SEVERAL TOLD OF SEEING MURDERER OF INSPECTOR

One Woman Able to Give Good Description of Man at the Inquest Jury Could Not Name Slayer.

The inquest into the death of Inspector Harry Constable at Cochrane was concluded last week, with the jury returning the following verdict:

"We, the jury, find that T. H. Constable came to his death on Friday, October 15, about 11.15 p.m. on Second Avenue, Cochrane from bullets fired by a person or persons unknown. And that in view of the numerous unsolved murders in the District of Cochrane a member of the criminal investigation department should be stationed permanently at Cochrane."

Mr. Arthur Stevens was the foreman of the jury, and Coroner E. R. Tucker presided.

The evidence was chiefly the accounts of neighbours regarding what they saw and heard on the night of the crime, together with reports of threats made against the police within the past few weeks.

Chief of Police Parsons told about questioning a foreigner who was seen walking up and down the station platform the evening of the crime when the Inspector had arrived from Iroquois Falls. The foreigner had been prosecuted by Inspector Constable, but the man had given good account of himself when questioned. Previous to the murder the Chief had received no threats.

Lambert Hancock, who had walked part of the way home with the Inspector on the night of the tragedy, described a man who had passed them. He said this man was about the same build as the Inspector, had a dark coat and dark felt hat on, and kept his head down so that his face was not seen.

Mr. Marlin, Public School Inspector, said his ten-year-old boy had said he saw someone running through their yard about midnight. At first they had disregarded the boy's story, but after hearing of the crime they watched the garage until about three in the morning.

Mrs. Biers, a neighbour, awakened by her dog barking, had heard the shots and running to the window had seen a man speeding by the house. He was rather tall, of medium build, and wore a policeman's cap, she said. He had a heavy dark coat on.

Other neighbours gave evidence as to seeing a man loitering around the garage near the scene of the crime.

J. B. Moore, caretaker at the court house, told of hearing a defence witness in a recent case said that he would get Constable. Napoleon Montha, a tailor, also told of hearing threats against the police. Other witnesses gave somewhat similar evidence.

The case is in charge of Provincial Detective Boyd, of Toronto. The Provincial Police from all over the district were gathered last week at Cochrane in connection with the case, but were all sent back to their posts. This week they were recalled to Cochrane, and it is believed that this may be a sign that developments of special interest are in progress.

Born—In Timmins, on Oct. 25th, 1926, to Mr. and Mrs. A. Ayotte—a daughter (Lauretta Antonia).

TORONTO KIWANIS CLUB GUESTS OF TIMMINS CLUB

Delightful Banquet in Empire Hotel. Friday Evening. Brilliant After Dinner Speeches.

The visit of the Toronto Kiwanis Club to Timmins on Friday last will long be remembered as a delightful time for hosts and guests alike. On arrival here the visitors were taken on a tour of the mines, town and district. The party coming here included leading business and professional men from the South.

Those in the party were:—Chas. T. Heintzman, Heintzman & Co., Pianos, Toronto; R. A. Burch, Canadian National Railways, North Bay; R. M. Wollatt, The Royal Bank of Canada; Chas. Albert Smith, Imports, Toronto; C. H. Burgess and two sons, John M. and Horace T., Municipal Debentures, Toronto; R. T. Lewis, Warwick Bros. & Rutter, Ltd., Toronto; J. Smyth Carter, Ontario Press Ltd., Toronto; R. W. Stratton, Guelph Creamery Co., Guelph; H. C. Austen, Dunlop Tire & Rubber Goods Co. Ltd., Toronto; F. W. Smuck, Dominion Oxygen Co., Ltd., Toronto; W. R. Cockburn, Rolph-Clark-Stone Ltd., Toronto; Chas. R. Vint, Palmolive Co. of Can. Ltd., Toronto; John G. Near, Peek-over's Ltd., Toronto; George R. Taylor, Galt Creamery Company, Galt; Dr. Allen Adams, Toronto; J. J. Turner, J. J. Turner & Sons, Peterborough; Geo. Paton, Canadian Pacific Railway, Toronto; Wellington Adams, Toronto; Gordon V. Thompson, Leo. Feist Ltd., Toronto; Stuart B. Playfair, Toronto; J. A. McFeeters, Toronto Creamery Co., Toronto.

The big feature of the visit was the banquet tendered the visitors in the Empire Hotel Friday evening by the Timmins Kiwanis Club. This was one of the happiest evenings possible. Everything was of the very best from the attractive menu and service of the Empire to the original and pleasing musical programme and speeches.

President R. Dye, of the Timmins Club, made an ideal presiding officer, his apt comments throughout the evening adding to the success of the event. He gave a very hearty welcome to the visiting Kiwanis Club and spoke of the pleasant memories of their former visit.

Mr. Geo. Patten, President of the Toronto Kiwanis Club, in replying extended the best wishes of Toronto Kiwanis and congratulated Timmins on its schools, fine buildings and general prosperity and advance. On behalf of the Toronto Club he presented President Dye with a handsome and valuable clock.

Mr. R. Turner, of Peterborough, in a bright and interesting address complimented Timmins on its progress and gave a helpful review of the activities of the Peterborough Kiwanis. He set a high standard in good stories and wit and humour and this high standard was maintained through the evening.

Mr. Lorne Herbert, of Cobalt, spoke enthusiastically of the North Land, and as he sat down, a large group of the old-timers of Cobalt now in the Porcupine rose up and sang lustily the famous "Cobalt song."

Mr. Wm. Cockburn, Lieutenant-Governor of Ontario and Quebec Kiwanis, who was making the evening his official visit to the North, made one of the cleverest and most humorous addresses. He has wit, humour, good story, inimitable delivery, and a fine gift of philosophy, and his address was one of the features of the evening. His presentation address in giving President Dye, a big Kiwanis button, was a gem. He spoke seriously, too, of the Kiwanis ideals and aims.

The Jazz Band, in costumes, and including well-known local Kiwanis members such as Leo. Mascioli, Pete Bardesson, Seottly Wilson and others, made a tremendous hit. Other music for the evening was provided by an orchestra including Messrs Emery, Gene Colombo, R. Burch, saxophone; and others.

Another delightful address was that given extempore by Rev. J. D. Parks. It was chiefly wit and humour but there was also the touch of more serious inspiration.

Other speakers during the evening were:—His Worship Mayor Dickson who heartily welcomed the visitors to town; Chas. Burgess whose stories so well told were a delight indeed; John G. Near, who spoke briefly but to the point; Joe Weston, who made a humorous address that brought down the house; J. Smyth Carter, whose inspirational words were much appreciated, and others.

Solos were given during the evening by Messrs R. Smith, W. Pyper and E. R. Street, these singers each delighting the gathering.

Community singing of Kiwanis songs was another big feature "Alouette," being a particular hit under the direction of Ernie Fortin.

The visitors brought with them a generous allotment of bags given as presents to Timmins. These bags each contained a wonderful assortment of articles, including pencils, blotter, calendars etc.

VERY PLEASANT EVENT BY LADIES OF ORIENT

The bean supper, euchre and dance in the Oddfellows' Hall, on Monday evening, under the auspices of the Ladies of the Orient, very properly attracted a good crowd, and just as would be expected everybody present had a most enjoyable time. The event from beginning to end was a pleasant and successful one, and every feature of the evening was of the very best. Those attending had a special good word for the quality and generosity of the fine supper served.

NO IMPORTANT CASES AT THIS WEEK'S POLICE COURT

At the police court yesterday two drunks were fined $10.00 and costs each. For reckless driving a fine of $20.00 and costs was imposed. The man charged with entering a house under quarantine was allowed the benefit of the doubt. He said he did not see the placard. The case was dismissed with a warning to all to be careful on such cases. Two assault cases were adjourned as were also the forgery charges against I. Lewis.

All should note that it is not necessary to be in costume to attend the Ladies' Basketball Dance Friday this week. While it is a Masquerade dance, those not in costume will be welcome just the same.
