TIMMINS IS FAMOUS FOR ITS DOGS, GOOD AND BAD

The following is from The St. Mary's Journal-Argus, St. Mary's Ont. "Timmins has gained quite a reputation whether enviable or otherwise, of being a regular 'dog town,' more dogs in Timmins than any other town the same size or larger, they say. Sleigh dogs are in the predominance, of course, but there are several purebred pedigreed dogs, prize winners in their class, which tend to bring the average up to a higher plane."

"CORNISH NIGHT" PROGRAM
PUBLISHED NEXT WEEK

Sunday evening, Dec. 20th, will be "Cornish Night" at the Band Concert in the Goldfields Theatre after the church services. Cornish Christmas carols will be one specially pleasing feature of the programme. Solos by talented Cornish singers will also be on the programme. In next week's issue of The Advance it is expected to publish the complete programme for the Band's "Cornish Night" on Dec. 20th.

FIFTH SUCCESSFUL BAND CONCERT OF THE SEASON

Good Attendance and Excellent Programme on Sunday Evening Last, after the Church

The Goldfields Theatre was well-filled on Sunday evening after the church services, for the fifth band concert of this season. The programme for the evening was as follows:—

March, "Loyal Hearts," by the Band.
Selections, "A Gaiety Girl," by the Timmins Citizens' Band.
Vocal solo, by Mr. Larkin.
Violin solo, by Mr. Morris Hyman.
Selection, "Lurline," by the Band.
Guitar and Mandolin duet by Bandsmen Carne and Poad.
Waltz, "Monastery Bells," by the Band.
Vocal solo, by Mr. Larkin.

Instrumental Quartette, "Winter Winds," by Bandsmen Lloyd, Poad, Murphy and Wolno.
Overture, "Norma," by the Band.
Gold Save the King.

The selections by the Band found favour as usual. The soloist of the evening, Mr. Larkin, proved specially popular, being enthusiastically recalled on both his appearances on the platform. His effective rendition of the selections given, and his fine voice, pleased all. The audience was especially appreciative of his rendition of "Mother Machree," and "Somewhere a Voice is Calling."

Another big hit of the evening was the violin playing of Mr. Morris Hyman. He gave classical and lighter popular selections with equal talent and he was given very marked appreciation from the audience for his gifted work on the violin. Mr. Ted Emery played the piano accompaniments for these numbers.

To judge from the insistent and continued applause, probably the most popular number on the programme was the guitar and mandolin duet by Bandsmen Carne and Poad. This unusually sweet music found special appreciation. Bandsmen Carne and Poad showed outstanding talent on these instruments and won very decided favour.

The Instrumental Quartette—Bandsmen Lloyd, Poad, Murphy and Wolno, also pleased the gathering, their well-rendered number winning deserved applause.

Announcement was made of the next Band Concert, in the Goldfields Theatre, after the church services on Sunday, Dec. 20th. This is to be a special Cornish Night, with Cornish music, Cornish carols, etc., featured.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS TO BE HERE CHRISTMAS WEEK

The management of the Goldfields Theatre have been fortunate in booking Cecil B. DeMill's mammoth production, "The Ten Commandments," considered to be the greatest motion picture success of recent times. This wonderful film will be here for four days during Christmas week, Dec. 23, 24, 25 and 26, showing matinees and evenings. This picture is not only specially appropriate for the holiday week, but it is also the greatest entertainment to be shown to the people of Timmins.
