

EVERYBODY SHOP EARLY

Just Three Weeks to Christmas

With only three weeks until Christmas, everybody should heed the call to "shop early."

For the ordinary customer, "shopping early" means better selection and more time for consideration in purchasing. It means better service and better satisfaction.

And the Merchants also should shop early!

Get that advertisement into The Advance right away. Don't put it off till the last minute.

Shop in your own home Town