NEW LISKEARD MEMORIAL UNVEILED IN DUE FORM

On Sunday, Oct. 24th, ex-service men from Cobalt, Halleybury and other nearby places joined with the returned men of New Liskeard and prominent men from all over the district, in the ceremony of unveiling the monument at New Liskeard, erected to the memory of the men who gave their lives in the great war. The first New Liskeard citizen to give his life in the great cause was Lieut. A. N. Morgan, and so it was particularly fitting that to his widow, Mrs. Beatrice Morgan, should go the honour of performing the ceremony of unveiling. Owing to the unfavourable weather, after marching to the memorial, the gathering returned to the Grand Opera House where addresses were given and the ceremony generally completed. A guard of honour, with arms reversed, and including a Highlander, an infantryman, an artilleryman and a petty officer of the navy, were stationed at the four corners of the memorial. Among those taking part in the ceremony were—Rev. W. M. Whately, St. John's Anglican church; Mayor J. R. McCrea, of Liskeard; Rev. Fr. Paquin; Rev. M. N. Omond, of the United church; Rev. J. A. MacInnis, of the Presbyterian church; Rev. Geo. N. Simmons, of the Baptist church; and Capt. Edward Blake, of the Salvation Army.

"Old-Timer" Makes "Victim" A Regular Victim This Time

Workingmen of the Town Taught the New Council a Lot, Says Old-Timer, Who, However, Does Not Think the New Council Knows Much Yet. All are Anxiously Waiting the Tax Rate, and Hope it Will Come This Year.

Timmins, Ont., Nov. 1st, 1926

The Editor of The Porcupine Advance, Timmins.

Sir:—Picking up a poster distributed around, I was surprised to learn that I had friends on 4th avenue and "Victims." I might say that the heads of the mine mentioned, do not allow their foremen to have "Victims."

As regards parading "old times," I simply let "Victims" friend know that I had not just "blown in" to town.

I think this year's council were only too glad to consult the working man over the Poll tax muddle. They were faced with working men who knew the law better than they did. Even "Victim" himself must admit, that the council found the working man right there when it came to consulting.

This year's council has made such a muddle of things that even Old-Timer has not to echo the voice of any "crony." Some of their work this year has lost them many of their staunch supporters. As "Victim" says: "Results speak louder than 'knocks.'"

But where are the new council's results this year?

We are all waiting to see what the tax rate will be, and let's hope we get it before the end of the year.

So far the man who rents property has not had the chance to run for council or mayor. Lift the ownership regulations and "Victim" would no doubt find that there would be just as good men run for council and mayor as there are now, and that they would not have to be "Shift Bosses" to make Town Fathers.

"Victim" likes the post office? How's this for one:—A property owner the other day, went to the local post office and was handed a card for registered mail. This was an assessment notice, posted with only a two cent stamp, and registered. It cost the person 20 cents to lift the letter. This might be "Economy" but "Efficiency" certainly lacked here. I might say that the new council will have the pleasure of seeing the envelope when this person pays the taxes.

Our same friend remarked to a friend of mine the other day, that somebody had to boost the new council and that as long as boosting brought him business, why, he did not mind. He even wanted to know who "Old-timer" was, and if the "Advance Editor" wrote his letters for him.

In conclusion, I think that "Victim" and his friend are riding the "wrong horse." Let's hope they can hang on "till we get our tax rate."

FAVOURABLE DISCOVERY AT THE ABITIBI MINES

According to despatches last week from Matheson, an unusually favourable discovery was made on the property of the Abitibi Mines. It is stated that ore across extra wide mining widths has been located by diamond drill recently and that the values are in excess of values previously secured in this property. The report is interesting inasmuch as it is known that previous assays on this ore body were over $12.00 to the ton. While the advice has not been confirmed it is understood that certain American interests, who have been watching this district, have made an offer to develop this property.

MR. AND MRS. W. R. LOWERY BOTH IN TORONTO HOSPITAL

The Northern News, of Cobalt, last week says:—

"Two well-known citizens of Cobalt, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Lowery, are both in hospital in Toronto, the one having undergone an operation and the other facing a similar ordeal. They went to the city together when Mrs. Lowery was to be operated upon, but on arrival there her husband also was ordered to bed. Mrs. Lowery since has undergone her operation and is reported to be recovering nicely, but in a letter from Toronto, it is stated that Mr. Lowery has been advised that an operation is necessary upon him."

HARRY PRESTON TELLS HOW TO FOOL THE MOOSE

In a letter to one of the Toronto newspapers, Mr. H. A. Preston, discoverer of the Dome, and a real old-timer of the North Land, gives a valuable pointer to moose and deer hunters. As Harry is himself a noted hunter, and has spent about a quarter of a century continuously living in this North Land, he should know a lot about the habits of the game animals. Many a time in the bush in this country he has owed his comfort and convenience,—perhaps his very existence,—to his knowledge of the animals and the country generally. Here is his letter:—

"Sir: Now that the big game season is on hunters will do well to keep the following in mind and it may save them their deer or moose and a lot of hard work. If a hunter shoots at a deer or moose and succeeds in hitting him and he runs away the best thing to do is to go over where Mr. Deer or Moose was and if you see blood just sit yourself down and stay there ten or fifteen minutes before going after him, because he won't be more than one or two hundred yards away from where he was hit. After running this distance he lies down and listens and watches for the hunter and when he hears or sees you he gets up and runs farther into the woods and may take you a mile away. But if you let him go and not bother him for a few minutes he will either be dead or so stiff that he cannot get up and you can easily finish him. Try this if you wound a deer and he runs away and see how true it will be. One who has hunted for over thirty years and lived where the game is knows this. Just wait fifteen minutes after hitting him before going after him."
