

Big Billiard Tournament In Progress at the Dome Hall

List of Contestants for the First Round. Annual Inspection of Dome Division of St. John's Ambulance Brigade. Other Sprays of "Dome Foam."

Dome Mines, Dec. 16th, 1925. Special to The Advance.

The big billiard tournament at the Recreation Hall is away to a good start. These contests will be worth seeing as the cream of the cue artists are entered. The following are the contestants for the first round:—A. Michaelson vs. Ed. Hawkins; M. Stevens vs. P. Murphy; W. Walker vs. John Moroz (Maggie); N. Spiers vs. S. Harrower; G. Williams vs. A. Fiddick; W. Sharpe vs. J. Robertson; F. Hitt vs. Dr. Kirkup; G. Honer vs. R. Harrower; A. Scott vs. H. Ewart; A. Yeomans vs. C. Smith; M. Tremelling vs. K. Manson; C. Jago vs. C. V. Webster; Geo. Mason vs. P. J. Andrew; G. Swift vs. R. Wallace.

Mr. C. E. Rogers, manager of the Sylvanite Mine, Kirkland Lake was a visitor to the Dome on Tuesday. He is the northern representative of the Oliver Filter Co., of New York. Mr. Rogers is well and favourably known here by the old timers, having held a responsible position here a few years ago.

Mrs. D. G. Wright and her mother, Mrs. Hughes, left on Monday for their former home in Kingston, Ont.

The annual inspection of the Dome Division of the St. John's Ambulance Brigade was held on Tuesday evening. Captain Dehney, Ontario Supt., with headquarters at Toronto being the inspecting officer. There was a fair turn-out and after an exhibition of stretcher drill which was complimented by the Captain, a talk on the welfare of the Division was indulged in and without a doubt the visit will encourage the members to carry on with their honourable aspirations to become fully competent First Aiders, second to none.

Mr. Dugan, northern representative of the American Cyanide Company, was a business visitor to the Dome on Monday.

Mrs. E. Lightbody's mother, Mrs. Rae, from Saskatchewan, is paying an extended visit over the winter months at her daughter's residence at the Dome.

Mrs. McPhail, West Dome Lake, has completely recovered from her recent illness. We are glad to see her out and around again.

Mr. J. J. Jordan has recently bought one of the most modern styles in a radio receiver; no batteries to run down; and we can look for all D.X. records to be broken.

Mr. Vic. James is back in Camp after an extended business trip.

The Saturday evening Socials at the School are proving very popular. Several of the young men on the property are tripping the light fantastic toe, and before long will be experts.

Did you hear that one about Charley Hoekens demanding a pass from the Mining Inspector before he would permit him on the cage? It shows that C. A. was right on the job, and maybe the Inspector was just trying him out.

Mr. W. F. Taylor, Mine Shift Boss, is taking his vacation and Mr. W. Kellogg is promoted to Shift Boss. Congratulations, Bill.

CHRISTMAS TREE EVENT AT A.S.D. BIG SUCCESS

One of the Best Nights Yet at Wednesday's Meeting. Next on December 30th.

As a successful evening the weekly dance of the A. S. D. Club held last night in the Oddfellows' Hall stands supreme. There was a large attendance, and every member present entered into the spirit of the evening in a manner which contributed much to making the event stand by itself as one of the specially happy evenings spent by the Club.

The occasion was the annual Christmas Tree of the A. S. D. Club. Last week the names of the members were drawn, this gift not to exceed fifteen cents in value. A tree was erected in a corner of the hall, and at eleven thirty Santa Claus in a red suit entered the hall in an improvised Sedan chair, and proceeded to distribute the prizes for the members, picking on "Slim" Fraser and Maurice Belanger as the holders of the most notable prizes, in fact "Slim's" appreciation of his gift at a previous Christmas Tree caused Santa to bring him a repeat last night. After the distribution of the prizes and the disappearance of Santa, an improvised parade was held, which ended in a snappy fox-trot. Mr. N. J. Leamen, in regulation uniform took the place of the genial St. Nick, and a better impersonator could not be found.

The only special dances held during the evening were two Paul Jones, these as usual making a decided hit. Mrs. N. J. Leamen and Miss Mary Boyd looked after the serving of the refreshments, these being served before the entry of Santa Claus. The A. S. D. Club Orchestra provided the best of good music for the evening. "Ted" Whaley and his three assistants deserve credit for their part in making the evening the success it was.

The Committee in charge of the Annual Christmas Tree, and those to whom special mention is due for the success of the evening were Misses Nellie Studor and Mary Boyd and Messrs Harold Shantz and A. W. Pickering their only regret being that they had not combined a juvenile night with the Christmas Tree.

Next Wednesday evening the Club will not hold the usual dance. The Executive felt that the nearness to Christmas, and the fact that large numbers of the members will be away for the holiday season, or working that night, that to postpone the evening would be the best plan. All members are requested to remember that there will be no A. S. D. dance next Wednesday evening.

On December 30th the special event of the evening will be a Resolution Night. Any members who has an original resolution should hand it in to one of the Committee in charge of this evening's entertainment. Though a programme has not been completed, Resolution Night is sure to be a great success. For the convenience of the members who have some particular resolution they wish handed in, the Committee in charge of the dance on December 30th is Mrs. E. L. Urquhart, Messrs J. Jacobs, C. G. Pirie and E. L. Urquhart.

TIMMINS CURLING CUP COMPETITION NOW GOING

Interest in Curling This Season Even Exceeding the Enthusiasm Shown Last Season.

The curling season is away to a good start this year. The enthusiasm shown by local curlers last winter has nothing on that shown so far this year. Men who never threw a stone last season are to the fore this year, and are showing the same spirit which characterized those who swept their first rock down the ice of the Timmins Rink last winter. The ice is in good shape and the opening matches of the Timmins Cup competition which were played last week showed that the newcomers to the game this winter, show promise to excel those who made their initial bow last season.

The following are the scores in the Timmins Cup competition, up to and including, Tuesday night of this week. This competition is still on, and will be concluded next week.

Thursday:—
Emery won from Ramsay, 9 to 5.
Treleven won from Ferland, 11 to 10
Wylie won from Marshall, 13 to 3.
Cuthbertson from Williams, 10 to 6.
Dr. Aiken won from L. Walker, 11 to 6
Dr. Porter won from Prout, 16 to 2.

Friday:—
Solomon won from Black, 14
Caldbeck won from Kehoe, 9
Lang won from H. N. Jackson, by default.
Drew won from Gordon, 11
S. T. Walker won from Chenier, 12
A. Lake won from Francis, 12
Grasset won from Murdock, 9
McCracken won from Kenning, 8.

Monday:—
Langdon won from Cadman, 8 to 7
Drew won from Murdock, 12 to 9
Solomon won from McCracken, 11 to 9
Todd won from Dr. Porter, 8 to 5

H. Jackson won from Chenier, 10 to 9

TOM MIX AS DICK TURPIN AT OLD EMPIRE, NEXT WEEK.

Fox Film Corporation promises rare entertainment at the Old Empire Theatre next week when the special production, "Dick Turpin," will be shown. This picture is a picturization of the thrilling life of the celebrated English highway robber hero with Tom Mix in the title role.

Dick Turpin was the original Anglo-Saxon devil-may-care horseback rider and the association between he and his peerless mare, Black Bess, is comparable to that existing between Tom Mix and his wonder horse, "Tony." For this reason, though the picture might be called a "costume" picture and not the kind usually associated with the name Tom Mix, the followers of this dashing Western star will see him at his best, performing marvelous feats of horsemanship in eluding the law officers of England of 175 years ago.

"Dick Turpin" is the most expensive production in which Tom Mix has ever appeared and it will win him many new friends here.

ST. MATTHEW'S SOCIAL CLUB ENJOY SLEIGH RIDE.

Fifty members, a perfect evening and three good teams from Mattagami Joe were the principals of a splendid "sleigh ride," held by the club on the 15th, every rider enjoying and voting it a success.

A start was made from the church at 8.15 p.m., the party travelling through Schumacher to four or five miles beyond and returning about 10.15 p.m. to refreshments and dancing.

Many members left the sleighs by other methods than voluntary, one gentleman going for a walk and a run instead of a ride, but he was not Scotch and did not have his money refunded.

Messrs Sinclair and Forrester, assisted by Mrs. Crossland and Miss Jones, had prepared a very inviting table, which was soon laid bare.

While the club is only three months old, it has had some successful meetings and it is hoped that every member will be on hand to welcome 1926 in a fitting manner and excel all previous efforts, the next meeting taking place on Tuesday, January 5th at 8.00 p.m.

The programme will be announced in next week's paper.

The Boys' Parliament of Ontario will open on Dec. 28th at Toronto, with Master Roy Hardy as the Member from this district.
