SHOULD HAVE BROUGHT HIS WIFE TO TIMMINS BEFORE

Judging from the experience of Pete Kuzman, men moving from Sudbury to Timmins would do well to bring their wives along with them. At any rate it would appear that Sudbury is not a good place to leave a woman. The sad story of Pete Kuzman and his wife and another man is thus told by The Sudbury Star in its last issue:—

"Returning late Wednesday night to his home in Creighton Mine, Pete Kuzman, who had been absent in Timmins since Christmas, found the doors of the house locked. Failing to rouse the inmates he forced an entrance, burst in the door of what had formerly been his room, and discovered it occupied by his wife and Mike Ochas, a boarder, whom he proceeded to beat up with a billy. As a result, Pete was hailed before Magistrate Stoddart Thursday and fined $150 and costs or six months for assault with intent to do bodily harm. Mike had received injuries to his head which necessitated twenty-one stitches to close.

"Cross-examined by G. M. Miller, his counsel, Ochas admitted that the door of the room was locked and that he and Mrs. Kuzman were occupants of the room at the time. Kuzman said Ochas had attacked him with a knife and that the billy was used by Mrs. Kuzman to assist Ochas. In the struggle which followed, Kuzman testified that he had taken the billy from Ochas and hit him over the head.

"Mrs. Kuzman said her husband had been absent in Timmins since Christmas and during that time had sent her no money for support. She had been forced to open a lodging house in order to keep herself and children. Kuzman denied this, saying he had left $350 to keep her until March when he had intended coming home, selling the house and moving to Timmins. He had received only one letter from her since Christmas. He had not been aware of the conditions existing between his wife and Ochas until his arrival that night."

Tom—"I thought Everett had enough money to last a lifetime?"
Henry—"So he had, but he led a double life."—Selected.

GRAND BALL BY LOCAL MUSICIANS FOR THE V.O.N.

The Grand Ball, planned by the Musicians of the Camp, with the whole proceeds to be given to the V. O.N. Fund, will be held on Wednesday evening, June 23rd, in the McIntyre Hall, Schumacher. The event is being held in the McIntyre Hall, because this is the largest and best available for so big an event. There will be an orchestra of 14 pieces and everything else will be on the same impressive scale. It is expected to make the Musicians' Ball the biggest and best ever held in the camp.

NEW MINING DISTRICT NEAR TO BULL DOG LAKE

A despatch from Toronto this week says:—

"Prospectors from the Red Lake district and from the Lake Winnipeg district are converging upon a little-explored territory which lies to the east of the boundary line between Manitoba and Ontario and south-east of the Bulldog Lake area, according to reports received here.

"Capt. Evans-Atkinson, a British mining expert, has arrived here after an eventful three months' exploration trip into the district. He reports good finds of gold in the district, and a rush of prospectors from the Manitoba line and the Red Lake area. He reports the discovery of a 20-foot vein in width, and crude methods of testing the ore showed good values.

"Going into the unexplored country in March, Capt. Evans-Atkinson experienced many hardships on the trail, and on his return journey he travelled two days and nights continuously without food in order to reach the railroad.

DEATH ON SUNDAY OF DAN GREEN, SCHUMACHER

After a long and painful illness, Dan Green passed peacefully away on Sunday last. For some time past he had suffered from spinal meningitis, and despite the most careful attention and the best medical skill, nothing could be done to save the young man's life. At the time of death, the late Dan Green was 22 years and 3 months old. He was a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Green, of Schumacher, and had been in this camp about a year and a half coming here with the family from Ramore, where they spent three years. Previous to going to Ramore, the family had lived at Medicine Hat, Alberta.

In addition to the bereaved parents, two brothers and four sisters survive, and to these sorrowing relatives the deepest sympathy of all will go out.

The funeral took place yesterday (Wednesday) afternoon, interment being made at Timmins cemetery.

The late Dan Green was a young man of high character and pleasant disposition, and during his residence here made wide circles of friends who sorrow now and sympathize with the bereaved family and friends in the loss sustained by the death of this young man.

Following the recent visit to Timmins of Commander Graves, R.D., R. N.R., representative of the Navy League of Canada, it was decided to again start a branch of the Sea Cadets in Timmins. Any boy between the ages of 13 and 18 who is interested in the Sea Cadets should send his address on a stamped envelope to Harry Nichols, 51 Fifth avenue, Timmins.

W. RAYCROFT THE NEW SPEED COP FOR TIMMINS

The New Ontario Garage and Machine Shop last week delivered the motor cycle ordered by the Town Council. The motor cycle was tried out and is evidently a good one. It is to be used in effort to stop speeding and other breaches of the traffic and highway regulations. This week Mr. W. Raycroft, in uniform, was on the job as the "speed cop." Mr. Raycroft has had previous police experience, having been on the Tisdale force at Schumacher and Moneta.

WANTED CERTIFICATE THAT HE WAS ARRESTED.

The police are often asked for receipts for bail money and for other documents that they do not give. But the Port Arthur police a week or so ago had a new one. A Russian had been arrested on a charge of vagrancy and was ordered to leave the city within twenty-four hours. He asked for a certificate that he had been duly arrested.

"A certificate or arrest?" asked the surprised desk sergeant.

"Sure," said the vag, "a piece of paper signed to show that I've been arrested so as to show my society in Russia."

"There are hundreds of societies in Russia; just which one do you mean?"

"The Bolsheviks. I belong to the Third Internationale and if I get a certificate of arrest I can make them pay my moving expenses," was the reply.

"Just keeping on a-moving while the moving is good," said the sergeant, adding that no certificates of arrest were being issued.

Surely no police department in Canada will help along the Bolsheviks by issuing any such arrest certificates. If the Third Internationale is paying its members in Canada for being arrested, the authorities here should see, so far as possible, that the members in Canada really earn the money, but, of course, not assist them in any way to collect.

Just the right mixture of inspiration and perspiration will accomplish much.

STOLLONI SENTENCED TO LONG TERM IMPRISONMENT

Readers will remember the case of Stolloni, arrested by Chief C. McInnis, of Tisdale, on a murder charge. Stolloni has had several trials or retrials, in one of them being sentenced to the extreme penalty. His latest trial is referred to last week as follows by The Cobalt News:—

"Sergeant Frank Gardner, of the provincial police force, Cobalt, returned home on Sunday from attending a murder trial at Scranton, Pa., and his experience is an interesting commentary on the method of selecting a jury in that state of the Union. The proceedings commenced on Monday, and when court adjourned for the day on Wednesday the third juror had just been elected. Four panels, of 20 men each, had been exhausted, and one-quarter of the necessary "twelve good men and true" had been obtained by that time. Many prospective jurors escaped service by declaring themselves opposed to capital punishment in the event of a conviction being registered, while some who were satisfactory to the prosecution did not meet with favor by defence counsel, and also were turned down. Finally, the accused through his lawyer, agreed to plead guilty to murder in the second degree, and he was sentenced to from 10 to 20 years on each of the three charges. The prisoner was an Italian named Stolloni, wanted for three murders in Pennsylvania, and who had been traced as far as Porcupine."

"We are in a pickle," said a man in a crowd.

"A regular jam," murmured another.

"Heaven preserve us," exclaimed a lady.—Exchange.
