NO CRIMINAL RING SHOULD BE ALLOWED TO DEVELOP.

At Hamilton the other day Judge Gauld took occasion to refer to the increasing power and influence throughout the country of the bootleg and liquor smuggling forces. He commented particularly upon the growth and insolent openness of the bootleg liquor traffic in this Province.
It had grown, he said, "from an insidious unseen menace to a defiant barefaced danger." It attempts to control municipal bodies and even tries its influence on higher authorities. The recent exposures in regard to the smuggling evil, as brought out by the parliamentary committee, indicates the extent of influence and protection the illicit liquor dealers have secured in some quarters. The list of forty deaths from alcohol sold after chemists had recommended the liquor peddling menace are both outraged and heartless of the men in the big liquor rings. Quite evidently these people are most unworthy and undesirable, and the Dominion, the Province, and every municipality should see that any influence they may have secured is broken for all time.

The liquor smuggling evil and the
liquor peddling menace are both outcrops from the harsh and un-British legislation of the type of the Ontario Temperance Act. People naturally resent such legislation and are not much averse to seeing it broken. The fact is that every effort should be bent to securing such amendments to the law as will assist in removing the all-too-common contempt for law now evident. In the meantime, however, it should be remembered that it would be folly to allow any group or groups, with no higher object than the making of money, to secure any dominance in political life, nationally or locally, that would allow them to override the law of the land. Judge Gauld's references will wake up many to a danger that hitherto has only been dimly sensed. The people should see to it that they give their support, not only at election time, but at all times, to those who battle to prevent evil forces from gaining dominance and undue power.

ABITIBI GOLFERS WIN
OVER TIMMINS MEN.

(From the Broke Hustler)
At the week-end the Abitibi Golfers got a certain amount of revenge for their beating last year at the hands of Timmins by playing a seven foursome match with the gold town on the local course and winning handily.
As is usual in foursomes the score was counted by low ball and aggregate. Of the seven foursomes Tim-mins won five points in one and lost 60 points on the other six.

The record for the course was twice broken R. W. Hovey made a 76, one better than the previous record and John Fogg, of Timmins lowered it another notch by doing the eighteen holes in seventy-four.
H. G. Schanche was in charge of the entertainment of the visitors which is another way of saying that there was nothing lacking. The scores were as follows:-

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. Includes E. Little, J. Lowe, J. McGregor, J. McDonald, R. Hovey, J. Fogg, H. Soderston, W. Adams, C. Davis, J. Ross, H. Wales, S. McCoy, A. Armstrong, J. R. Todd, E. Corbould, D. Thompson, Dr. Bell, H. J. Marshall, E. McBride, Geo. Moore, Dr. Dales, S. Rice, H. Buneke, Kelly, H. Gordon, Doelle, P. O'Leary, Horne.

A lady, very active in the social circle of a Chicago suburb, had a brand new idea in regard to giving a party which should have "sweet charity" for its ultimate purpose.
Each guest was invited to bring something that she had little use for, but was too good to be thrown away entirely.
The idea was all right, but the party proved a failure. Eleven of the nineteen brought their husbands.

COMMITTED ON CHARGE OF ATTEMPTED RAPE

Alleged Assailant of Young Girl Will be Tried by Judge. Other Court Cases

The police court this week had one of the largest dockets for many months. Reference is made elsewhere to some of the cases in which adjournment was made. Some of the cases are in progress this week.

Six ordinary drunks paid the ordinary $10 and costs.

Four speeders were fined $10 and costs each, and for breach of the traffic by-law another auto driver paid $1 and costs, showing that the traffic officer is looking after his work effectively.

Mrs. L. Delvonian was fined $200 and costs for breach of the liquor laws.

Five boys convicted of burglary by night and responsible for several of the recent robberies, were committed to the Ontario Reformatory for not less than three months nor more than two years less one day.

Prosper Lepine, charged with attempted rape on a young girl of twelve or thirteen, was committed for trial before the Judge. Some children were playing last week at Dalton's Park when a man came along and caught up one the little girls. The older girl interfered, and she in turn was carried to the bushes nearby and attempt made to rape her.

The screams of the young girl attracted the attention of a man near and the guilty man fled on the approach of the true man. The police were notified of the occurrence and eventually Lepine was arrested at a local hotel, where he was enquiring about securing a room. He was arrested, and when told the charge against him he fell in a faint. The girl identified him as her assailant and a brother and the man who had chased the offender away also accused Lepine of being the guilty party. He pleaded not guilty, but after hearing the evidence the magistrate committed him for trial. The young girl was choked and bruised but fortunately the timely arrival of the man passing by saved the youngster from more serious harm.

MYSELF

(By Edgar A. Guest)
I have to live with myself, and so I want to be fit for myself to know I want to be able, as days go by, Always to look myself straight in the eye;
I don't want to stand, with the setting sun,
And hate myself for things I've done.
I don't want to keep on a closet shelf A lot of secrets about myself, And fool myself, as I come and go, Into thinking that nobody else will know
The kind of a man I really am; I don't want to dress up myself in sham.

I want to go out with my head erect,
I want to deserve all men's respect; But here in the struggle for fame and self
I want to be able to like myself.
I don't want to look at myself and
know

That I'm bluster and bluff and empty show.
I can never hide myself from me;
I see what others may never see,
I know what others may never know, I never can fool myself, and so, Whatever happens, I want to be Self-respecting and conscience-free.
-Riley & Lee Company, Chicago, U.

Build your camp fires small and on bare soil or rock near the water's edge-never against a tree, log or stump. Before leaving, put your camp fire out with water-or earth-and be sure. Forest fires start from a tiny spark and are soon beyond control. Take the same care of fire in the woods as in your own home.
Millions of dollars, and human lives may be at stake.

I thought you had your spring house cleaning done today?
Yes, I did.
(Pointing to cobweb in corner of room): What about that?
Well, I thought that was a part of your radio apparatus, you have so much of it around the house.

COMPULSORY INSURANCE
FOR ALL AUTOMOBILES.

On various occasions The Advance has urged the necessity for some sort of compulsory insurance to protect the public in the case of automobile accidents. At present the public is sadly in need of some guarantee against loss from damage that may be occasioned through motor accidents. A couple of years ago a lady in town was knocked down by a motor car and received shock to the nerves and injuries from which she has never fully recovered. The financial standing of the motor driver was such that no adequate recompense could be expected for the loss caused. This is but one of many similar cases. Every car on the roads, should, in the public interests, be backed up by some form of indemnity insurance for the public benefit. Every CAR should be insured for an adequate amount and no car should be sold or put into use unless this form of insurance were first provided. This week The North Bay Nugget takes up this important question editorially, saying:-

"A bill has been introduced into the British House of Lords, intended to make motor insurance compulsory.
The discussion in the upper chamber showed the great necessity for such legislation, numerous cases being cited of the greatest hardship, in which people had been injured, and in some instances killed, by impetuous motorists, who, because they had taken out no insurance to look after such emergencies, were not in a position to offer adequate compensation to the victims or their dependents. A letter was read from a country solicitor, in which he said: "This makes thirteen cases in one ordinary country solicitor's office in six months." Many of these cases were of a most distressing character, and Earl Russell who quoted this testimony, dealt at length on the evil of the insolvent driver who refused to take out insurance. "I am concerned to see that the poor man who is knocked down, and whose wife is deprived of her husband's salary and earnings for a considerable period, owing to an accident incurred on the road, should have some means of redress against those who are not able themselves to give it," said Lord Montagu of Beaulieu.

"Much can be said for the principal of compulsory auto insurance of this kind, and it would be difficult to advance a valid argument against it.
The man who cannot afford to take out such insurance should not be driving a car at all, and the man who can afford to do so, but neglects his responsibility in the matter, is taking the most expensive risk. If he has means to compensate the individual who may be injured by his car however, he can be made to do so under the law. It is the uninsured person who is without means who constitutes the greatest menace. The law must offer protection to the public constantly exposed to the hazards of the streets and highways. Where that protection is inadequate, it should be increased. There are many ways in which the law in this Dominion, as in the British Isles, could be rendered more effective."

Quickly Drives
Out All
Rheumatic Poison

The first day you take Rheuma, the doctor's remedy that is selling so rapidly, you'll realize that when Rheuma goes in Rheumatism goes out.

It matters not whether you are tortured with pain, crippled with swollen joints or distressed with occasional twinges, Rheuma is guaranteed to end your rheumatic trouble or money back.

Rheuma is just as effective in cases of lumbago, sciatica, arthritis and chronic neuralgia.

Rheumatism is a dangerous disease.
It often affects the heart and causes sudden death. If you have it in the slightest degree get a bottle of Rheu-ma from Moises & Ball or any druggist to-day and drive it from your system at once.
