We offer a wide range of carefully chosen gift goods in addition to our regular lines and invite you to look them over, confident that you will find the prices entirely to suit you, in many cases surprisingly low.

TWO points in the policy of these stores we want to emphasize. The first, you can have your money back or your goods exchanged without question or argument, if in any way unsatisfactory to you. You are the judge. This applies to all lines, except those few which, for hygienic reasons, and for your protection cannot be exchanged if worn. The other point is, goods we offer you are bought for value and quality, and this does not by any means mean high prices. "We buy no seconds, so have none for sale."
