It Took 30 Minutes Overtime To Settle Thursday's Game

Timmins Had the Edge on the Play Practically Throughout, but the Falls Edged Out in the Last Period of Overtime the Score being 4 to 3. One of the Best Hockey Matches Ever Seen Here. Everybody Delighted with the Work of the Timmins Lads.

There was a big attendance at the rink last Thursday for the second match in the N. O. H. A. Junior series and the first to be played here. There were a couple of hundred fans over from Iroquois Falls by special train for the event. The game played was worth the good attendance and more. Indeed, one old-time hockey fan who has not missed a single game for years, described Thursday's match as the best he had seen in Timmins. Certainly, it was lively hockey and mighty interesting and thrilling from the spectators' viewpoint.

Timmins showed greatly improved form over the game at the Falls. Indeed, one would hardly recognize it as the same team, especially in the second, third and overtime periods. While the Falls won the decision, 4 to 3, nevertheless it was really Timmins game. The Falls supporters recognized this and were generous in their praise of the good work of the Timmins team. The referee failed to give satisfaction in the first period, giving Timmins apparently the worst of it in penalties and offsides, but in the balance of the game little fault could fairly be found with his work. Just why he should centre on Greco, a clean little player, puzzled many, but as Greco played the game like a good little sport, it all worked out all right.

The Timmins team certainly put up a great old battle. There was naturally disappointment that they did not win, after playing so well. But the boys want to note and remember this: that the crowd in general was just as pleased with them as if they had won. The game's the thing, and one team has to lose. When the boys put up hockey like they did Thursday night, giving all they have, and working faithfully every minute, they can be assured that, win or lose, everybody's behind them.

The following is a summary of the match:

The line-up:
Referee—Webb Bousquet, Iroquois Falls.

First period—Timmins broke away at the face-off. Ganton worked down and passed to Lawrence who skated too far and missed a good chance. The Falls forward line came down in nice combination only to have Levine say. Duffy pressed and passed to Lever who was in good position but shot wide. Couture grabbed the puck and showed some speed, going right through the Falls whole team, and sending in a fine shot, which Mills turned aside. Fillman came back with Lever and Duffy. Greco intercepted the pass and went up and shot from outside the defence. Mills had no difficulty in stopping. Timmins missed a chance here to score as Ganton was unmarked and ready for a pass. Rowan was checked by Ganton who sent in a hot shot that Mills saved. Penalties were being handed the Timmins team, though the fans in most cases could not understand why, and at the same time tripping and interference on the part of the Falls team did not seem to be noted. Rowan and McIntyre pulled off a nice combined attack, getting clean through, but Levine saved what looked like a sure goal. Timmins now playing one man shy, Boyd and Lawrence went down. Boyd stickhandled his way through and passed to Lawrence who scored on a nice shot. The Falls came right back with a combined rush. Levine again saved. Mills then had a trying time and had Timmins played combination they might have had a good lead. Rowan relieved and came down. Levine saved. The Falls were playing a fine combination game but found the Timmins defence much improved from the previous game at the Falls, except on one occasion when Fillman rushed down and the defence stepped aside and let him skate in on Levine to score. Ganton and Charlebois both tried out Mills but they could not get the puck in. The Falls came right back. Rowan had a good chance, if he had passed the puck to Lever who was in front of the net, but was content to shoot himself, which Levine saved. The Falls pressed hard. Lever came down and passed to Duffy, who was kept at the boards, passing it back to Lever (who was away off-side) but scored. Timmins tried again, but could not break through the defence. Rowan stickhandled his way down and scored on a good shot, at the gong Greco shot which Mills saved Falls 3—Timmins 1.

The second period was much better hockey, Timmins getting down to combination in better form. There were end-to-end rushes, Levine getting the first shot to clear. At the other end Ganton went across the ice to check Fillman and fell before reaching the man and was promptly given a term in prison for it. While Ganton was off Charlebois got the puck and sent in a nice shot which was diverted into the corner of the net off Fillman's stick. Timmins were now having all the play. Lawrence missed a good chance by being a little too slow in shooting. Timmins tried a three-man combination and got through. Charlebois had the goal at his mercy but passed the puck to Lawrence who was closely watched. McIntyre went down with Lever but were checked by Greco, who tried to break through the Falls defence but was sandwiched, both men having their sticks high, but the referee allowed this to pass. Couture came down and passed out to Boyd who went down the boards and passed the puck right in front of the goal but no one was there to slam it in. The period ended Falls 3—Timmins 2.

The third spasm was a humdinger. Ganton came down. Lever checked; Ganton tried to regain and Lever threatened to fight. Ganton put up his hand to guard himself, but the referee banished them both. Charlebois followed these two. Falls now had a chance to increase their score, but they could not break down the Timmins defence. Couture came down and shot. Lawrence notched the rebound in and evened up in spite of the two men being off. There was a real battle for supremacy, the game being very fast but neither side could beat the goalies and the gong went, and overtime had to be played.

The first spasm was fast and furious. Mills had three shots to save right off and was lucky in saving the last one from Lawrence. Levine had the next on him from Duffy and cleared. Charlebois went down and sent in a terrific shot which went over the net. Rowan broke away. Levine cleared. Lawrence missed a good chance at the gang for a change over. Greco got the puck and skated right through and shot wide when he only had Mills to pass. He again got through but overskated the puck and on his third trip he was laid out.

Second spasm:—Levine saves close one. Greco went down and passed; no one there to take it. Lever came down but shot wide. Greco went down with Charlebois, the pass being offside. Duffy and McIntyre have a try. Mac missed the net. Greco again went down and went right through only to have Mills rob him with a beautiful save. Charlebois was working hard back checking all over the ice which broke up the combination plays of the Falls.
Charlebois went down and shot but Mills was playing a great game in goal and had some luck with him to help things out. Couture got through again. Mills saved. Levine cleared from McIntyre and Mills saved from Lawrence at the gong.

Third and last spasm:—McIntyre and Lever came down; Greco checked and goes down and was in front of Mills, about to shoot when Duffy tripped him up and goes off. Rowan took a fancy to a long high shot and sent it over and put a horse-shoe on it; the puck skimmed through the air and glanced off Levine's arm into the net for the winning goal. From now on Timmins continually bombarded Mills, while Levine looked on. This went on for the last seven minutes and the Falls net had horse-shoes strung all round it. Mills had to retire for a few minutes for stopping the puck with his face. He gamely came on again to finish up. The gong rang exactly at 12 midnight.

The Falls team are a well-balanced team and play a very good game.

They have a goalie with both unusual skill and the best of luck.
Timmins team showed up well. Every man on the team played his best, and that best, mighty good.
One shooting feature was in the overtime period when Charlebois shot the puck up near the roof through a window and clean onto the street for a home run.

RESERVED SEATS HERE FOR REMAINDER OF HOCKEY

Reserved seats will be obtainable for the remainder of the hockey matches to be held in the Timmins Rink in the N. O. H. A. Junior series. The general public will welcome this additional accommodation. The reserved seat tickets may be obtained at Meyer's Drug Store.

PET BEAR CUB BITES
THE HAND OF ITS OWNER

Last week while Mr. Ben Jacobs was changing the collar on the young pet bear cub that he has had for some months, the animal without the slightest warning made a sudden grab at Ben's hand and inflicted a nasty and painful bite that lacerated the palm and back of the hand. The bear cub has been kept in the yard at the rear of the store and being teased on occasion by boys and others has perhaps lost its natural good temper. In any case, last week it snapped the hand that has fed it, thus showing too much human tendency and forsaking the natural attributes of the bear. While the injury is a painful one, no serious results are anticipated from the injury to Mr. Jacobs's hand, the injured member making good progress to recovery.

A swelling that never hurts is the bump of good nature.
