Pile Sufferers

Can You Answer These Questions?
Do you know why ointments do not give you quick and lasting relief?
Why cutting and operations fail?
Do you know the cause of piles is internal?
That there is a stagnation of blood
in the lower bowel?
Do you know that there is a harmless internal remedy discovered by Dr.
Leonhardt and known as HEM-ROID, now sold by Moiesley and Ball and druggists everywhere, that is guaranteed?
HEM-ROID banishes piles by removing the cause, by freeing blood circulation in the lower bowel. This simple home treatment has an almost unbelievable record for sure, safe and lasting relief to thousands of pile sufferers, and saves the needless pain and expense of an operation.
Don't delay. Try HEM-ROID today. It will do the same for you.

At all times we endeavour to deport

Two of English Cup Final Players on Team Coming

Jack Was the Only Man to Score in Big Game at Wembley
Last Week. Joe Smith, Captain of the Bolton Team,
Will Also be on the English Touring Football Team
Here on July 7th.

Last week Bolton Wanderers won the English Football Association cup at the Wembley Stadium, defeating Manchester City by one goal to nil. The winning goal was scored by Jack after the second half had been in progress 32 minutes. There was an attendance of around 100,000 at the match. The King presented the cup to the winners amid tremendous enthusiasm.

Jack, the hero of the game, will be on the touring English F.A. Team to visit Timmins on July 7th on the tour of Canada. Joe Smith, the captain of the Bolton Wanderers, will also be on the touring English team.

Mr. J. A. H. Catton ("Tityrus"), for twenty-five years editor of The Athletic News, has written a series of articles on the team which has been selected by the English F.A. to tour Canada, the team holding the first match at Montreal on May 24th, and scheduled for Timmins on July 7th. These articles will appear in The Advance, through the courtesy of the Dominion Football Association.

Commenting on the players after the selection was made public, Mr. Catton said:—

"The Football Association have been able to arrange for a very fine party of players to visit the Canadians. It is not an exaggeration to say that this is the strongest side that has ever been selected to visit any distant part of the British Empire and the Dominion of Canada may count itself fortunate to get a combination that is almost of full international strength. Of the eighteen men chosen for this tour no fewer than nine have had the honor of playing for England so that the Clubs and players of Canada should be presented with a series of object lessons that must tend to develop the cult of the game of soccer from Montreal to Vancouver. The defence is formidable, the half-backs astute and tireless and the attack positively brilliant. It is easy to construct a team of the highest quality thus:—Sewell (goal), Barkas, Keeping (backs), Magee, Heales, Harkus (half-backs), Carr, Jack, Rawlings, Smith and Tunstall. Save for Barkas, Keeping and Harkus, every man carries the international stamp and of the others Barkas has assisted Huddersfield to win the League Championship. Keeping is the finest young back in England and Harkus is clever and versatile."

His review of Jack, the hero of last week's English cup final, is as follows:—

"DAVID BONE NIGHTINGALE JACK (INSIDE RIGHT)—This is the usual club position of David Jack but he can and has taken all the three inside places among the forwards. The son of Bob Jack, the present manager of Plymouth Argyle, David was born in Bolton in days when his father was outside left for the Bolton Wanderers. All Mr. Jack's boys are footballers but David has been the most successful. Although now only 26 years old he has been playing football for eleven years being, of course, a lad in the ranks of the Plymouth team. He was not forced at this age especially as he was a student for the Civil Service. When war came he entered the Navy and was made a Writer. There were Army and Navy Service matches and young Jack was always the best forward in such games when he scored freely. Being demobilised he signed professional forms for Plymouth but in December 1921 he was transferred to Bolton Wanderers and he has shared in all this club's post-war successes. Thus he was one of the eleven who won the Association Cup in 1923 while in 1924 Jack and Butler, the Wanderers right wing, were chosen bodily to play for England against Scotland. Thus the highest honors in the game have fallen to David Jack, who is a really clever player with a swerving run, a most deceptive feint, fine speed, accurate passing and good marksmanship. He has long legs and no one ever knows the extent of his reach. He takes rank as among the very best forwards in the country. Of a quiet and happy disposition, he has an excellent reputation in social circles. 5 ft. 11 ins., 157 lbs."

Of Joseph Smith, captain of the Bolton team, who will be with the touring team, Mr. Catton says:—

"JOSEPH SMITH (INSIDE LEFT)—One of the most famous players the game has ever known. After completing eighteen seasons of first class football he is so sprightly and such a master of tactics that there is no anxiety about his fitness for this Canadian tour. It may be recalled that he was the Captain of the team which the Football Association sent to South Africa in 1920. There could be no greater tribute to "Joe" Smith, as he is universally called, than that he gained the deep respect of such a rigid disciplinarian as the late Mr. John Lewis, who was one of the managers of that trip. Born at Dudley, Staffordshire, several years ago Smith began to make his reputation with the "Newcastle P.S.A." in the North Staffordshire League. He removed to Bolton as an outside left and made his debut as one of the Wanderers at West Bromwich on April 12th, 1909. He has scored about 260 goals in League matches only for Bolton Wanderers, and with 38 in 1920-21 equalled the record of Bert Freeman, of Everton, for the premier league. He has twice taken his club into the final tie for the Association Cup since the war. We say "he" because "Joe" Smith is the "father" and the Captain of the Wanderers. There have been few captains as far seeing and as quick in decisions as this trimly built man of 5 ft. 7 1/2 ins., who has got his weight down to 161 lbs., after reducing himself rather over a stone since 1923 without loss of strength. A personality and a worker all the time Canada may consider herself fortunate to see him for he is a model player—always effective without unnecessary frills."

Under the provisions of The Ontario Companies Act, The Citizens' Athletic Club of Ansonville hereby gives public notice that it has sanctioned a by-law for the purpose of changing the location of its Head Office, of which the following is a true copy.
