them all."
 On Saturday evening about twenty-five ladies gathered at the home of Mrs. F. C. Evans to say "Good-bye" to Mrs. W. G. A. Woods and wish her bon voyage to her new home in Toronto. During the evening Miss Carmel LaForest presided at the piano and entranced her hearers with the brilliancy and the variety of her musical repertoire. Just before lunch the friends of Mrs. Woods gathered around her and upon Mrs. A. Kincaid's reading the address, presented her with a handsome club bag. The address was bound with the colours of the Order of the Eastern Star, of which Mrs. Woods is a Past Worthy Matron, having been a much esteemed officer and charter member of Porcupine Chapter since its inauguration. The following is the address to which Mrs. Woods very feelingly replied:—
 "Dear Mrs. Woods:—A few of your friends have assembled here to-night to express their regrets at your departure, but we are not altogether inconsolable since Toronto is not far and we know the North will lure you back very soon again. We cannot let you go however without telling you that as a neighbour and a friend you shall be greatly missed. Your Christian charity, your kindness to the poor, in short your very goodness, has endeared you to us all, and these are the reasons we are loath to let you go. Our loss is Toronto's gain and particularly will your good mother benefit by your living there. Take this Club Bag as a small token of our affection and esteem and in memory ever keep a corner green for your old South Porcupine friends."

 Among those present were Mesdames W. W. Wilson, H. M. Wilson, D. McLellan, J. Ostrom, C. Morgan, A. Kincaid, M. Smith, T. J. Wright, E. Rapsey, D. Frood, S. Pearce, J. Herman, W. Fairhurst, C. McInnis, F. Dowzer, P. Michaud, and from Timmins—Mesdames G. Gauthier, S. Hardy, F. Hamilton and W. H. Phillips. After serving of a most delightful luncheon, dancing was enjoyed.
 On the same evening at a Smoker given in his honour by about twenty of his friends at the home of Mr. C. McInnis, Mr. W. G. A. Woods was also presented with a Club Bag and wished success and happiness in his new home and undertaking.
 Mr. and Mrs. Woods left on Monday for their home in Toronto.
 Don't forget to see "The Adventures of Grandpa," being put on by the Dramatic Club for the Anglican Church building fund. It is a real laugh-getter.
 The house on Connaught Hill formerly owned and occupied by Mr. W. G. A. Woods has been purchased by Mr. E. McEwen.
 The many friends in town of Miss Elda Dempsey of Cochrane will be pleased to know that she is now making splendid recovery after a seven weeks' siege of rheumatic fever. Miss Dempsey was a very popular visitor in town during the past summer when she spent some time with her sister, Miss Vera, our assistant postmistress.
 Mr. D. C. Fellowes, road inspector, left on Sunday for a month's holiday at his home in Toronto. He will then assume his duties at Kapuskasing, Ont.
 W. S. Mitchell, of Iroquois Falls, spent the week-end in town.
 Sheriff Mackay, of Cochrane spent last Saturday in town.
 C. Sackaberry spent a few days in town this week settling his affairs before leaving for his new position at Kapuskasing, Ont.
 Miss Vera Dempsey visited her parents in Cochrane over the week-end.
