ANOTHER PLEASING BAND CONCERT LAST SUNDAY

"Juvenile Night" Programme Delights Crowded House. Violin Selections Were Outstanding Numbers.

The "Juvenile Night" Programme at the Band concert on Sunday evening in the Goldfields Theatre after the church services won very high compliment from the large crowd present. The theatre was filled to the doors for the occasion and the quiet attention given throughout and the hearty appreciation shown for each and every number indicated the pleasure given by the excellent programme. On account of the length of the programme, it was specially asked that no encores be insisted upon, and the audience very kindly assisted by acceding to this request. There were two or three times, however, where the audience was very naturally and reasonably tempted to over-ride the rule. Among these special numbers were the solos by Master W. Shewan, the violin selection by Master Jack Neilson and the first number by the Violin Quartette. As the Violin Quartette was on the programme for a second number, and as Master Jack Neilson played lead in the Quartette, and as Master W. Shewan also kindly took the place of another artist on the programme who was unable to be present, the audience had the pleasure of hearing its particular favorites again. As a matter of fact, however, it is likely that each and every item would have been encored under ordinary circumstances.

In pianoforte music two very talented young ladies gave selections in very gifted way. As the first young artist appearing on the programme, Miss Berthe Boutin set a very high standard of musical ability, and won very sincere appreciation for her gifted work as a pianist. The other soloist on the piano, Miss Katz, showed decided talent and her selection was well given and pleased all.

Master Vernier Wallingford made one of the hits of the evening with his humorous song. It was a big hall for so small a lad, but the audience gave the most attentive hearing, and the little lad bravely carried his solo through with expression and effectiveness. Another lighter selection was the sketch by Misses Florence Gette and Anita Groulx, the sketch including dialogue and song. The girls found the big audience somewhat

$5 in Gold for Best Looking Outfit in Boys' Dog Race

Mr. B. Bissonette Offers Special for Boys. Dogs in Freight Race to Carry 100 lbs. per dog. Committee Further Perfects Arrangements for the Porcupine Dog Race and Carnival on Friday, March 12th.

There was another meeting of the Porcupine Dog Race Committee on Friday evening last, G. A. Macdonald taking the chair in the absence of the Mayor, Dr. McInnis. Progress was made in the arrangements for the big annual dog race and carnival to be held on March 12th.

An interesting and pleasing feature of the meeting was the donation by Mr. B. Bissonette, of a $5 gold piece to be awarded to the best-looking outfit among the entries in the Boys' Race. This, of course, is in addition to the usual prizes and will be given irrespective of whether the outfit wins a place or not.

It was decided to have the entries for the Boys' dog race all made on the Wednesday before the race so as to give opportunity for the arrangement of prizes.

After some discussion, it was moved by Mr. Trofford and seconded by Mr. Bissonette that in the freight race the weight to be carried be 100 lbs. for each dog. This was adopted. In previous years the amount that could be carried was limited to not more than 100 lbs. per dog, but drivers could take less if they so wished.

awe-inspiring, but the number won its quota of applause.

The attractive solo, "Oh, How I Miss You," given with talent and noteworthy expressiveness, by Master W. Shewan, delighted the audience, and his second number later in the evening was another special favorite with the audience on the merit of its musical talent and effective interpretation.

In violin music alone the audience will enthusiastically agree that they had "more than their money's worth." Master Sam Katz showed decided talent as a violinist and his well given selection was heartily approved. The wonderful playing of Master Jack Neilson was one of the big features of the evening. Music-lovers will be talking for some time of this gifted lad's sympathetic and unusually skilled presentation of the Intermezzo from Cavalleria Rusticana. The audience also found special de-

The standing of the contestants was figured out by taking the proportion of time, number of dogs and amount of weight. This year it will not be necessary to figure the weight carried per dog as each dog will carry the same weight—100 lbs.

On motion of Mrs. M. MacMillan, seconded by Mr. Trofford, the sale of tags for the day's event was placed in charge of Mrs. J. A. McInnis, power being given for her to add to her committee as she might see fit. On motion of the same two members, the meeting decided to place the price of the tags at 25c. each, while 50c. admission will be charged for the carnival event at the rink in the evening. A commission of 10 per cent. will be given to the young ladies selling the tags, with a special prize for the one selling the most.

Mr. Bissonette agreed to see that the arrows marking the course for the main race were put in place at once.

On motion, the meeting adjourned to meet again on Monday evening, March 8th, at 8 o'clock in the Council Chamber, to complete the final arrangements for the big event on March 12th.

light in the talented work of the Violin Quartette. "Pretty Flowers," the first number by this quartette won very sincere appreciation on genuine merit, and their second number, a waltz of very appealing quality, was equally well given and appreciated. This violin quartette includes Miss Pirtessalo, Master Jack Neilson, Master Harold Craig and Mr. Burton Holland. Miss Dorothy Porter's capable work as accompanist on the piano added to the effectiveness of these selections.

Mr. Ted Emery assisted materially in the success of the vocal numbers by his effective accompaniments on the piano.

The Timmins Citizens Band added its share of good music to the pleasing programme. The cornet solos by Bandsman Master Carl Johns were noteworthy numbers on the list of selections. His first cornet solo was creditably given, while his second number, "The Flight of Ages," was still more pleasing and effective. There were four numbers by the Band, all well given and appreciated by music-lovers. Two marches, "Deeds of Daring," and "Carry On," made fitting opening and closing selections for the evening's programme. The selection, "Oberon," was particularly well presented and won very general favour. The waltz number, "Vanity Fair," was another attractive selection effectively given.

Three men, garbed in the full regalia of the Ku Klux Klan walked into a church at Sault Ste. Marie recently, deposited $5.00 on the collection plate, and then walked out again. This would soon popularize the K. K. K. with church people, if the K. K. K. never did anything worse than this.
