ASSESSMENT APPEALS HUNDRED AND ONE TO DATE

First Session of Court of Revision to be Held on October 4th.

Up to noon to-day there were 101 assessment appeals entered, and it is understood that some other appeals will be entered. Some few of the appeals are simply against wrong assessment for school purposes, while the majority give the reason for appeal as "assessment too high." Ratepayers have fourteen days from the date of delivery of their tax notices in which to enter appeals.

The first session of the court of revision of the town council will be held for the hearing of appeals on Monday, Oct. 4th, commencing at 10 o'clock in the morning. After appeals have been dealt with by the court of revision further appeal may be made to the County Judge if the appellant is not satisfied with the decision of the court of revision.

The hundred and one appeals represent about eighty-five individual ratepayers, some appealing against the assessment on more than one separate property owned.

MR. TIM McCANN SAFE THROUGH FLORIDA STORM

All will be delighted to know that Mr. Tim McCann came through the fierce Florida storm without any harm or loss. He is in charge of Mr. F. M. Burke's store at Miami and a wire was received this week by Mr. Burke saying that the store had escaped serious damage, though there was a little loss through windows smashed in by the wind and from water damage through the heavy rains. The loss, however, was not serious. Better still, the wire showed that the popular Tim had escaped any injury or even special inconvenience through the storm that did such serious damage in the south.

GOOD FOOTBALL AND A VERY PLEASANT SUPPER

Saturday afternoon last two football teams picked from East and West Cornwall folks respectively battled for a chicken supper. The East won by a score of 3 to 2 in a very nice game despite the bad weather. The West men then put up a memorable chicken supper, both teams enjoying this to the limit. As noted elsewhere in this issue the proceeds from the gate for the match were donated to the Children's Aid Society.

ARCHBISHOP THORNLOE TO RESIGN IN JANUARY.

Archbishop Thornloe, of the Anglican diocese of Algoma, will resign either after the consecration of his successor or on the thirtieth anniversary of his own consecration in January next, according to an announcement made last week. A proposal is under way to present his Grace with a cheque as an appreciation of his services to the diocese. Archbishop Thornloe was consecrated Bishop of Algoma on the feast of the Epiphany 1897. He has made many visits in the north, the country as far as Kirkland Lake being included in his diocese. His Grace is 78 years of age and his health has not been of the best within the last few months.

FLOWERS STOLEN FROM NORTH BAY CEMETERY.

The North Bay Nugget this week says:

"Pillagers visited the Anglican Church Cemetery during the latter part of last week, destroying or removing a great number of shrubs and flowers. Not only did the culprits steal flowers and shrubs but they tore up the sod and other shrubs which were thrown aside. It is believed that the plunderers did their revolting work on Thursday and Friday of last week, as visitors to the cemetery reported the graves in good condition on Wednesday. It is understood that legal steps will be taken by certain individual plot owners to have the persons who despoiled the graves punished."

MANY CASES FOR FALL ASSIZES ON OCTOBER 5

The autumn sessions of the Supreme Court will open at Cochrane on Tuesday, Oct. 5th, with Mr. Justice Rose presiding. There are some important criminal cases on the docket. Two of the cases are charges of manslaughter arising from automobile accidents. One is the case against A. Jekell in connection with the death of Mrs. Vainio following an auto accident here in May. The other is a charge against bus driver, R. Camley, who was in charge of the bus that hit E. Niemen on the Dome Road some months ago. Mike Holgovitch and P. Vosonovich, of Schumacher, will face charges of high-grading.

It is understood that Crown Attorney F. L. Smiley, of Haileybury, will conduct the cases for the Crown, Mr. J. M. Greer former Crown Attorney here having resigned some weeks ago.

Service can be given, and given again, and still there be plenty left.

GIFTED SPEAKER AT THE BAPTIST CHURCH LAST NIGHT.

Rev. Mr. Terrien, of Grand Ligne, Que., was a visitor to Timmins this week, addressing the Baptist church here last night. Rev. Mr. Terrien is a magnetic personality and an eloquent speaker of particular charm and power. He gave a review of the work of the Grand Ligne Mission, with interesting sidelights on life and customs in Quebec, that held his audience in the closest attention from start to finish. He also has talent as a singer and the evening proved of unusual interest and inspiration.

CALF LOVE IN BOTH CASES

A sentimental city youth on vacation was walking through the fields with the pretty daughter of his host, when the pair noticed a cow and a calf rubbing noses in bovine affection. "Do you know," he said to her, "the sight of that makes me want to do the same thing."
"Go ahead," replied the girl.
"It's father's cow."—Yorkshire Post

NOT THE SAME WOMAN

The colonel believed in soldiers being bachelors, so he usually refused his men permission to marry. One applicant turned away looking so downcast that even the officer's stern heart was touched. "Look here, my man," he said, "come to me again in a year's time, and if you still want to be married I'll give my consent." The year passed. Again the private applied; the colonel was quite taken aback. "Well, well, I really must give you permission," he smiled. "I never expected to find such constancy in either man or woman." The private saluted. "Thank you, sir," he said gratefully. "B-but, please, sir, it ain't the same woman!"

MEMBER ELECT GIVEN GREAT RECEPTION HERE

Big Street Parade of Cars and People. Meeting in the Rink. Many from Outside Points.

The reception planned by the local Liberal Association in honour of Mr. Joseph Bradette, M.P.-elect for Temiskaming North, proved a very impressive and interesting event on Friday evening of last week. Hundreds of guests were present from outside points in the riding, fully two hundred being at the dinner for the out-of-town guests at the Queen's Hotel. In the evening there was a parade from the Liberal Committee rooms to the rink. There were a couple of hundred cars in this parade, about forty or fifty cars being here from outside places. A large number of enthusiasts also walked in the procession which was headed by a car bearing Mr. Joseph Bradette, who was loudly cheered as the parade passed along. At the skating rink a temporary platform had been erected and from this platform brief but happy addresses were made to the big crowd that had gathered for the occasion. Mr. D. Ostrosser was the chairman for the occasion and handled the event very effectively. The chief speaker, of course, was the guest of the evening, Mr. Joseph Bradette, who was greeted with prolonged cheering. Other speakers included Messrs Dan Johnston (Matheson), Jas. McGuire, Mr. Langlois, Dr. McInnis, Dr. Joyal, Dean Kester, Geo. A. Smith (Cochrane) Frank Valois. After the meeting at the rink which closed with "God Save the King" and "O, Canada," the out-of-town guests were invited to a dance put on in King's Hall in their honour by members of the local Moose Lodge. The guests were welcomed by Dictator Karl Eyre. A very pleasant and agreeable evening was spent by all.

Attendance at the North Bay Fair last week was not up to the average, but the show was a good one.

Mrs. J. W. Fogg and Mrs. J. R. Todd were among the ladies taking part in the Ladies' Golf Tournament at Haileybury last week-end.

AN EXPERT WITNESS

"You swear that this man is no chicken stealer?" demanded the judge.
"Yessur," replied Rastus Rashley.
"Da's whut Ah said, suh."
"What do you know about the facts in this case?"
"Ah isn't s'posed to know nuffin' 'bout de facts in de case, suh. Ah is an expert witness foh de defense."

HOW YOU CALL THEM

(From The Sailor)
Mistress (instructing new butler): "Now how do you address a baron?"
Butler: "Your lordship."
"And his lady?"
"Your ladyship."
"And an admiral?"
"Er—your flagship?"

WHAT HE ADVISED

The tramp gingerly shuffled up to the old lady waiting at the street corner, and poured a hard-luck story into her ear, winding up with an appeal for the price of a meal. She fished a nickel out of her bag, saying, "Here you are, but I am not giving you this because I think you need it. I do it simply because it pleases me to do so." "Then why don't you make it a quarter, ma'am and have the time of yer life?" said the dusty vagabond.
