Commencement Exercises of South End High School

Very Interesting and Enjoyable Evening's at South Porcupine on Friday and Saturday Last. Presentations to Popular Citizens Leaving South End. Other Items of Interest From South Porcupine Correspondent.

South Porcupine, Dec. 8th. Special to The Advance.

On the evening before her departure, about a dozen of the friends and neighbors of Mrs. Jas. Devine gathered at her home to wish her 'bon voyage' and also presented her with a hand-painted silk scarf and a pair of gloves. A very pleasant evening was spent and dainty refreshments were served.

The Five Hundred Club were entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. S. Sky on Thursday evening last. The prizes for the evening were won by Ladies:—Mrs. C. Munro and Mrs. Parnell. Gents:—Mr. Max Rosenthal and W. Raynor. There were sumptuous "eats" and a very jolly time was put in, the guests departing in the wee hours of morning and declaring Mr. and Mrs. Sky the most hospitable host and hostess.

On Friday and Saturday, Dec. 4th and 5th, the High School Commencement Exercises took place in the New School Hall, under the direction of the Misses V. and G. Snyder, Principal and Assistant in the High School. One of the out-standing features was the enjoyment and zest with which the pupils themselves entered into the high-class programme which they presented. The several choruses by both boys and girls were well carried through and each part showed careful and thorough training. The specialty dances were a most picturesque and pleasing innovation, the Indian Sun-dance, with its flash of colors in the vivid imagery of the Indian Costume, the Waves of Nurney, with the soft green of the Irish Isles in their quaint peasant dress, and the graceful movements of the dancing maidens, the picturesque Dutch dance in costume also, and the Sailors' Hornpipe, with its charm and grace, were all alike well-done and space would not permit to give each graceful lassie her due of praise. The club swinging by the boys was done with splendid rhythm and time. The play, "A Case of Suspension," was a most laughable affair and with the Professor, who was left suspended in midair in a large clothes basket while investigating a "feed," in the girls seminary and got investigated himself but felt himself growing young again when forced to join in the frolic, so must the audience have gone back a few years in their minds to happy school days. The valedictory address was read by Miss Petronella Smith, who reviewed the school-life since the introduction of a Continuation Class in South Porcupine and closed her remarks with some very clever and original poetry in the form of a parody of the teachers who had been here, and some very well-merited praise for the teachers now in charge of our Continuation Class. Much credit is due to the Misses Snyder for the splendid training the children showed and also for the strong spirit of "camaraderie" that is so evident among the pupils. We wish them all success in their work through the coming term.

On Saturday evening the staff of Sky Bros. and their friends met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Sky to say good-bye to one of their number, Miss Rosemary Devine. Mr. and Mrs. Sky presented Rosemary with a handsome leather-lined club bag while on behalf of the staff she was given a leather-lined hat-box. A very pleasant evening was spent in dancing and games. Miss Devine has grown into young womanhood from childhood here and has made herself beloved by all, by the courtesy and charm of manner which she had for everyone, whether young or old, rich or poor.

PLEASANT EVENING AT HOLLINGER HALL MONDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Jardine Entertain Friends on Occasion of Son's Seventeenth Birthday

On Monday of this week a particularly pleasing event was celebrated in the Hollinger Recreation Hall, when Mr. and Mrs. Jardine celebrated the 17th birthday of their son, Ross. The evening opened with several boxing bouts, the first one of four 3-minute rounds between Hefty Trumble and M. Scharet, in which both these youngsters showed particular skill in the manly art of self defence. The second bout was the star show of boxing exhibit being a match between Doug Johnson, of the Holly Rec. and John Carson of the Porcupine District Athletic Club. The match caused keen discussion on the merits of both boxers, who are so evenly matched that it is difficult to tell who is the better boxer, and this bout was one of, if not the finest yet seen in Timmins. Bob Walsh and Dave Holland were the next on the carpet and gave the audience an exciting time with a very clever match of four 3-minute rounds. Last but not least, an exhibition match between Arthur Lennard, Mr. Jardine's assistant and boxing trainer, who was formerly champion welter-weight of the North of England, boxing with Mr. LaPorte also of the Holly Rec, and these two fine exponents of the game gave a magnificent exhibition of how it should be done.

The boxing over, the company were entertained by a trio of first-class musicians, until refreshments were served, at which a fine birthday cake of three tiers was cut and distributed by Ross to his guests.

Mr. Downey gave a song and musical monologue much appreciated, afterwards followed by Mr. John Liddle who has a fine baritone voice, both soloists being very ably accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Chittenden.

After dancing, which was thoroughly enjoyed by all, Mr. Duxfield, the President of the P. D. F. L., in a pleasing speech congratulated Mr. and Mrs. Jardine and their son on the happy occasion, Mr. Downey on their behalf made a humorous and pleasing reply. Amongst the guests present were:—Mr. and Mrs. Duxfield and Mr. Hitt, of Schumacher, Mr. John Liddle, of the Town A. Team, Mr. and Mrs. Wheeler, of the Laneashire Club and Mr. and Mrs. Chittenden of the Holly Rec and Ramblers.

Mr. Jardine the popular manager of the Holly Recreation Club, can be congratulated on the fine entertainment put on for his guests and also on his fine work he and his assistant, Mr. Lennard, are doing, in the interests of sport in Timmins.

The Wife: Hubby, what kept you out so late last night?

Hubby (intoxicated) I've (hic) been out with a Chiffonier.

The Wife: Chiffonier, why you don't know what you are talking about. A chiffonier is a swell little dresser.

Hubby: Yes, that's her.
